

Russian Offer Welcomed Of Fissionable Material

By STANLEY PRIDDLE

GENEVA (Reuters) — Western diplomats Monday night welcomed an announcement by Marshal Nikoita Bulganin that Russia will contribute fissionable material to the international atom-for-peace fund.

The Soviet premier told the Big Four conference: "The Soviet government has taken a decision to contribute to the international pool of atomic materials of the international atomic energy agency an appropriate amount of fissionable materials as soon as an agreement in setting up this agency has been reached."

Only a few hours before, President Eisenhower—who personally launched the "atom bank" plan two years ago—expressed disappointment at Soviet failure to follow United States and British example in giving material.

Though Moscow had said it was considering the Eisenhower plan, Monday's statement by Marshal Bulganin was taken as meaning that Russia will definitely join in.

NO COMMENT

Marshal Bulganin did not say how much fissionable material Russia would contribute. Other aspects of his opening speech to the "summit" conference evoked no official comment in Western circles.

The Western delegations decided that to make formal criticisms of the Soviet speech might prejudice chances of the conference's success.

But Western observers said they saw nothing in the statement marking a shift in Russian foreign policy or making a major contribution to the success of the conference.

The two-phase plan for first "freezing" and then dissolving the Atlantic pact and its eastern Communist counterpart will certainly be rejected by the West, whose policy is founded on the maintenance of the Atlantic alliance.

The proposal for the demobiliza-

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES SMITH

The sudden death of Mrs. James Smith of Freetown on July 6th, 1955 was learned by her many friends and relatives with deep regret.

Born in Elgin, N. B., on March 19, 1871, to Stephen and Emma Copp Garland, she married on July 6, 1892 James W. Smith of Freetown, P. E. I., and came to Ellerslie as a bride. They moved to Freetown forty-five years ago. She was a faithful member of the Freetown United Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary Society; her favorite pastime in her declining years was the making of quilts.

Possessed of a keen intellect and wonderful memory, she kept herself well-versed in the happenings of the day, and was always an inspiration and spiritual uplift to those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

She loved her Lord and served Him faithfully and well. She was to her family all that the word "mother" implies, having journeyed just two months ago to the United States, so as to be at the bedside of her critically ill daughter.

She leaves to mourn an only son, Clayton, with whom she resided since her husband's death in 1941, and the following daughters: Mrs. William Harrison Somerville, Miss Annie (Mrs. Dan Smallman) O'Leary, P. E. I.; Lois (Mrs. Herman Berthold) Newport, Rhode Island; Helen (Mrs. Donald Kaye) Everett, Mass. Three sisters and one brother also survive, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. One son, Kenneth, predeceased her seventeen years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, with friends coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a friend and loved one.

Rev. Alexander McKay of Kensington, P. E. I., a former pastor and close friend of the family, broached a comforting message assisted by Dr. C. A. Britten of Bedouque, P. E. I. Hymns were favorites of the deceased: "Unto the Hills", "Abide With Me", and a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Lyman Smith.

The pall bearers were six of her grandsons, namely: Morris, Elmer and Lyman Smith, Brenon and Foster Smallman, and George Berthold.

The many floral tributes were borne by Gordon Smith, Denton Hogg, James Inglis, John Stewart, Walter MacPherson, and William Francis. Interment was in the People's Cemetery in Freetown.

We that are left to mourn are comforted to know that our loved one is at rest and when life's short years are past, we shall meet her in Heaven, never to weep nor part any more.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES SMITH

The sudden death of Mrs. James Smith of Freetown on July 6th, 1955 was learned by her many friends and relatives with deep regret.

Born in Elgin, N. B., on March 19, 1871, to Stephen and Emma Copp Garland, she married on July 6, 1892 James W. Smith of Freetown, P. E. I., and came to Ellerslie as a bride. They moved to Freetown forty-five years ago. She was a faithful member of the Freetown United Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary Society; her favorite pastime in her declining years was the making of quilts.

Possessed of a keen intellect and wonderful memory, she kept herself well-versed in the happenings of the day, and was always an inspiration and spiritual uplift to those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

She loved her Lord and served Him faithfully and well. She was to her family all that the word "mother" implies, having journeyed just two months ago to the United States, so as to be at the bedside of her critically ill daughter.

