High Flying Canadiens Blank Faultering Leafs

By BILL MacDOUGALL

MONTREAL (CP) — Bernie Geoffrion scored two goals to earn himself a shared spot in the record books as third-highest, regular-season scorer in National Hockey League history as Montreal Canadiens defeated Toronto Maple Leafs 4-0 Wednesday night.

The veteran right - winger, whose goals were more than enough for the victory that kept the Canadiens in first place went into a tie with retired Ted Lindsay with 365 goals each in their careers.

The win, which might have been more one-sided for some good work in the Toronto goal by Johnny Bower, kept the Leafs—who tried some incredible line - juggling in a vain search for success — in third place with slim hopes of repeating this year as season-end leaders.

Geoffrion and Lindsay, the former Detroit and Chicago star, rank behind only Gordie Howe and Montreal's Maurice Richard, also retired, in the all-time NHL scoring annals.

The Canadiens right-winger, veteran of 12 years in the NHL, who will be 33 Friday, already had an honored spot in NHL history as one of three men—the others are Maurice Richard and Chicago's Bobby Hull — to score 50 goals in a season, a feat he accomplished in 1960-61.

He opened the scoring at 17:57 of the second period, poking in the puck from the corner of the crease during a scramble in front of the Toronto goal.

The second goal, at 2:23 of the third period was a blasting slap shot from just inside the blue line that tore into the net without giving Bower a chance.

Dave Balon, with his 22nd of the season, and Gilles Tremblay, with his 21st, were the other Montreal scorers.

Montreal goaltender Charlie Hodge, who recorded his fifth shutout of the season, now has blanked the Leafs in 157 minutes and 55 seconds. The last Leaf to score on him was Jim Pappin, on Jan. 29.

Toronto manager-coach Punch Imlach even went to the extreme in line-juggling — five defencemen on the power play. But it was to no avail as Hodge had all the answers on the few dangerous shots of the 31 the Leafs threw at him.

Bower made 36 saves, and all the goals with the possible exception of Balon's were not to be blamed on him.

First period — no scoring. Penalty—Laperriere 7:49.

Second period—1. Montreal, Geoffrion 14 (Backstrom, Ferguson) 17:57. Penalties—Brewer 5:10, Douglas, Ferguson 9:41, Richard 18:41.

Unbeaten Ch'town Rinks Are Clashing This Morning

Two Charlottetown rinks remain the only undefeated foursomes in provincial curling championship play now being staged at Belvedere Golf and Winter Club.

Art Burke, the 1962 winner, and Doug Cameron, the defending champion, are the pair sporting the unblemished records.

Burke owns a 4-0 record after three days of competitiion and Cameron has chalked up three triumphs in as many attempts.

Last night Burke was given a stern argument by RCAF's Terry Hea who trailed 9-5 going into the tenth. However, Hea didn't give up in a hurry and rallied for two in the tenth, one in the eleventh and a singleton in the final end. But the game comeback was two short of sending the affair into an extra end and Burke triumphed 9-7.

Cameron was given a bad scare by Dr. Giddings earlier in the day. Doug was forced to battle from behind and the rinks started the twelfth all tied at 9-9. Cameron ralied his forces in the last frame and ran off with a big four.

The battle of the giants is scheduled for this morning at 9.30 when Cameron and Burke collide. The biggest gallery of the week is certain to view this big one. The loser of the Burke-Cameron clash will take on the survivor of Dr. Wen Macdonald-Dr. Bill Moreside. The doctors fight it out on ice adjoining Cameron and Burke at 9.30.

Six other rinks remain in the race in addition to Cameron and Burke. They are T. Hea (RCAF) 3-1, Moreside (B) 3-1, MacPherson (RCAF) 3-1, A. Robertson (M) 3-1, G. Nicholson (M) 3-1, Dr. Wen Macdonald (C) 4-1.

Other games going at 9.30 this morning are Hea (RCAF vs. MacPherson (RCAF) and the Robertson and Nicholson qartets from Montague. Losers in all matches except the Cameron-Burke clash will automatically be ousted from the championship race.

Two matches are scheduled for 2.30 this afternoon and another one for 7.30 tonight. Participants will depend on the outcome of this morning's games.

TexacoCombines Edge Maroons

O'LEARY — Summerside Combines edged O'Leary Maroons 7-6 in a Prince County Hockey League game last night in O'Leary Community rink.

Four hundred fans saw a bruising battle throughout and O'Leary's Jim Kennedy was banished in the second stanza with a game misconduct.

The squads battled on a 2-2 basis in the first frame and split four goals evenly in the second. The Combines gained their triumph by edging the homesters 2-1 in the final 20 minutes.

Claude Gadet of the winners and J. Ranaghan of Maroons each fired three markers. Ron Gallant rifled two into the O'Leary net and Greg Deighan and Coke Grady were the other Combines' sharpeshooters.

Cameron, Gorrill and Tyne Valley's Ron MacArthur accounted for the remainder of Maroons' tallies.

Legion Game Is Postponed

The proposed game between the Charlottetown Legion Juveniles and the Summerside Kinsmen Juveniles originally scheduled for this Saturday has been postponed until February 23rd.

The Summerside Junior Legionnaires defeated the RCAF Eagles at Civic Stadium last night by the score of 5-3. It was the rubber game of their exhibition series, each team having won one before last night's game.

The score was 2-1 for Juniors at the end of the first period and knotted at 3-all when the second frame was over.

George Dalton, Bob Perry, Alan Gaudet, Dave Martin and Paul MacWilliams got the junior tallies.

Harold Martin, got one of the RCAF goals, and Doug Tucker fired a brace. Nine penalties were called by referees Bob Sloan and Vance Harris, the Juniors getting five (all minors).

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

The Battle Rages

THE battle continues to rage at Belvedere Golf and Winter Club and the favorites are still in there fighting for that all-important berth in The Brier set for Charlottetown Forum.

When we put Sports Front to bed, it wasn't safe to make any prediction on who might be fighting it out in the final bracket. Many are figuring that Art Burke and Doug Cameron are sure bets to tangle in the big one but funny things can happen in curling championships.

Burke's great record in the Rendezvous competition surely stamp him as a top competitor. Doug's experience and coolness under pressure always make him a favorite in any special he enters.

We will never forget that crucial battle between these two rinks a couple of years ago. Burke wasn't supposed to come through on that occasion but he did in striking fashion and off he went to The Brier. However, last year, Cameron regained his crown and this season he has looked great in these TV television shows from Winnipeg and Toronto. Undoubtedly Doug and his rink members have gained much valuable experience from these games with the best curlers in the country. Just to prove to those who were watching that curling is done right here on the Island, Cameron beat the great Ernie Richardson in one of these engagements.

Having A Great Time

THEY are having a great time of it playing their intermediate 'B' and 'C' playdowns under the hockey committee of the Island branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

These playoffs appear to increase in popularity each year and players and their fans are dead serious about the battles. Communities get solidly behind their outfits and all other sports results are secondary once these playdowns get rolling.

It's a most necessary part of rural life during these winter months and it surely makes the community a more friendly spot in which to live.

Midgets And Juveniles

JUVENILE and midget hockey clubs in this province will get their playoffs going shortly.

The teams from smaller centres feel they can't cope with boys from Charlottetown and Summerside and last season they asked the MAHA representatives to set up an 'A' and 'B' bracket. Their request was granted and the same practice will be continued this season.

In the 'A' bracket Charlottetown is at Summerside in juvenile play on March 9 and the teams return to the Island capital for the final game of the two-game total goal series on March 14. The Island winner plays a sudden death game at the rink of the New Brunswick winner on March 21. The Maritime final is set for the rink of the N.B.-P.E.I. champion on March 28.

In the 'B' bracket of juvenile, Georgetown is at Morell on March 2 and the teams finish the series in Georgetown on March 5. That winner plays at Crapaud on March 9 and the final game of the 'B' series is at the home of the Morell-Georgetown winner on March 12. All these 'B' series games are two-game total goal affairs.

In midget play, Charlottetown and Summerside are still the only two in the division. Summerside is at Charlottetown March 21 and the teams end the series at Summerside on March 23.

The 'B' series of the midget playdowns will appear at a later date.

Is Mahovlich Going?

Will Toronto Maple Leafs get rid of big Frank Mahovlich?

There are rumors on the go that the club isn't happy with Frank's performances. We did feel a bit sorry for the big fellow when he was interviewed last Saturday night .Apparently they are trying to make Mahovlich the goat of the Leafs' slump. It's true he isn't playing outstanding hockey but there are other guys there who aren't covering themselves with glory..

We still think he will show enough to make Leafs hold on to him.

Track And Field At The Gardens

NEW YORK (AP)—Sprinter Bob Hayes, miler Tom O'Hara and high jumper John Thomas, all unbeaten in indoor competition in this Olympic year, head an extremely strong field for Thursday's 96th New York Athletic Club Games in Madison Square Garden.

Hayes, Florida A and M ace, has equalled the 60-yard dash indoor mark of six seconds flat three times this season, his first major indoor action. He predicted in Los Angeles last week:

"I'm liable to go 5.9 any time now."

He may have to in order to beat the strong field against him. It includes the quick-starting Sgt. Mel Pender of the U.S. Army, Fordham's Sam Perry and Gerald Ashworth, a former Dartmouth runner.

Probably the best bet for an indoor record, however, looms in the return match of Villanova's strong Noel Carroll and Toronto's Bill Crothers in the half mile.

CROTHERS SET RECORD

Crothers ran an American record 1:50 in beating Carroll by a yard in the Millrose Games half-mile a couple of weeks ago. His string of 20-plus indoor victories was snapped last week when he tripped in Los Angeles but scrambled to his feet and lost by inches.

Carroll, whose brilliant anchor lap provided Villanova with the two-mile relay mark in Boston's Athletic Association Games, has gone 1:47.5 outdoors and is gunning for a sub 1:50 performance indoors.

O'Hara, the gritty Chicago redhead with the unorthodox style, has won four major mile cup races this winter. His best time was in the Millrose, 4:00.6. He's heavily favored with chief opposition expected from Jim Crelle of the Los Angeles Track Club.

Thomas, on the rebound from his lacklustre performances of a year ago, has been a consistent seven-foot-plus performer this winter. He'll be challenged by Australia's Tony Sneazwell and Lew Hoyt, last year's National Collegiate Athletic Association champion from Southern California.

Bruce Kidd of Toronto, Ron Clarke of Australia and Irelandw's Tom O'Riordan are entered in the two-mile event.

Olympic Team Still Abroad

BOLZANO, Italy (AP)—The Canadian Olympic hockey team defeated a Canadian-reinforced local team 5-2 Wednesday night in an exhibition game in this north Italian city.

The first period was scoreless. The Olympians took a 2-1 lead in the second period and outscored the locals 3-1 in the third frame.

The Canadians, playing a series of exhibition games before returning home from the Innsbruck Winter Olympics, played fast, neat hockey. They were warmly applauded by a sell-out crowd of 5,000 at the indoor ice rink in this Alpine resort city.

Playing on the Bolzano team were seven Canadian professionals, four of whom came from Austria for this game, and three Canadian-born Italians.

Tuesday night, the Canadians, who finished fourth in the Olympics, defeated a Canadian-reinforced Innsbruck team 6-5.
