Y. M. C. A. Bazaar.

THE annual Bazaar and Tea, in aid of the Y. M. C. A., opened in the Market Hall this afternoon. The Hall has been very nicely fitted up for the occasion. The fancy tables are well filled with useful and ornamental articles, and the tea and refreshment tables are also well stocked. The waiters are very attentive. The different tables are presided over as follows:—

- Refreshment Table.—Mrs. Laird, Mrs. Unsworth, Mrs. B. Rogers, Miss Mary Palmer.
Tea Table, No. 1.—Miss Murray, Miss Mason.
Tea Table, No. 2.—Mrs. D. McNeill, Mrs. A. Lorr.
Tea Table, No. 3.—Mrs. McKinlay, Mrs. J. W. Clarke.
Tea Table, No. 4.—Mrs. Dr. Beer, Miss A. Hazey.
Tea Table, No. 5.—Mrs. Farquharson, Mrs. Huggan.
Apron Table.—Mrs. Young, Mrs. Dr. McLeod.
Fancy Table.—Mrs. Dr. Blanchard, Mrs. A. A. Battlet, Miss Amy Palmer.
Ice Cream Table.—Miss F. Hyndman, Miss K. McLean.
Oyster Table.—Mrs. W. Hazard, Miss P. Longworth.
Candy Table.—Miss E. McLean, Miss B. Leigh, Miss E. McKinnon.

The Bazaar will be continued this evening, and we trust there will be a large attendance. St. Peter's Boys' Band will be present and enliven the proceedings. There will also be other attractions. Don't fail to attend.

In Memoriam.

RICHARD FOUND, Esq., of Fountain Mills, New London, was seized with apoplectic coma suddenly at his mill door on the evening of the 5th inst., and died at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 6th. Mr. Found was highly respected in the community. He was a man of unswerving honesty and integrity, and was open-hearted, generous, courteous and firm in manly honesty. He loved, honored and revered God. He was a member of Prince Edward Lodge, A. F. & A. M., and the brethren of the Lodge buried him with Masonic honors. The large procession of vehicles that followed his remains was over a mile long. Much sympathy is felt for the family in their bereavement. May our Father, who is in Heaven, comfort them in their affliction.—COM.

Personal.

The Duchess of Sutherland is dead. Mr. H. S. Petthick, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, is visiting his relatives and friends in this city. J. W. Richards, M. P. P. Bideford, and Phos. Kichham, M. L. C. Souris, are registered at the Hotel Davies. Rev. W. W. Brewer has been invited to the pastorate of the Second Methodist Church in this city. He will probably accept. The man who went to school with Benjamin Harrison is getting almost as numerous as the man who suggested him for the Presidency.

Tommy Madigan, a well-known musician and minstrel, died at St. John, N. B., a few days ago. Madigan visited Charlottetown several times in recent years, and was known to many people here.

Archbishop Fabre, of Montreal, writes that His Grace was granted an audience with His Holiness Pope Leo XIII. on the 4th of this month, and that the Pope manifested a most lively interest in the Canadian people. Rev. Mr. Bruchart, who accompanied the Archbishop to Rome, was also received by the Pope. Mgr. Fabre expects to reach home before the new year.

Some distinctive quality has always been associated in the public mind with the lady of the White House. With Mrs. Grant it was interest in national affairs; with Mrs. Hayes, temperance; with Mrs. Garfield literary taste; with Mrs. Cleveland, beauty, and with Mrs. Harrison it promises it to be domesticity. Nearly all the items about her tell of doing her own marketing and praise her skill as a housekeeper.

Another Victory.

News from the Western Province confirms the report that the Conservative candidate—Mr. Barnard—has been elected as the representative for Cariboo. East and West—everywhere—the Conservative Party is victorious,—because its policy is consistent with the aspirations of the people and because the country is prospering.

Editorial Notes.

—Mr. Lynch's second letter, in another column, is well worth the careful study of our thoughtful and progressive farmers.

—While the industries of the United States are in full swing, and the country, as a whole, is very prosperous, there has been a partial decline of business in New York. The fact is troubling the sagacious minds of careful observers in the Empire City.

The St. John's Remarks.

—Sir John set himself a good example when he appointed John Macdonald, of Toronto, to the Senate. Senator Macdonald is one of the leading business men of Canada, and one of the best authorities on commercial matters. Mr. Drummond, of Montreal, is another strong man. If the Premier continues to make appointments to the Senate from among the leading merchants and manufacturers instead of choosing men whose only claim is that they are elderly politicians of his own party, he will free the Senate from one reproach.