She leaves to mourn an only son, Clayton, with whom she resided since her husband's death in 1941, and the following daughters: Mrs. William Harrison Somerville, Miss Annie (Mrs. Dan Smallman) O'Leary, P. E. I.; Lois (Mrs. Herman Berthold) Newport, Rhode Island; Helen (Mrs. Donald Kaye) Everett, Mass. Three sisters and one brother also survive, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. One son, Kenneth, predeceased her seventeen years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, with friends coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a friend and loved one.

Rev. Alexander McKay of Kensington, P. E. I., a former pastor and close friend of the family, broached a comforting message assisted by Dr. C. A. Britten of Bedouque, P. E. I. Hymns were favorites of the deceased: "Unto the Hills", "Abide With Me", and a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Lyman Smith.

The pall bearers were six of her grandsons, namely: Morris, Elmer and Lyman Smith, Brenon and Foster Smallman, and George Berthold.

The many floral tributes were borne by Gordon Smith, Denton Hogg, James Inglis, John Stewart, Walter MacPherson, and William Francis. Interment was in the People's Cemetery in Freetown.

We that are left to mourn are comforted to know that our loved one is at rest and when life's short years are past, we shall meet her in Heaven, never to weep nor part any more.

CENTRAL QUEENS JUNIOR FARMERS

The Central Queens Junior Farmers held their regular meeting in the Department of Agriculture board room last evening. The president and vice president both being absent, Wallace Wood was selected as chairman. A constitution suggested by the Junior Farmers Federation was adopted.

and Mrs. Robert Rackham, Heather Coles and Wallace Wood were appointed as directors beside the officers. Ways and means of raising funds and a club project were discussed. Jean Chandler and Sterling MacRae are the program committee for the next meeting. The meeting closed with a lively relay.

tion of troops of the four powers being withdrawn from Austria was not expected to raise Western enthusiasm. Only a few thousand troops are involved and their disbandment would be insignificant, Eisenhower's suggestion that Bulganin's rejection of President international communism and the fate of thepeoples in Communist Eastern Europe were conference issues had been foreshadowed in recent statements by Soviet leaders.

In Memoriam

A. HAMMOND AFFLECK

—With deep regret we record the death of A. Hammond Affleck of Searletown, on Sunday morning July 3rd, at the Prince County Hospital, where he had been a patient for some time. About one year ago, he had a major operation in Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, from which he seemed to make good recovery, but was again stricken with the same trouble, against which medical science and loving care were of no avail.

The late Mr. Affleck, youngest son of the late Alex and Margaret Crockett Affleck, was born at Searletown in 1884, where, for the past twenty years, in company with his son Harold they carried on very successful farming operations on the old Affleck property, in the home he was a loving father and companion to the family, and everywhere his kind and genial disposition won him a wide circle of friendship. In all that pertained to the welfare of the community he was ready to lend a helping and charitable hand.

In early life he was married to Elizabeth Bonness, who predeceased him almost three years ago. There are left to mourn one son, Harold, and two daughters, Jean at home and Margaret, (Mrs. Dr. Douglas Hoggood of Vancouver) who flew home for the funeral. Also two brothers, Stewart of Searletown and Will of Halifax, N.S.

The funeral service was held at the home, conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. H. Bishop assisted by Rev. W. A. MacMay of Scotland, and interment was in the Church of Scotland cemetery in Cape Traverse. The favorite Psalms and Hymns of the deceased were sung — 23rd, 121st and "In The Garden," the latter being expressively rendered by Mrs. A. Hedley Lowther. Bearers were life long friends of the deceased, Archie MacFarlane, Horace Sobey, Fred Platts, Arnold Henderson, Norman MacWilliam, and Arthur Dawson.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES SMITH

The sudden death of Mrs. James Smith of Freetown on July 6th, 1955 was learned by her many friends and relatives with deep regret.

Born in Elgin, N. B., on March 19, 1871, to Stephen and Emma Copp Garland, she married on July 6, 1892 James W. Smith of Freetown, P. E. I., and came to Ellerslie as a bride. They moved to Freetown forty-five years ago. She was a faithful member of the Freetown United Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary Society; her favorite pastime in her declining years was the making of quilts.

