

THE PEOPLES' CANDIDATES

QUEEN'S COUNTY: Brecken and Jenkins. PRINCE COUNTY: Hackett and Rogers. KING'S COUNTY: McDonald and Muttart

How the Battle Goes.

PROMINENT, LIFE-LONG GRITS, FROM EVERY PART OF THE DOMINION, FLOCKING TO THE RANKS OF THOSE WHO UPHOLD NATIONAL PROSPERITY AND PROGRESS.

LEADING Liberals, in every part of the Dominion, who prefer national success and prosperity, to an organized hypocrisy that would make our country and homes slaughter markets for foreigners, swelling the ranks of the Liberal-Conservative Party.

The following are a few of the more prominent men who have left the Grit Party, all of whom wield a vast influence.

- Here are their names: JOSIAH WOOD, Sackville, N. B. JOHN A. HUMPHREY, ex-grit M. P., Albert, N. B. HON. WM. LINDSAY, ex-grit M. P., Carleton, N. B. J. L. HARRIS, Moncton. MR. MILLS, Moncton. MR. C. P. HARRIS, Moncton. J. H. OSMAN, Hillsboro, N. B. VALENTINE BURNBAM, Salisbury, N. B. JAMES STEWART, Hamilton, Ont. THOMAS WORKMAN, ex-grit, M. P., Montreal. CHAS. RAYMOND, Guelph. G. B. BANNATYNE, ex-grit M. P., Winnipeg. THOMPSON, Stratford, Ont. SPEIGHT, Markham, Ont. JOHN HAGGART, Brampton. MACKENZIE, ex-grit M.P.P., Westland. BARBER, Peel, Ont. GEO. TUCKETT, Hamilton, Ont. R. M. WANZER, Hamilton, Ont. C. E. SNOW, Hamilton, Ont. ROBT. CAMPBELL, Hamilton, Ont. CHAS. GURNEY, Hamilton, Ont. A. J. GRANT, ex-M.P.P., Glengarry. B. WILLIAMS, Glanville, Ont. J. W. FAIRMAN, Vice-President of Reform Association, Hamilton. SAMUEL WOODLEY, Hamilton. G. F. BURROWS, Dundas, Ont. M. FISHER, Dundas. MORGAN BROS, Hamilton. J. B. BARNARD, Hamilton. HON. THOMAS COFFIN, ex-grit, Cabinet Minister, Barrington. Mr. NEELON, grit M. P. P., St. Catharines. MAURICE O'CONNOR, Guelph. N. CORNELL, East York. G. S. TICKELL, Belleville. THOMAS WILSON, Ex-President Reform Association, Dundas. JAS. BAILLIE, late Secretary Reform Association, Dundas. GEORGE M. BARTON, Solicitor and ex-Mayor of Dundas. JOHN FISHER, Dundas. PATRICK FISHER, Dundas. PATRICK CAIN, Dundas. JAS. CROSSEN, Cobourg. HENRY LYMAN, Montreal. E. K. GREENE, Montreal. M. PLEWIS, Brantford. J. I. MURPHY, Guelph. N. SCOTT, Wingham. Mr. SHAND, Berlin. Mr. SNOWBALL, St. George. Mr. ADAMS, Paris. Mr. E. PERRYMAN, Toronto. ROBT. THOMPSON, Toronto. W. MILLICHAMP, Toronto.

Mr. Josiah Wood says that the history of Westland County, since the adoption of the National Policy and the advent to power of the Liberal-Conservative Government, compelled him to endorse the policy of the present administration, and he thought any change of policy would be a serious interference with the progress of the country.

Mr. Thomas Workman, ex-grit M. P. for Montreal West, in an interview is thus reported:—

'Has your business increased under the Tilley tariff?' 'Oh, yes, greatly.' 'What other benefits do you enjoy under the National Policy?' 'The Dominion is not now made the slaughter market of the United States for the surplus production of that country, as it was under the old tariff. Prices are now stable that were formerly liable to great fluctuations, and business can be carried on without the ruinous losses previously incurred.'

'Then you are satisfied with the existing state of the tariff?' 'Yes.'

