Summerside "Literary Institute." The question of "Would a Railroad be practicable in P. E.?" was discussed before the Institute on Wednesday evening, after a lively and very interesting discussion it was decided in the affirmative. "Should Woman socially and politically, enjoy the same privileges as Man," will be subject of debate for Tuesday evening next. Jan'y 6, 1869. ALEX McRAE, Sec'y.

Temperance Lectures. Mr. BARRATT, Temperance Lecturer, may be expected (D.V.) to address meetings at the following places, viz:— St. Eleanor's, Thursday Jan. 7th, Lot 16, Friday, Jan. 8. Birch Hill Division, Saturday, Jan. 9. Port Hill Temple, Monday, Jan. 11. Northam, Lot 13, Rose of the Forest, Tuesday, Jan. 12. Canada, Lot 13, Blooming Forest, Wednesday, Jan. 13. Lot 12, Forest, Thursday Jan. 14. "Freeland, Lot 11, Friday Jan. 15. Collections to be taken at each meeting. R. LAIRD, Prinetown, Dec. 30th, 1868.

Rev. M. P. Freeman will preach, D. V., in the Grammar School House, Summerside, next Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock. We learn that a man belonging to P. E. Island recently dropped dead in a house in New Glasgow, N. S., while sitting on a chair waiting for a drink of water.

We direct attention to the Auction Sale, in another column, of the goods of the late Asher Black.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On Friday the 11th ult., while two children of Mr. John McKinnon, Master Builder, in the employ of the Hon. J. C. Pope, were playing together in an upper room of his residence, the girl having left her for a few moments, went down stairs, she hearing the children scream, returned to find the little boy, aged two years and six months, with his clothing all on fire, and the little girl standing close behind him. She succeeded in extinguishing the flames, on the arrival of Dr. Fraser, he gave no hope to the disconsolate parents. After lingering for about two hours, the little sufferer's spirit fled to a better world. We deeply sympathize with his bereaved parents in their affliction.—E.R.

A PITIABLE CASE.—Richard Cahill, 40, Edward Power, 20, and Patrick Kavanaugh, 26, all belonging to Newfoundland, arrived last evening by train from Shediac. Their vessel was frozen in at P. E. Island and they were obliged to leave her, and are now en route to Newfoundland. They went to the police station for protection. They had not a cent of money and had not eaten anything from Thursday morning to Friday evening—the chief of police ordered food for them.—St. John paper.

It is understood that Secretary Seward has sent Reverdy Johnson a letter reminding him that Diplomatic interests require that the negotiations with Great Britain should be kept more quiet, as the publicity given to them in public speeches and newspapers in England has added greatly to the embarrassment of the Government.

Lord Napier of Magdala has departed for India, and will arrive in Bombay in considerably less than a year from the time he quitted that city. Within that period, from a comparatively obscure officer, he has become a General of world-wide note.

Louis Napoleon was sixty years of age on the 20th of April last. It is stated that Booth, the actor, has made $24,000, in two weeks, at Chicago. London contains fully 10,000 persons who support themselves by the pen.

The beautiful island of St. Domingo, is still in a state of anarchy. Disorder reigns too, in Hayti and Dominica. The Princess Imperial of Brazil is afflicted with a fearful species of leprosy. We notice that there is quite an alarming prevalence of scarlet fever in St. John, N. B.

A country paper advertised for "an honest boy to make a devil of." Lost, on New Year's Day, between Hibbet's Hotel and Strong's Hall, a "Plaid Shawl." The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at the JOURNAL OFFICE.