Possessed of a keen intellect and wonderful memory, she kept herself well-versed in the happenings of the day, and was always an inspiration and spiritual uplift to those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

She loved her Lord and served Him faithfully and well. She was to her family all that the word "mother" implies, having journeyed just two months ago to the United States, so as to be at the bedside of her critically ill daughter.

She leaves to mourn an only son, Clayton, with whom she resided since her husband's death in 1941, and the following daughters: Mrs. William Harrison Somerville, Miss Annie (Mrs. Dan Smallman) O'Leary, P. E. I.; Lois (Mrs. Herman Berthold) Newport, Rhode Island; Helen (Mrs. Donald Kaye) Everett, Mass. Three sisters and one brother also survive, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. One son, Kenneth, predeceased her seventeen years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, with friends coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a friend and loved one.

Rev. Alexander McKay of Kensington, P. E. I., a former pastor and close friend of the family, broached a comforting message assisted by Dr. C. A. Britten of Bedouque, P. E. I. Hymns were favorites of the deceased: "Unto the Hills", "Abide With Me", and a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Lyman Smith.

The pall bearers were six of her grandsons, namely: Morris, Elmer and Lyman Smith, Brenon and Foster Smallman, and George Berthold.

The many floral tributes were borne by Gordon Smith, Denton Hogg, James Inglis, John Stewart, Walter MacPherson, and William Francis. Interment was in the People's Cemetery in Freetown.

We that are left to mourn are comforted to know that our loved one is at rest and when life's short years are past, we shall meet her in Heaven, never to weep nor part any more.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES SMITH

The sudden death of Mrs. James Smith of Freetown on July 6th, 1955 was learned by her many friends and relatives with deep regret.

Born in Elgin, N. B., on March 19, 1871, to Stephen and Emma Copp Garland, she married on July 6, 1892 James W. Smith of Freetown, P. E. I., and came to Ellerslie as a bride. They moved to Freetown forty-five years ago. She was a faithful member of the Freetown United Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary Society; her favorite pastime in her declining years was the making of quilts.

Possessed of a keen intellect and wonderful memory, she kept herself well-versed in the happenings of the day, and was always an inspiration and spiritual uplift to those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

She loved her Lord and served Him faithfully and well. She was to her family all that the word "mother" implies, having journeyed just two months ago to the United States, so as to be at the bedside of her critically ill daughter.

She leaves to mourn an only son, Clayton, with whom she resided since her husband's death in 1941, and the following daughters: Mrs. William Harrison Somerville, Miss Annie (Mrs. Dan Smallman) O'Leary, P. E. I.; Lois (Mrs. Herman Berthold) Newport, Rhode Island; Helen (Mrs. Donald Kaye) Everett, Mass. Three sisters and one brother also survive, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. One son, Kenneth, predeceased her seventeen years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, with friends coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a friend and loved one.

Rev. Alexander McKay of Kensington, P. E. I., a former pastor and close friend of the family, broached a comforting message assisted by Dr. C. A. Britten of Bedouque, P. E. I. Hymns were favorites of the deceased: "Unto the Hills", "Abide With Me", and a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Lyman Smith.

The pall bearers were six of her grandsons, namely: Morris, Elmer and Lyman Smith, Brenon and Foster Smallman, and George Berthold.

The many floral tributes were borne by Gordon Smith, Denton Hogg, James Inglis, John Stewart, Walter MacPherson, and William Francis. Interment was in the People's Cemetery in Freetown.

We that are left to mourn are comforted to know that our loved one is at rest and when life's short years are past, we shall meet her in Heaven, never to weep nor part any more.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES SMITH

The sudden death of Mrs. James Smith of Freetown on July 6th, 1955 was learned by her many friends and relatives with deep regret.

Born in Elgin, N. B., on March 19, 1871, to Stephen and Emma Copp Garland, she married on July 6, 1892 James W. Smith of Freetown, P. E. I., and came to Ellerslie as a bride. They moved to Freetown forty-five years ago. She was a faithful member of the Freetown United Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary Society; her favorite pastime in her declining years was the making of quilts.

