A CORRECTION.—The new Methodist Church at Summerside will be opened on Sunday, 12th inst., not to-morrow, as first reported. It is a handsome edifice.

THE RAILWAYMEN'S CHRISTIAN CONVENTION meets this year at Truro, on August 24th. Conductor Joe McKay will provide for the Convention. The Island railway will be represented.

ATTEND IT.—The Benevolent Irish Society's Picnic at Scotchfort on Monday promises to be the event of the season. Extensive preparations have been made for a pleasant time.

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S VISIT.—The arch to be erected by the City Council, on Kent Street at City Hall corner will be a beauty. The work of erection has been commenced. Another very pretty arch is being erected at the entrance to the railway station.

DOX'S MISS IS.—On Monday afternoon Prof. Fontana, the world renowned mind reader, will give a public exhibition of his wonderful power by driving blindfolded through our principal streets a hack, in which will be seated several well-known citizens. This is a wonderful test and should not be missed.

PARISH.—Rev. S. S. S. will preach in Kensington Hall, tomorrow (Sunday) evening at 7 o'clock. Mr. Sutcliffe was formerly in charge of this mission, but is now a member of the East Main conference of the M. E. Church. His many friends here will be glad to see and hear him again.

FIRE.—A spark from the chimney set fire to the roof of a house on the corner of King and Hillsborough Streets this forenoon, and before the fire was extinguished some damage was done. Owing to a misunderstanding about the alarm the firemen had some trouble in locating the scene of the fire.

BASEBALL.—Next Tuesday afternoon at Victoria Park, at 2.30, the Pictou B. C. Club will play the Charlottetown B. C. Club for the championship of P. E. Island. The game will be interesting to the lovers of the sport, and the town boys feel confident of winning with such players as those who lately defeated the Souris boys.

ANOTHER CATTLE POST.—The horn fly has made its appearance in the city of Moncton, and is spreading among the cattle with great rapidity. This pest made its first appearance in Canada in 1892, and for particulars and treatment farmers are referred to page 185 of the Dominion Experimental Farm's report of 1893.

A GLOOMY OUTLOOK.—Following is an extract from a letter received a day or two ago by ex-Councillor McKay from a member of the Northwest Council, residing at Regina, in the Assiniboia district: "Our western country has failed us this year. We will not have a bushel of wheat in this district, and I see nothing but starvation this winter for the majority of those who depend upon grain alone."

BURGLES AT LORNO.—Burglars raided Salisbury village, near Moncton, on Wednesday night. They entered the post office, but as the postmaster had taken out all the cash they got nothing there. They also entered Cranville's store, ransacked the drawers and took all small change, but did not attempt to force open the safe. They also attempted to enter Barnes & Co's store, but were evidently frightened off.

SALMONS AT LORNO.—This forenoon six salmon from the Partridge, who were placed under arrest by order of the captain for being absent without leave, got away from the police at the wharf while they were waiting for the ship's boat to come after them, and were landed at the ferry wharf by a man named Purcell, who was passing in a sailboat, at the time. Up to three o'clock this afternoon five of them had been recaptured.

B. I. S. PICNIC.—The members of the B. I. S. are requested to meet at the Lyceum on Monday morning at 7.45 to form in procession. About twenty members will take early train to take charge of the picnic. The medals for the different events will arrive this evening, and will be on exhibition at Hughes' Drug Store.

THE MEMBERS OF DIVISION NO. 1, ANCIENT ORDER OF HIBERNIANS, will meet at the Lyceum at 7.45 on Monday morning for procession with the B. I. S.

DOX'S GOOD WORK.—Dot, 2231, bl m, by Administrator, was the 223 class at Franklin Park, Sangre, Miss., on the 31st ult. There were 100 members, and $1000 was raised. Dot won the two first heats easily in 2:23, 2:22, but in the third heat she left her feet and fell to the rear, coming in seventh. Wild Oats, winning the heat in 2:21. In the fourth heat she went to the front and stayed there, winning the heat in 2:24, though Wild Oats and E. L. Robinson tried their best to beat her, first one and the other being at her heels.

NEW YORK POLICE CASES.—The first of the criminal trials of policemen for blackmail has begun in New York, and they have found a man for foreman of the jury who swears he had never heard anything about the police scandals in New York, had never heard of the I. exco committee of Chanancy. Both sides accepted him with avidity on the apparent principle that a man who doesn't know anything is unprejudiced!

Now it is said that ex-Capt. Dubert proposes to tell all about police blackmailing in New York, and how much of the swag went to his superior officers. When thieves fall out, the New York police commissioners are likely to get hurt.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

SHOULD NOT OCCUR AGAIN.

Sir,—A number of persons attending the Opera House last night were very much annoyed to find their seats occupied by others holding duplicate coupons. It places everyone, but particularly ladies, in an exceedingly unpleasant position to be compelled to stand while the usher looks up seats, besides inducing a want of confidence in the management.

OBSERVER.

THE CASTAWAYS.

The largest audience of the season greeted Harry Lindley and the clever company supporting him last evening, the occasion being the presentation of the first time in Charlottetown of the nautical, far-set drama, "The Castaways." This play was written by Harry Lindley, and its object is to show up the practice of sending unworthily ship to sea in order that their owners may get the insurance. The various characters were in good hands, and the acting throughout was capital. Harry Lindley as "Tony Elmonds," the land-lubber, was immensely funny, and kept the audience laughing almost continually. The part of "Frank Conway," the hero, was cleverly interpreted by Mr. Chapman. Mr. Woodall as "Benben Lloyd," the hypocritical ship-owner, was good, and the part of "Dandy Allen," a companion in villainy, was well taken by Mr. King. Mr. Marsh made a capital "Mark Jones," and Mr. Secord, a splendid "Sam Williams." Miss Flint's "Maggie Pearson" was excellent and the parts of "Miss Williams" and "Jessie Pinnum" were well taken by Miss Sutton and Miss Mathes. Little Ethel Lindley deserves special mention for her impersonation of "the middle," and her singing and acting in the duet with her father. There was some blundering regarding seats, which was most annoying, and which will, we trust, be guarded against in the future. This evening, the great emotional melodrama "The Wages of Sin," will be presented. The Company will return to Charlottetown next week, and give performances Friday and Saturday nights.
