Post - Nuptial Reception

*Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vincent Free, Boston, were guests of honor at a surprise reception on Wednesday evening, August 15th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. MacDonald, Valleyfield East. Mr. Free is the son of Mrs. Mary E. Free, Boston.

After the wedding in Boston on August 13th, the bride and groom left on a tour of the Maritimes and arrived in Valleyfield the evening of the 15th to find about 100 guests awaiting their arrival. The dining room had been tastefully decorated by the bride's sister, Miss Isabel MacDonald, and a wide variety of gifts for the young couple were waiting to be opened. The table was centered by a three-tiered cake and decorated with crimson roses in silver baskets and lit by triple silver candelabra. Toast to the bride was given by the Rev. A. C. Fraser and capably responded to by the groom. Pouring for the occasion were Mrs. J. A. MacPherson and Mrs. W. A. MacLeod. Serving, were Miss Lilian MacLeod, Mrs. Harry Van-Buskirk, Miss Mary Martin, Miss Katherine Currie, Mrs. Mack Easton and Mrs. Martin MacDonald.

Out of town guests who attended included: Mrs. L. A. MacDonald and Mary MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Currie, Mr. and Mrs. H. Barry Bugden, Mrs. Jane Long, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin, Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald and Miss Luella MacDonald, all of Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Martin, Picton, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Martin, Souris; and Miss Mary Martin and Miss Goldie Martin, Innis, Montreal.

Miss Ida Moore, New York, is spending her vacation at Whim Road, the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore. Miss Moore is quite well known to Islanders and others, being the author of the book entitled "The Lucky Orphan", a juvenile's story of a lamb, taken from memories of the author's own childhood days. It is written in a fascinating manner which holds the interest of children and grownups alike. Miss Moore has also had several other children's stories published.

Tendered Shower

On Saturday evening, August 11th, upwards of 150 guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Rose to tender their post-nuptial shower. The room was decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers, flowers and ferns.

They were escorted to the place of honor by Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Rose. Mr. Fred Rose capably filled the role as chairman, while Mrs. Stuart MacGregor read an address. Following this, Rowena Garrett and Edgar Dixon, dressed as bride and groom, entered the room carrying a basket laden with gifts. Rowena presented the bride with a lovely bouquet of flowers. The gifts were then opened by Mrs. Lorne McNeill, Mrs. Kermit Bruce and Miss Pearl Stewart, the accompanying best wishes being read by Mrs. Charles Chins.

The bride and groom thanked their friends for the many beautiful and useful gifts, also for their generous sum of money. All joined heartily in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". Refreshments were served by the ladies, after which the crowd dispersed after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rose many years of wedded bliss.

VANCOUVER (OP)—Mike McCormick, Vancouver Tourist Association secretary, claims American tourists are refusing to buy Canadian goods because of "exorbitant prices." He says American visitors spend only 25 per cent of the money they bring across the border.