Possessed of a keen intellect and wonderful memory, she kept herself well-versed in the happenings of the day, and was always an inspiration and spiritual uplift to those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

She loved her Lord and served Him faithfully and well. She was to her family all that the word "mother" implies, having journeyed just two months ago to the United States, so as to be at the bedside of her critically ill daughter.

She leaves to mourn an only son, Clayton, with whom she resided since her husband's death in 1941, and the following daughters: Mrs. William Harrison Somerville, Miss Annie (Mrs. Dan Smallman) O'Leary, P. E. I.; Lois (Mrs. Herman Berthold) Newport, Rhode Island; Helen (Mrs. Donald Kaye) Everett, Mass. Three sisters and one brother also survive, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. One son, Kenneth, predeceased her seventeen years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, with friends coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a friend and loved one.

Rev. Alexander McKay of Kensington, P. E. I., a former pastor and close friend of the family, broached a comforting message assisted by Dr. C. A. Britten of Bedouque, P. E. I. Hymns were favorites of the deceased: "Unto the Hills", "Abide With Me", and a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Lyman Smith.

The pall bearers were six of her grandsons, namely: Morris, Elmer and Lyman Smith, Brenon and Foster Smallman, and George Berthold.

The many floral tributes were borne by Gordon Smith, Denton Hogg, James Inglis, John Stewart, Walter MacPherson, and William Francis. Interment was in the People's Cemetery in Freetown.

We that are left to mourn are comforted to know that our loved one is at rest and when life's short years are past, we shall meet her in Heaven, never to weep nor part any more.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES SMITH

The sudden death of Mrs. James Smith of Freetown on July 6th, 1955 was learned by her many friends and relatives with deep regret.

Born in Elgin, N. B., on March 19, 1871, to Stephen and Emma Copp Garland, she married on July 6, 1892 James W. Smith of Freetown, P. E. I., and came to Ellerslie as a bride. They moved to Freetown forty-five years ago. She was a faithful member of the Freetown United Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary Society; her favorite pastime in her declining years was the making of quilts.

Possessed of a keen intellect and wonderful memory, she kept herself well-versed in the happenings of the day, and was always an inspiration and spiritual uplift to those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

She loved her Lord and served Him faithfully and well. She was to her family all that the word "mother" implies, having journeyed just two months ago to the United States, so as to be at the bedside of her critically ill daughter.

She leaves to mourn an only son, Clayton, with whom she resided since her husband's death in 1941, and the following daughters: Mrs. William Harrison Somerville, Miss Annie (Mrs. Dan Smallman) O'Leary, P. E. I.; Lois (Mrs. Herman Berthold) Newport, Rhode Island; Helen (Mrs. Donald Kaye) Everett, Mass. Three sisters and one brother also survive, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. One son, Kenneth, predeceased her seventeen years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, with friends coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a friend and loved one.

Rev. Alexander McKay of Kensington, P. E. I., a former pastor and close friend of the family, broached a comforting message assisted by Dr. C. A. Britten of Bedouque, P. E. I. Hymns were favorites of the deceased: "Unto the Hills", "Abide With Me", and a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Lyman Smith.

The pall bearers were six of her grandsons, namely: Morris, Elmer and Lyman Smith, Brenon and Foster Smallman, and George Berthold.

The many floral tributes were borne by Gordon Smith, Denton Hogg, James Inglis, John Stewart, Walter MacPherson, and William Francis. Interment was in the People's Cemetery in Freetown.

We that are left to mourn are comforted to know that our loved one is at rest and when life's short years are past, we shall meet her in Heaven, never to weep nor part any more.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES SMITH

The sudden death of Mrs. James Smith of Freetown on July 6th, 1955 was learned by her many friends and relatives with deep regret.

Born in Elgin, N. B., on March 19, 1871, to Stephen and Emma Copp Garland, she married on July 6, 1892 James W. Smith of Freetown, P. E. I., and came to Ellerslie as a bride. They moved to Freetown forty-five years ago. She was a faithful member of the Freetown United Church and a life member of the Women's Missionary Society; her favorite pastime in her declining years was the making of quilts.