—A petition for the repeal of the Scott Act in October is said to be supported by some of the powerful temperance advocates in the County, on the ground that the Provincial License Law is preferable as a means of restraining the sellers and drinkers of strong liquor. We agree with the St. John News that the form of the law makes little difference. "Whatever may be the form of law its successful enforcement will require the sympathy and help of the most influential citizens, and the patient, careful, determined work of a considerable portion of the community."

—"Blood talks." We may not be able to infuse royal and noble blood into a man's veins; but we can do better; we can expel from them all impure and poisonous humors by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Pure blood is the best kind of royal blood.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Coles-Whelan Monument.

SIR,— "What! silent still? and silent all? Ah! no: the voices of the dead Sound like a distant torrent's fall, And answer, 'Let one living head, But one arise—we come, we come!' 'Tis but the living that are dumb."

So ungrateful, it would appear, have we grown, that we are no longer mindful of the claims of those who spent themselves in the purchase of these blessings we now enjoy with as little regard as to how they came as if it were ever thus. Time and again of late have Islanders been appealed to to recognize the obligation they are under to those two men, the very mention of whose names would, but a few years ago, have called forth unbounded enthusiasm from one end of the province to the other. A monument is required to save their memories from oblivion—a plain, cheap shaft on which to inscribe within a chaplet of laurel leaves "COLES AND WHELAN," and an amount sufficient to carry out the work cannot be procured. What has gotten into our people, otherwise considered generous? For shame's sake, if for nothing else, let only a few score of those who talk so flippantly of their love for the great tribune and his chief unloosen their purse strings and hand over but an obol and the work is done. Outsiders must condemn our smallness of spirit.

"For Greeks a blush—for Greece a tear," and certainly neither blush nor tear will be out of place. The committee in charge of this work, it strikes me, are slow coaches. What are they doing? Let them work or resign. If this long-talked-of monument is ever going to come, it is time the committee gave some signs of life. A meeting in some barrister's back office once a year is not going to satisfy the friends of the cause. What have they to show since last year's meeting? Where is their report? Let us see the names of those who have soul enough in them to long for a public recognition of the worth of Coles and Whelan. If we cannot infuse spirit into the living to work this matter up let us conjure up but a half dozen of the old-time Islanders from Spiritland.

"Of the three hundred grant but three, To make a new Thermopylae!"

Yours,
PAID-UP SUBSCRIBER.

A Very Mysterious Death.

HOW A MONTREAL MERCHANT LOST HIS LIFE IN HIS OWN HOUSE.

The utmost consternation prevailed among the business men of Montreal, on Thursday, when it became known that Mr. Samuel Greenshields, of the firm of Greenshields Bros., wholesale dry goods merchants, had died the previous night under very mysterious circumstances. The facts, as brought out at the coroner's inquest, were as follows: On Wednesday night Mr. Greenshields and his wife were sitting in their drawing-room, when the former got up and said he would go and do a little work in a carpenter's shop he had fitted up in the lower part of the house. His wife fell asleep by the fire, and on waking up at 11 o'clock, went to look for her husband. The workshop was in darkness, and, on entering, she stumbled over the body of her husband, who was on his knees on the floor, with his neck through the bight of a rope suspended from a beam. Her screams aroused the servant, who rushed down stairs with a light, and cut the rope, but Mr. Greenshields was already dead. Dr. Ross, who was called in, gave it as his opinion that Mr. Greenshields, who was a man about 5 feet 5 inches in height, and weighing 200 pounds, had turned out the light, and while leaving the room, had struck his head against the beam, and falling in a swoon, had caught his neck in the noose. The front and left side of his neck were discolored, as if he had struggled for a second or two, but the face wore a natural healthy appearance. Mr. Greenshields had been troubled with severe palpitation of the heart. The jury returned a verdict of accidental asphyxiation. Mr. Greenshields' life was insured, it is said, for $50,000.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other cause. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. (April 1 '78).

HOT AND COLD WATER, PLUMBING.

A HERMANS & SON are prepared to attend to the fitting of Waterpipes into Dwellings, etc., in the latest and most approved manner. A supply of LEAD AND GALVANIZED IRON PIPE, FAUCETS, and all necessary FITTINGS always in store.

—ALSO— The fitting up of HOT WATER HEATING APPARATUS will receive special attention. Estimates made out at short notice. Good reference can be given. The superiority of the work done by the firm of A. HERMANS & SON is guaranteed by a record of many years. The usual patronage kindly solicited.
