Thompson's Choice.

It is a rare good fortune for any man to have at the same time a choice of the two most splendid official prizes in the gift of the country. But this is at the present moment the rare good fortune of Sir John Thompson. He can now, if he choose, be Premier of Canada, and he can now, if he choose, be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Dominion. What will be his choice? Were he to consult his own interests he would, without doubt or hesitation take the office of Chief Justice. That is the ne plus ultra of a Canadian lawyer's ambition. Sir John Thompson is pre-eminently a Canadian lawyer, possessing a pre-eminently judicial mind. We cannot imagine any earthly thing in the gift of Canada which would please him better than the highest judicial position in Canada. Nor is there a lawyer in Canada who is by natural talents, vigor of mind, learning, knowledge and experience, fitter to adorn the position.

On the other hand, he is naturally regarded as the rightful successor of Sir John Caldwell Abbott, whose age and ill-health compel retirement and rest. His religious opinions—which are being discussed by some of the politicians and some of the newspapers—ought not to be an impediment in his way to this high position. As in other denominations, there are good men and bad men in the Roman Catholic Church. Certainly there are professed Roman Catholics who would, in such an alternative, be highly objectionable. But Sir John Thompson is one of the good Roman Catholics. No man can point to a flaw in his moral character, and his personal honor is as unspotted as his ability is undoubted. The fact that he is a Roman Catholic who at one time was a Methodist, will not weigh a feathersweight in the minds of any but a few fanatics. Given a Premier of character and ability, the intelligent men of Canada care not whether he is Catholic or Protestant,—they will sustain him as long as he does well in the responsible and honorable position to which he has been called. Though the people of this Province are for the most part Protestant, they kept the Hon. W. W. Sullivan longer in the office of Leader of the Government than any of of the able men who previously held it, and Protestant interests were in no way injured or compromised. Nor will Protestant interests throughout the Dominion be in any way injured or compromised by the promotion of Sir John Thompson to the office of Premier of Canada. It is said that the Manitoba School difficulty will prove a stumbling block in his way. But the fact set forth by Sir John Macdonald, when he said "we cannot force Manitoba," will, undoubtedly, govern Sir John Thompson, as it must govern all political leaders in Canada. A large majority of the people of Manitoba have decidedly pronounced against Separate Schools at the public expense. The highest legal authority in the Empire has declared that there is nothing in the law inconsistent with the position taken by the majority in Manitoba. This decision may be regretted, but it cannot be reversed. Nor is it possible for the Parliament of Canada to interfere, at this juncture, to force separate schools upon Manitoba. While the province was yet unarganized, and when it was being constituted, separate schools might have been established by the Parliament of Canada in connection with its educational system. But having—as the Privy Council of Great Britain declares—failed to do so then, it is too late to do so now. "We cannot force Manitoba." No parliament of Canada would support any political leader in an attempt to compel Manitoba to accept separate schools in opposition to the well-understood wishes of a large majority of its people. A kindly and mutually satisfactory compromise, within the lines of the law, may—as in Halifax and St. John—be effected in respect to the city schools. But the Catholics of Manitoba, as of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, must be content to give up the idea of separate schools under the law. Sir John Thompson knows this, the bishops and clergy know this, the fire-eaters of Quebec know this. Consequently Sir John Thompson will not, should he elect to become Premier of Canada, be greatly troubled about the Manitoba school difficulty.

For either of the great offices open to him, Sir John Thompson is, undoubtedly, eligible and fit. His choice offers a most interesting subject for speculation.

Mr. W. Farrer Ecroyd, ex-M. P., in a letter to The London Times, publishes one received in 1853 from Richard Cobden. Mr. Cobden clearly shows in this epistle that in supporting free trade he meant freedom of contract, freedom of labor from all control by unions or labor organizations, freedom of wages in other words as well as freedom of trade interchange. Mr. Ecroyd very properly points out, and The Times does not attempt to deny it, that the freedom of the labor market is now gone, but the liability to untaxed foreign competition remains. This is not real Cobdenism, and just as free imports and taxed exports does not constitute genuine free trade, so labor protected by trade organizations should involve the products of labor protected by a tariff.