Possessed of a keen intellect and wonderful memory, she kept herself well-versed in the happenings of the day, and was always an inspiration and spiritual uplift to those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

She loved her Lord and served Him faithfully and well. She was to her family all that the word "mother" implies, having journeyed just two months ago to the United States, so as to be at the bedside of her critically ill daughter.

She leaves to mourn an only son, Clayton, with whom she resided since her husband's death in 1941, and the following daughters: Mrs. William Harrison Somerville, Miss Annie (Mrs. Dan Smallman) O'Leary, P. E. I.; Lois (Mrs. Herman Berthold) Newport, Rhode Island; Helen (Mrs. Donald Kaye) Everett, Mass. Three sisters and one brother also survive, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. One son, Kenneth, predeceased her seventeen years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, with friends coming from far and near to pay their last respects to a friend and loved one.

Rev. Alexander McKay of Kensington, P. E. I., a former pastor and close friend of the family, broached a comforting message assisted by Dr. C. A. Britten of Bedouque, P. E. I. Hymns were favorites of the deceased: "Unto the Hills", "Abide With Me", and a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Lyman Smith.

The pall bearers were six of her grandsons, namely: Morris, Elmer and Lyman Smith, Brenon and Foster Smallman, and George Berthold.

The many floral tributes were borne by Gordon Smith, Denton Hogg, James Inglis, John Stewart, Walter MacPherson, and William Francis. Interment was in the People's Cemetery in Freetown.

We that are left to mourn are comforted to know that our loved one is at rest and when life's short years are past, we shall meet her in Heaven, never to weep nor part any more.

BICENTENNIAL PLAY AT SOUTH RUSTICO

Above is shown a scene of a play enacted in South Rustico Parish Hall at the end of the school year by the pupils of St. Augustine's Convent. The play was very much in the spirit of the bicentennial celebrations which will take place on July 20 in Rustico. Mother Burgoys, played by Miss Patricia Arsenault, appears suddenly and tells how her daughters, the Sisters of the Congregation de Notre-Dame were the first religious educators in the land of Evangeline—the first group of Sisters arriving in 1684. She recalls how difficult life was then in New France. Evangeline, played by Miss Cecile Buote, pays homage to Mother Burgoys and thanks her for her educational work in Acadia. (Meyers Studios.)

Marilyn Bell To Resume Training

TORONTO (CP)—The Telegram says Marilyn Bell, laid up at her hotel in folkstone, England, with a throat infection, will be able to resume training early this week for her attempt on the English channel.

The paper, which is sponsoring the swim, quotes Marilyn's physician, Dr. Bruce Findlay, as saying: "Miss Bell's infection has responded well to treatment and she is making a normal recovery. She is likely to recommence swimming in about four days time."

In a signed article in The Telegram, Gus Ryder, Marilyn's coach, says the schoolgirl swimmer will be back in the "fine form" she displayed before taking ill. He said channel weather will be the deciding factor in choosing a date for the attempt.

Marilyn's father, Sid Bell, said Saturday he is being charged here by abusive telephone callers with thoughtlessness because of a newspaper report that his daughter "was not being well looked after."

He said the telephone barrage started Friday when the report appeared in a local newspaper. The story suggested the 17-year-old Lake Ontario conqueror is not receiving proper treatment for her throat complaint, he said.

"Some of the callers must be cranks," Mr. Bell said.

Secretary Registrar Of Nurses' Assoc. Honored At Meeting

Miss Muriel Archibald, secretary registrar of the Provincial Nurses' Association, was presented with gifts of appreciation from the Provincial Association of Nurses and the Charlottetown District at a recent meeting held at Cavendish. Miss Archibald has accepted the position of secretary registrar with the New Brunswick Nurses Association.

This was a combined meeting of the Summerside and Charlottetown districts of the Association of Nurses. Mrs. Mary Bradshaw and Miss Ruth Ross were co-chairmen.

Miss Flora Maroney, director, nursing education Prince County Hospital, having attended an instructors' course in disaster nursing at Arnprior, Ont., spoke briefly of nurses' responsibility in disaster nursing.

Mrs. Mary Bradshaw, operating room supervisor of Prince County Hospital, reported on suggestions relative to central supply service in hospital administration after attending a meeting with the American Hospital Association in Montreal.

