"IMPOUNDS" HEDGEHOG
CAMBRIDGE, England - (CP) - William Cleo, Cambridge's Pindar - an official whose job was once to impound straying cattle - had to "impound" a straying hedgehog who was walking down the town's main street.

INDISPENSABLE
GUILDFORD, Surrey, England - (CP) - The 7:10 didn't leave here for Waterloo as usual the other morning and hundreds of city workers were late. The conductor had fallen ill and the train had to be cancelled.

HOW to get the most out of Your Pipe

Break it in gently... right from the start. Moisten the inside of the bowl before filling. Smoke the first two pipefuls slowly, allowing the pipe to cool before refilling. This helps to form the "cake" in the bowl.

... Load it with Old Virginia PIPE TOBACCO and Relax

There's nothing like cool smoking, slow burning "Old Virginia" to put you on good terms with yourself... top-flight smoke for men who know.

Tignish Plans New Library

That Tignish is planning to raise funds to erect a suitable library building on Church Street comes as good news to the large number of readers who, for the past year have been doing without a library for the simple reason that suitable quarters could not be obtained in which to house a book collection.

Now a very active committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. C. A. Kinch have undertaken to raise funds to build a carefully planned library.

The plans are a 16 by 22 foot, one-story building, completely fireproofed on the outside. The inside, which calls for shelving, lockers, and well-placed windows, will have a book capacity twice as large as in the old building.

The committee, who are shouldering the responsibility of placing a library in this community are soliciting the kind co-operation of everyone. Plans are made to have a collector call at each house in the district and if everyone is generous, we should have our books back again early in July. Please help with a donation.

The Committee in charge are as follows: President - Mr. C. A. Kinch, Vice-President - Mr. Joseph McIsaac, Secretary - Miss M. Conroy, Treasurer - Miss Beatrice McCarthy, Conveners - Mrs. J. M. Ahearn, Miss Kathleen Brennan, Mrs. James Gallant, Building agent - Mr. Peter Gaudet.

Burgess Stories

said Mrs. Billy, who had followed Billy. Billy said nothing. He moved slowly all the time listening closely. He was ten feet back from the edge of the bank.

"Those young birds must have stopped crying and that is why we don't hear them. Those Kingfishers wouldn't have dug so far in as this. Just think of the work! They couldn't have done it!" declared Mrs. Billy.

Billy moved back a little farther slowly and his keen little ears and a little farther. He moved very close to the ground. Mrs. Billy went back to look over the edge of the bank again, hoping that after all she might find some way of getting down to that doorway. She was just in time to see Mrs. Rattles leave and Rattles return. Of course, he had a fish. At once the young Kingfishers inside began to beg for it.

Billy Mink heard them. The sound was very, very faint, only the very best of ears close to the ground could have heard. It seemed to Billy to come right out of the ground right under him. He knew exactly what that meant. He was sitting on the roof of that kingfisher home as it were. He knew now exactly where that nursery full of young Kingfishers was. If he could dig straight down he could get every one of those young birds, the dinner for which his mouth had been watering so.

If he could dig down. How very, very big that very, very small word is sometimes is. Billy Mink isn't a digger. Not a real one.
