POLICE COURT.—One drunk—John A. McInnis—contributed one dollar to the city funds this forenoon.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Dr. Hobbirk took place this afternoon, and was largely attended.

FOR WEAL OR WOE.—The matrimonial fever has struck Frederickton. The Gleaner says there were no less than five marriages on Thursday last, and several more are set down for an early date.

ALL FOR PARWELL.—At a largely attended meeting of the Parwell Defence Fund Association, held in Montreal on Monday afternoon, over $800 were subscribed to the fund, and stirring speeches were made in support of the "no rent" and "boycott" tactics.

IMMIGRATION.—The total number of immigrants who have passed through the Dominion Immigration Office since January to date is 32,676. Of these 4,804 settled in the Province of Quebec; 11,538 in Ontario; 7,248 in Manitoba and British Columbia, and 9,027 went to the States.

FREIGHT BOOMS.—A Montreal despatch of the 29th says: Grand Trunk freight traffic is booming to an unprecedented extent, owing to the break in the Cornwall canal. No less than 1,000 cars of steamship freight, principally grain from western points, are being unloaded at the yards at Point St. Charles.

EDUCATIONAL.—The annual meeting of the Educational Society of the Methodist Church will be held in the basement of the Brick Church this evening. Chair will be taken at 7.30. Addresses will be delivered by Dr. Inch, President of the Sackville University, and others, and a large audience will no doubt greet the speakers.

PENMANSHIP.—Mr. J. F. Smith will open a class for instruction in penmanship at the Business College, on Monday next. Afternoon class at four o'clock, evening class at half past seven. Mr. Smith comes well recommended. We have been shown specimens of his work, which indicate that the testimonials with which he is well supplied are not overdrawn.

LIGHT AND WATER.—Says a Moncton despatch: "President J. L. Harris, of the Gas & Water Co., returned home Saturday, and it is said the company will submit their answer to the town offer at next Monday night's meeting of the council. It is understood the company will agree to furnish hydrants at $50 each, the price offered by E. E. Owen, and electric lights at $100 each, being ten dollars over the amount offered by the electors' meeting."

FATAL FALL.—The Moncton Times reports that a Mr. Cameron, from Ontario, employed by the contractor for the Cape Tormentine breakwater, as superintendent of the stone quarry which is located near Port Elgin, went up on a derrick to fasten some of the rigging, when it tipped, carrying him over to the ground, a distance of 37 feet. He died in a few hours from injuries received. He leaves a wife and family in Ontario and the body will be sent home for interment.

CALEDONIA CLUB.—At the meeting held last evening the following officers were elected: Chief, Lt. Governor Macdonald, re-elected; President, J. D. Irving, Esq., do; 1st Vice-President, Jas. McIsaac; 2nd, Vice-President, Duncan McRae; Treasurer, J. W. Morrison, re-elected; Financial Secretary, A. A. Macdonald, do; Recording Secretary, J. M. Campbell, do; Corresponding Secretary, D. McNeill; Piper, P. Ferguson, re-elected; Directors, A. C. Macdonald, H. L. Macdonald, R. J. Campbell, J. J. Davies, A. R. Beaton, J. Ross, N. McKelvie, S. McRae, J. A. Macdonald.

BETTING ON THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.—Some queer bets have been made upon the presidential election on Tuesday next. In Westchester County, N. Y., a young lady and her beau have bet on the rival White House aspirants, the loser of the bet to attend church wearing the clothes of the opposite sex. A Tammany man and a republican, who for years have been waging boxes of cigars, have agreed that the one voting for the losing presidential candidate, each day for a week should smoke one of the huge cigars known as "a gun" to a finish without relighting. The "gun," it may be explained, is a roll of cheap tobacco seven inches in length and one inch in diameter. Dr. Shields and Frank Moore, of Seymour, Ind., each owns a half interest in Seymour Belle, for which they were offered this summer $7,000. The doctor has wagered his interest to Moore that Cleveland will be re-elected, and Moore has staked his interest on Harrison's chances. Clem Bateman, a carriage manufacturer, of Washington, N. H., in case of Cleveland's election will put a friend's buggy free of charge, otherwise he will receive $50 for the job.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.—A ten-year-old daughter of James Bily, of the W. U. T. Co., had been complaining for some two or three weeks of neuralgic pains in the head, and last week her mother kept her from school. Friday, however, she asked and was allowed to attend school. On Saturday afternoon she, accompanied by her sister, called at Dr. Ross' office, but the doctor was not in at the time. On returning home, she complained of severe pain in one side of her head, but it was soon relieved by her mother applying hot flannels to her head. Sunday she did not complain much of her head, and at bed time was quite lively. Some time during the night she awoke her sister who was sleeping with her, and said she felt very badly. Her sister asked her if she would call her mother and she answered "Oh, no, I'll be asleep again soon." Monday morning, when her sister awoke, she found the little girl dead. She had not been dead long, as her limbs were just beginning to turn cold. Dr. Ross, as coroner, enquired into the facts of the case, and did not deem an inquest necessary, expressing the opinion that she died of neuralgia of the heart.—Moncton Transcript.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Lord Sackville Must Resign.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. Secretary Bayard to-day informed Lord Sackville that his continuance in his present official position in the United States is no longer acceptable to the Government, and would be detrimental to the relation between the two countries. Bayard to-night says the Government's action constitutes a complete severance of relations with Minister West.