Police Court.

This morning the adjourned hearing of the charge against Frederick Shaw, arrested on complaint of John A. Cameron for the larceny of a quantity of jewelry and a sum of money, was proceeded with. Shaw was defended by Mr. W. A. O Morson.

Chas. Vessey, clerk in Mr. Cameron's store, was the first witness called. His evidence was substantially the same as given at the previous examination.

Mr. Cameron was next called. His evidence did not bring out anything new, excepting that previous to his going to the country Shaw had been bargaing with him for a ring and a chain.

G. G. Jury, watchmaker, said that at the time the exhibition was here Shaw showed him a plain gold ring and asked him what it was worth. The ring was similar to one of those in court. He noticed Cameron's initials on the ring. Both rings appear to have been worn some time.

Nelson Armour said he saw Shaw with a plain gold ring the time the circus was here, but could not tell what ring it was.

Miller Matheson said that about a week before his arrest Shaw was at his place at Brackley Point. He had some rings while there. One was a 10 karat and the other a set ring.

Policeman Campbell testified that when he arrested Shaw he was wearing two rings, one of which he said he got in Halifax and the other belonged to his sister.

This closed the case.

The Magistrate said he thought a prima facie case had been made against Shaw, and sent him up for trial in the Supreme Court.

Shaw was released in the sum of $300 bail—himself in $100 and two others in $100 each.

Andrew McQuillan, charged with being drunk and disorderly and otherwise misbehaving himself, was remanded until to-morrow. Mrs. Rush, the complainant, testified that McQuillan entered her house while intoxicated, and after chasing her children upstairs, was too free with a woman whom he found in the house. Mrs. Began, who lives near by, testified to seeing McQuillan and the woman together in Mrs. Rush's house. Mrs Rush was not home at the time. After the warrant was taken out for him, McQuillan returned and broke the glass in the windows of the Rush and Began houses.

John Burke had Patrick McGuirk arraigned on a charge of assault and battery. John didn't feel like pressing the charge, and McGuirk was let off with a fine of five cents and costs.

The Orman-McKenna assault case was dismissed, the prosecutor being ordered to pay the costs. A disorderly driving case was also dismissed.

Six drunks were fined in sums ranging from $2 or 8 days to $10 or 20 days; and several persons were fined for non-payment of dog tax.

Christie Munro did not come up before His Honor this morning, as intended. She has been remanded to jail for 8 days.

Challenge From Elmo.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER.

SIR,—On Wednesday last, when the stallion race was called, Elmo was not in form to start, from the fact that for ten days previous he had been suffering from the effects of a severe cold and cough, which had put him out of condition. On Thursday he was worse, consequently I could not start him in the free-for-all. Thousands were disappointed, but none to the extent that I was. To give the many admirers of Elmo an opportunity of seeing him once more defeat the champion, Israel, I hereby challenge his owner, Mr. Bell, to trot a race, mile heats, best three in five, on Wednesday three weeks, for $200 a side. I have deposited with A. B Warburton, Esq, Secretary of the Charlottetown Driving Park, $100 to bind the match.

I am opposed to match races, but as I had the misfortune to have a sick horse last week I resort to this method to bring on a race. Provided Mr. Bell does not accept my offer, I extend it to the owner of any horse that competed in the races of the Charlottetown Exhibition of 1892.

Methodist Missions.

MEETING OF THE N. B. AND P. E. I BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY.

The seventh annual meeting of the N. B. and P. E. Island branch of the Women's Missionary Society opened in the Methodist Church, St Stephen, N. B., on Tuesday. In the evening a reception was held, at which Mrs. Henry Hill gave an address of welcome to which Miss Wadman, of Bedeque, replied. There were upwards of 60 delegates in attendance.

The morning of the second day was occupied with the reading of reports from the various societies, which showed a very considerable increase in membership and a corresponding growth of missionary zeal. The treasurer reported $4,596 85 raised during the year—an increase of $759.92.