A picnic supper was enjoyed by all the nurses.

3-Year Old Escapes Drowning

LABELLE, Que. (CP)—A three-year-old boy miraculously escaped drowning during the weekend when the car in which he was locked suddenly rolled down an embankment and was swallowed by the Caza river, 95 miles northwest of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Garfinkle of Montreal had given their son, Steven, up for lost when the unconscious boy suddenly rose to the surface.

Police said water had apparently rushed through an open ventilator window and then smashed the window at the rear. At the same time, the unconscious boy was swept out of the car and to the surface.

Steven was revived and a doctor reported him none the worse for his experience.

Stabbed With Butcher Knife

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—A 49-year-old London woman Sunday was charged with murder three hours after a man was found fatally stabbed with a butcher knife.

Police said Constance Flynn was taken to hospital in hysterical condition after she ran into the street and asked a neighbor to phone police.

Victor Spence, 32, was found unconscious in a pool of blood in the kitchen of the woman's apartment. A blood stained butcher knife and a rolling pin were found nearby.

Fined For Kiss

TORONTO (CP)—Zdzislaw Wojciechowski, 34, Monday was fined $100 or 30 days for trying to steal a kiss from a neighbor.

Crown counsel John Houlihan insisted on the prosecution being continued despite a request by complainant Mrs. Theresa Frohn that the charge of indecent assault be withdrawn because it was "what any drunk man might do."

Wojciechowski said drinking and an argument with his wife brought on an amorous mood.

Clubbed By Stranger

GLACE BAY, N.S. (CP)—James Flavin learned during the weekend that it sometimes pays to find out who strangers are before asking them into his home.

Flavin told police three men came looking for his son who wasn't home.

When he turned his back, said Flavin, he was clubbed with a length of slab wood.

It took nine stitches to sew up a gash on his head.

BE PROUD OF YOUR ISLAND! BOOST YOUR CAPITAL CITY!

Mail Your Friends A Copy Of Charlottetown's Official CENTENNIAL SOUVENIR BOOKLET

KEEP ONE FOR YOURSELF

Price 35c

OUR SALES GIRLS WILL BE SOLICITING ORDERS. On Sale Also at Stores, Hotels and Restaurants throughout the Province.

PLYMOUTH

Now-see how style goes to new lengths in the long, low

6 or V-8

A wide range of power—from 115 to 167 h.p.—highest standard horsepower in the low-price field!

It takes long, sweeping lines to give a car really exciting style. You see the proof of it in Plymouth—and in the pride of style-conscious Plymouth owners everywhere.

Long Plymouth fenders are rakishly angled. The long Plymouth hood slopes forward so it seems to reach out for the road ahead.

Extra length means extra comfort and convenience, too. Plymouth gives you the biggest, roomiest passenger compartment, the largest luggage capacity in the low-price field.

Inch for inch and for years to come, Plymouth is the biggest value on the market! Your dealer will gladly give you all the facts and a demonstration ride. Phone him today.

Manufactured in Canada by Chrysler Corporation of Canada, Limited

MOTION-DESIGNED FOR THE FORWARD LOOK—SEE IT AT YOUR CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH-FARGO DEALER'S NOW!

F. R. McLaine Ltd.
Malpeque Road, Charlottetown

MULLEN MOTORS
Mount Stewart
Hunter River—Hunter River Garage

Auto Fire? throw on SODA

Quickly smothers flames. Stops fire spreading. Better than sand or water. Can't harm motor. Always keep a package of baking soda in your compartment for emergency use.

COW BRAND BAKING SODA
PURE BICARBONATE OF SODA

EDUCATIONAL — ENTERTAINING — COLORFUL

USE COUPON BELOW TO RECEIVE YOUR COPY OR/AND TO HAVE YOUR FRIENDS RECEIVE ONE IN A PRINTED ENVELOPE WITH YOUR NAME ON AN ENCLOSURE CARD.

To Charlottetown Centennial Committee,
P. O. Box 307, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Please send me copies of the Official Centennial Booklets.
Please mail for me copies of the Centennial Booklets. I enclose a list of my friends with addresses who will receive one.
Priced 35c each — I enclose

Mr. _____
Mrs. _____
Miss _____

Relax with TEA