New Winter Steamer.

OTTAWA, Oct. 30. W. G. Lampue, one of the engineers of the Marine Department, has left for Scotland to bring out the new steamer Stanley, but expressly for the Island service.

Told to Prepare.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Oct. 30. Governor Black, of Newfoundland, has been requested to prepare for transfer to Queensland as Governor of that colony.

The Lord Sackville Affair.

LONDON, Oct. 29. The Pall Mall Gazette writing about the Sackville incident expresses the opinion that the excitement caused by the letter in America is largely stimulated for political purposes. It regrets that Americans are not superior to such outbursts of feeling. Except for the chance of catching Irish votes by abusing England, it thinks that no one in America would care two straws what Lord Sackville wrote, said or thought. The Globe holds that the most satisfactory denouement of the incident would be to send instructions to Lord Sackville to keep his opinions to himself while at Washington. American election tactics, in its opinion, are outside the notice of any foreign power. The St. James' Gazette maintains that Lord Sackville cannot remain at Washington. He should have known better than to walk into a net spread before his eyes.

After the Body Snatchers.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 29. Yesterday ten men searched the Royal Medical College and yet no bodies could be found, but soon after certain parties alarmed sent for an undertaker and while the searchers were away had Miss Kenney's body conveyed to his establishment. Then the police were notified. Miss Kenney's body was not at all injured. Friends removed it to Pittsburg, last evening. The students insisted that the body discovered on the dissecting table bereft of arms, ears and much of the cuticle, was not that of the late Caleb Smith, but friends were positive that it was and it was handed over to the lamenting friends. Among the searchers were several women, who, nerved to great endurance by the persistency of the search, moved about the college and handled bodies and bones in a way that proved the path of excitement to which they had reached.

Entrapped and Massacred.

LONDON, Oct. 29. Advices from Bonny B. river, Africa, state that the Kikani tribe, in revenge for some injury, invited a party of Ogonia to a friendly palaver and then entrapped and massacred them. A canib'd feast of most horrible and indescribable character followed. Then an attack was made upon outlying villages and most barbarous outrages committed. It is estimated that over 150 persons, including women and children, were killed and eaten.

Yellow Fever.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 29. Gainesville reports ten new cases of fever to-day. The authorities asked the government to send an agent there and take full charge. Enterprise to-day made requisition for four hundred rations for two weeks. There were seventeen cases and two deaths the past 48 hours. Jacksonville's report is thirty-six new cases and four deaths.

A Narrow Escape.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 29. Patrick Welsh, the well known day porter at the Queen Hotel, had a narrow escape from instant death, this morning. In passing Sharkey's block, Queen street, the violent wind blowing at the time hurled a portion of an iron railing from the roof. It struck Pat on the head, glancing however, and leaving four deep gashes, and then descended on the fleshy part of his leg just below his hip, from which a piece of flesh as large as one's hand was torn almost outright. In an insensible condition the injured man was borne to the Barker house, and in a short time consciousness returned, but he is still very weak, although now out of danger. Had the iron struck him fairly on the head the blow must have caused instant death.

Another Election Dodge.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. The Herald's Washington special says: "The members of the National Democratic Committee have been notified that a plot is on foot to have forged testimonials purporting to be from the English Cobden Club sent to President Cleveland, Messrs. Mills, Carlisle and other leading Democrats just on the eve of election, and then to publish them over their receipt, together with facsimiles of the testimonials, too late, of course, for an explanation of their bogus character to be made before election."

Nothing the Matter With Hannah.

BERLIN, Oct., Oct. 29. Hannah Boyd, confined here on suspicion of being implicated in the Galt candy poisoning, was released to-day, there being nothing to warrant her further detention. The general impression prevails that she was imprisoned to see if she would not confess something.

Stanley's Fate.

LILLE, France, Oct. 29. The Echo du Nord states that the president of the Geographical Society of Lille has received news from Africa that Henry M. Stanley has been massacred with all his expedition excepting two men. An overdose of Morphine. HALIFAX, Oct. 29. In the case of the death of Mrs. Selig, whose teeth were extracted by Dr. Andrews, as before telegraphed, the jury, after seven hours' deliberation, brought in verdict "That said Mary H. Selig died from congestion of the brain and lungs, caused by an overdose of morphine administered by Dr. C. T. Andrews, of Bridgewater, without intention of causing death."

Disastrous Fire.

BERLIN, Oct. 29. A fire is raging since early this morning at Hausfeld, near Cassel. Two hundred houses are in ashes and 15,000 persons homeless and destitute. Great distress prevails.

The Injunction Granted.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 29. Judge Killam gave his decision to-day granting the C. P. R. the injunction applied for. This has for the present completely nonplussed the local government.