Thursday morning session opened at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Massey, of P. E. Island, assisted in the conducting of the devotional services. Reports of committees were read, discussed and adopted. The weaker auxiliaries were recommended to the care of the stronger ones, to be encouraged by cheering letters and literature.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the interest of the mission bands, led by Mrs. D. Chipman of St. Stephen. She read a very interesting report of the work of the year. Twelve new bands had been formed during the year. There are 1,173 young people belonging to the bands of this branch, and they have raised $1,180. A chorus was sung by the children. An excellent paper was read from Mrs. Geo. H. McKay, of St. John, subject, "A few principles of band work." A solo was given by Mrs. C. A. Palmer, of St. John, and a paper on "The spiritual aspect of band work" was read by Mrs. Wm. Lawson, of P. E. Island.

A very elegant banner, the gift of Mrs. Corey, of London, Ont., was presented to the Alberton band, as the band which had gained the greatest number of members during the year.

The closing session was held on Friday morning, the principal business being the election of officers, which resulted as follows: Miss Palmer, St. John, president; Mrs. Macmichsel, St. John, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Johnson, Charlottetown, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Sprague, St. John, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. J. D. Chipman, St. Stephen, corresponding secretary; (Mrs. Chipman is allowed to appoint her assistant); Mrs. Stewart, West Cape, recording secretary; Miss Stewart, Sackville, treasurer; Mrs. Howard, Hampton missionary band, corresponding secretary; Mrs Reid, Tryon, auditor; Mrs. Smith, editor of Palm Branch. The president and corresponding secretary are delegates to the central board, and Mrs. Johnson is elected third delegate.

District organizers are appointed as follows: Miss Harper, Sackville; Miss Thorne, Fredericton; Mrs. McKeown, St. John; Mrs. Webster, St. Stephen; Mrs. Johnson, P. E. Island.

The invitation of the missionary society of the Central church, Moncton, for the society to meet with them next year was accepted.

By a dispatch received here on Saturday afternoon the friends of Miss Lena Saunders were apprised of the death of this young lady, who went to Stellarton, N. S., on the 21st September on a visit to some friends. Miss Saunders contracted a cold on the trip over which developed into inflammation of the lungs, which terminated fatally on Saturday at 2 o'clock. She was a daughter of Isaac Saunders, Esq., of Winsloe Road. The funeral will be from his residence on Tuesday at 2 p. m.

Mr. J. C. Shaw, M. A., of Charlottetown, P. E. I., arrived Tuesday to take a position on the teaching staff of the Vancouver High School. He will devote his attention to the teaching of classics. Mr. Shaw matriculated into Dalhousie College in 1883, winning a Munro Bursary worth $300. In 1885 he won a Munro Exhibition worth $400, graduating in 1887 with first-class honors in classics and taking the Governor-General's gold medal. He taught classics in Pictou Academy from November, 1888, to August, 1889, when he resigned that position to accept a tutorship in classics at Dalhousie College, holding this position for two years. He entered Harvard University in 1891, at which institution he has since been taking a post graduate course. He held a Shattuck scholarship at Harvard worth $300, and took the degree of Master of Arts there. Before coming to Vancouver, Mr. Shaw was offered an instructorship in Latin in Cornell University.—Vancouver, B. C., News-Advertiser.

In Berlin it is officially stated that certain suspicious cases of illness are due to cholerine and not cholera. On July 14th a Spanish medical commission reported that the cholerine prevalent in Paris was Asiatic cholera, and that that soft name was used for purposes of deceit. The cable despatches give details of the meeting of the Jesuit order in Spain to elect a new General. It was at first expected they would meet in England and that the election would be held at Manresa house, Roehampton, the most important establishment of the Society of Jesus in England. There they have a fully equipped printing office of their own and from the Manresa Press their numerous publications issue. With the expectation of an election taking place in England, the Pall Mall Gazette said: "A halter at Tyburn was what awaited the Jesuits who ventured into England in the reign of Elizabeth and James the first. Now Jesuit delegations from all parts of the world come openly and undisguisedly to England to elect the 'Black Pope'—the sobriquet of the General of the Jesuits, because he is popularly regarded as the power behind the Papal throne."
