Barn Talk

As you know the full and part-time staff at the Barn includes Brinko, Mary, Mary, Grant, Susan, Zeno, and Floyd. Being different from most food operations where meagre wages are augmented by tips, we have no tips at the Barn to augment average wages. So I ask the students and faculty of UPEI who enjoy the service at the Barn to chuck a few cents in the pot that will be on the counter one day only next Thursday, Nov. 8. This money will be divided among the staff, according to the hours worked.

Thank you.
Ted Gamauf,
Manager.

Winter Theme

Hell! We Don't Have One Yet!

So....we implore your creativity, your inspiration, your originality, your head to assist us in our moment of need. We'll even make it worth your while.

All you have to do is think of something better than Bob Gray's suggestion of having Jim Fitzgerald pose in a bathing suit with the Caption 'Fun in the Sun'- a Hawain motiff. (By the way if anyone knows where Bob's head is really at, they should tell him.)

Anyway, if you have something better in mind for the Carnival Button theme, why not drop it in to Sweet Baby Jane (S.U. secretary) at the Student Union Office c/o Winter Carnival Comm. You don't have to use the Pink Panther Idea at all. You don't have to be able to draw. If you can chew gum with your eyes open, then you qualify to enter this contest extravaganza and perhaps walk away with the grand prize!

If you have a design for the Carnival button, drop it in to us.

If you can't draw, write out your ideas on paper and drop it in to us.

If you would rather explain your ideas in person drop in.

Be sure to include your name and address on all entries (yes you can enter as many times as you want) so that we can notify the winner. But PLEASE come forth. Contest closes Nov. 14, 1973.

Share your ideas with us so we can share them with everyone else.
