IN MEMORIAM

JOHN FRASER RIX

Truly in the midst of life we are in death, was never better exemplified than on Wednesday evening, December 31st, 1958, when John Fraser Rix, a young active and to all intents and purposes in good health was suddenly called to higher service at the early age of 46 years.

Mr. Rix and his three young sons were preparing for home after their day of work in the woods, when he suddenly succumbed to a heart attack. He was immediately rushed to the Alberton Hospital but was pronounced dead on arrival.

For many years he was one of the most valued employees of Morrison and MacRae Ltd., and in this connection had made many friends. Many fine roads throughout the Island stand as a living example of his work with this company of which he was foremost.

A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Rix, he was born in Elmsdale on April 1912, and resided here all his life, where he will be greatly missed both in the Community and in the home where he leaves a sorrowing widow the former Goldie Wall of Malpeque and five children Sybil, John, Ernest, Wayne and Verna who will always cherish the memory of a kind and loving father.

Also surviving are three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. James Currie, Elmsdale; Mrs. James Barbour, Alma, P.E.I.; Mrs. Ken Calbeck, St. John, N.B. Leslie in Toronto and Waldron in Elmsdale; also a half brother Edgar Johnstone of Alberton and a half-sister, Mrs. Clifford Currie in Toronto.

His largely attended funeral was held from Elmsdale United Church on Sunday, January 4th, 1959. A short service at the home was conducted by Rev. Robert A. Crooks. At the church, Rev. Crooks also conducted service.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. BERTRAM YOUNKER

The death occurred at Charlottetown on Sunday morning, January 18th., of Mrs. Bertram Younker in her 89th. year after a lengthy illness.

She was born at Hampshire and was a daughter of the late Owen Proud and Mattha Moore. Her married life was spent at Kingston where she will always be remembered as a kind mother, a capable home maker and a staunch friend.

Surviving are three sons Owen and Wilbur of Kingston, Elmer of Hampshire, a daughter Flossie, Mrs. Charles Hyde of Meadown Bank, five nieces and four nephews; also two sisters, Mrs. William Green and Hannah of Hampshire and a brother, Windover of Kingston.

Her husband predeceased her in 1947 and a daughter Esther in 1933.

The funeral was held from the residence of her son Wilbur on Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. R.A. Patterson conducting the service. Interment was in the United Church cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Oswald Newson, Bertram Willis, Tyrus Holmes, Everett Holmes, Lyman Newson and Harrison Green.

One brother Aeneas predeceased him four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Demers and Mrs. Lavell motored here for the funeral.

Although the weather was extremely cold the funeral was the largest held in the vicinity for some time and was held on Wednesday morning Dec. 10th to St. Pauls Church, Sturgeon where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Finlay Mullyally who also conducted the services at the grave. Interment was in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were Willie Murphy, Aeneas McGuigan, Herb McGuigan, George McKean, Thomas Hughes and Austin McGuigan. Many beautiful floral tributes were received by the family also Mass cards, enrolls, cards and letters of sympathy.

IN MEMORIAM

The people of St. Mary's Road and surrounding districts were shocked and saddened on Dec. 7, 1958, when they learned that Jerome Hughes passed away suddenly at the Roman Catholic Church were administered by his pastor, Rev. Finlay Mullyally of Sturgeon.
