UNITED MEN'S ASSOCIATION BANQUET - On Monday evening, April 4th, St. David's Men's Association entertained the ladies of the V. A. and members' wives to a very enjoyable turkey supper. Each lady selected a dinner partner by a lucky number, and the gentlemen escorted them to the tables. The tables were waited on very capably by two of the young men, David Lavers and Stewart Hansen. Mr. Gordon Ross presided in the kitchen. After a sing-song, a short business meeting was held. The president, Mr. Harry Yorston, welcomed the ladies, and expressed pleasure on behalf of the Association in having the ladies as special guests of the evening. Mr. Seymour Knight, chairman of the entertainment committee, also spoke briefly. He then gave a fine rendition of "Dancing in Dan McGrew," demonstrating his excellent memory to his appreciative listeners. Several excellent films were shown, and an enjoyable evening came to a close with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.