Mr. George Barton, ex-Mayor of Dundas, Ont., a life long Grit, concludes a long letter to the Hamilton Spectator thus:— 'And the experience we already have had since the tariff of 1879, of the change from the destitution and dullness in all our land to a state of active business life and progress and money earnings, must satisfy us that our duty is plain. No risk must be run! And the Government and the men who have boldly carried out the policy, and who are now before the country as its pledged supporters, must be replaced in power. No matter if we would rather our accustomed leaders had been endowed with the wisdom to have accepted and fulfilled their duty. They have failed. It is now an issue above party conflict. Those who believe in protection of the industries of the country by legislation are forced to support by their votes the men who are certain to maintain that policy.'

TELEGRAMS from Boston report an increased demand for potatoes, at highest prices. In this city from seventy to seventy-five cents per bushel is offered.

Further Testimonials.

And it is a Monthly and a Wet that I have been these fifty year and more, come next to Martinmas, and Mrs. Harris knows it, and of all the most ill-conditioned children he must have the most ill-conditioned of the common. I grew up something out of the common. I Daffed him, and I Sulphured him, and I Sals and Senna'd him, and Treacled him, and a-Many and a-Many's the Spank I had, so below on the Base of him, and he has grown up a Governor I would never have thought he would have gone for to do it. I really wouldn't a thought it of him. (Signed) MRS. GRIMP, (Monthly Nurse.)

It scarcely seems clear to me why I should be called upon to testify that when Hon. D. Laird went to Ottawa—to his own astonishment and ours—he was lifted from top to toe, six feet two inches, by me, as his artist, without the 10 and 3 quarter boots—which, not being in our line, we did not supply. His stovepipe hat was the best we could build. We have heard that it was this aforesaid beaver that struck Hon. Sandy Mackenzie with such admiration that, when said Sandy saw that said title, he at once said that a man with a hat like that ought to be a Governor. Our client was made a Governor accordingly. And we take the opportunity to inform the public that all our goods are wool-dyed and were imported before the operation of the obnoxious National Policy Tariff (Signed) HIS TAILOR.

Phrases from the Latin.

Aerostically adopted to Laird and Davies. D um spiro, spero, (While I breathe I hope). A uri sacri famae, (The accursed thirst for gold). V endit hic auro patriam, (This man sold his country for gold). D n extenso, (at full length). I n vivimus, vivamus, (Whilst we live, let us live). L ex talionis, (The law of retaliation). A ut Vincere aut mori, (Victory or death). I agens (inguns) telum necessitas, (Necessity is a powerful weapon). R eductio ad absurdum, (a reducing a position to an absurdity). D ivide et impera, (Divide and rule). L usus nature, (a sport or freak of nature). H ic jacet, (Here lies) or Hear lies, D ictum de dicto, (Report upon hearsay). A nguis in herba (a snake in the grass). V olo, non Valeo, (I am willing, but unable). I n utrumque paratus, (Prepared for either event). E x pede Herculei, (Judge of the whole from the specimen). S atis, superque, (Enough, and more than enough).

Murray Harbor Notes.

A MEETING was held here on the 7th inst., for the purpose of electing members for the Dominion Parliament. Though called by the Grits it turned to the interest of the Liberal-Conservatives. When the meeting was opened not a large number had assembled, but as soon as it was known that the old members had arrived, the hall was filled.

Dr. McIntyre addressed the audience first, and if he had continued much longer the seats would have been emptied, as it was, he was much interrupted whilst speaking.

The second speaker was Dr. Muttart, and when he began those that had left returned, and he had the pleasure of speaking to a very attentive audience, with great force and eloquence, confuting the statements made by the previous speaker. Then followed Dr. Robertson; his effort did not succeed any better than his colleague's.

The next speaker was A. C. McDonald, Esq., who did himself credit, and the party he intends to support. It was said at the close, "He is growing more witty." A few well-timed remarks were made by the Hon. S. Prowse, which will have a good effect in gaining supporters for Sir John McDonald. The old members were nominated by a unanimous vote. It was not so for the Opposition, many nays being found in the audience.

The "Poor House" Party

AND WHAT THEY THINK OF MECHANICS. A continuation of the National Policy means a continuation of plenty of work, with good wages and empty poor houses. Mr. Blake's readjustment of the tariff, with a tendency to his much admired and ardently hoped for free trade, means closed workshops, starvation wages and crowded poorhouses.—Hamilton Spectator. "A FAR-SEEING manufacturer" is what the Galt Reformer calls Mr. Clayton Slater of Brantford, the man who said at Paris (Ont.) that it would be better for the country if the MECHANICS WERE ALL IN THE POOR HOUSE, than to perpetuate the National Policy. If Mr. Slater can see as far as the 20th of June, he will see a demoralization among the poor house party.—Sun.

Record of Failures.

The record of Canadian failures, as taken from the books of Messrs. Dun, Wiman & Co., is as follows:—

Table with columns for NO. and LIABILITIES. Rows include 1874 (966, $7,696,765), 1875 (1,968, 28,843,967), 1876 (1,728, 25,517,991), 1877 (1,890, 25,510,157), 1878 (1,615, 23,152,262), 1879 (1,902, 29,347,390), 1880 (907, 7,947,063), 1881 (637, 5,770,717)

Sudden Death.

A man by the name of James Cahill, employed in John A. McLure's Lobster Factory, St. Peter's Bay, fell dead while at his work on the morning of the 5th inst. An inquest was held on the body, and a verdict "died by the visitation of God" was returned. Every effort was made to find his relatives, failing in which his remains were interred in the cemetery of the East St. Peter's Presbyterian Church.

At a meeting of the Bank of P. E. Island, held to-day, a ballot was taken for the purpose of ascertaining the wishes of shareholders as to the appointment of liquidators, with the following result: Bank of Nova Scotia 347 votes; Hon. L. C. Owen, 467; C. C. Gardiner, 25; A. B. Warburton, 179. The liquidators will probably be chosen from those who secured the highest number of votes.

Meeting at Brooklyn.

Five-Sixths in Favor of the Government!

Special to the Examiner.

MONTAGUE, June 10. At a large and influential meeting held at Brooklyn, Lot 61, last night, Messrs. McDonald and Muttart were enthusiastically received.

The Government candidates were nominated by James Clow, Esq., and seconded by Messrs. McKinnon and Reid.

Towards midnight, Mr. McFadyen, local member, endeavored to prevent the chairman putting a motion, by threatening to speak two hours. The meeting at once became restless, an exodus ensued, and only six remained, including the chairman, who, from courtesy, stayed long enough to nominate the Grit candidates.

As soon as the motion was carried by the noble five, the chairman bade them good night.

Five rousing cheers were given for McDonald and Muttart.

Mr. McFadyen's long-winded speech remains undelivered.

Something Better than Politics

NEVER in one case has Perkins' Cramp & Pain Alleviator failed to cure Neuralgia or Sialgia, and Chronic Rheumatism of many years standing has been cured after all other remedies failed by the use of Perkins' Pain Alleviator. Mrs. Mason, of St. John, was pained in sheets for eight months, her hands and limbs quite out of shape, and as hopeless as an infant, was restored to perfect health in three months by the use of Perkins' Pain Alleviator. I only ask those afflicted to try it as directed, and then they will say, as Mr. Pratt of Fowling says, it was the means of saving his life two years ago. I do not put this in print to pull my medicines. I only publish it in order that suffering humanity will know what to use that will positively cure them. Try it and be satisfied.

While in church last Sunday I was very much annoyed (and I am sure the Minister was) with the constant coughing, disturbing not only the Minister, but the audience, some of whom I visited on Monday, and asked why they did not get something for their cough. The answer was we have tried a number of cough remedies, but all to no purpose. I asked them did they ever try Dr. Wisner's British Cough Balsam. They said they had heard of it as being a wonderful good remedy for Coughs; but there was none to be had. I told them they could get it now, as I had supplied those who are in the habit of having it; and in long standing coughs, where parties have been threatened of falling into consumption, it has cured them, and my advice to those is not to delay; it will cure them after all other remedies fail.

If you have Perkins' Indian Hurlie Ointment in your House you need not fear that dreadful enemy—erysipelas—that has taken the life of so many on this Island and all over the Dominion. It has been well tested for the past twelve years, and never in one case has it failed to cure when used as directed, and now I am informed that a large number of the physicians are using it in their practice, as it is so good for Burns and Scalds and Fever Sores; and for sore nipples it is the boss of the world. I can refer you to several young mothers that have lost the use of their breasts by having them lanced 15 or 20 times, when the Indian Hurlie Ointment would have saved all that trouble. Young mothers keep it in your house for immediate use as you cannot estimate its value.

The above is manufactured by D. H. Perkins, St. John, N. B. No Agents employed to sell, and I caution you beware of such frauds.

Cut this out and paste it where you can see it daily. [June 10]
