

Happenings Of The Week

Continued from page 2

Mr. and Mrs. Brendon O'Grady entertained recently in honour of Miss Emily Kelly and Mr. J. J. MacIsaac, whose marriage is taking place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Barbour arrived home Wednesday after a holiday in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Viel and their two children of Vernon, B. C., are paying a brief visit to Mrs. Viel's sister and her husband.

band. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burnett, Charlottetown.

Mr. Donald Wetmore of the Nova Scotia Department of Education and Mr. Barry Bugden, festival adjudicators, patrons, life members and executive of the Drama Festival Association, and executive members from the Little Theatre Guild and others associated with the Provincial Drama Festival were the guests last evening at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morris, North River Road, following the final production.

Miss Mary Carol, R. N., was hostess to the staff nurses of the City Hospital at her home on St. Peter's Road Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous shower in honour of Miss Phyllis Hughes, whose marriage to Mr. Frank MacDonald takes place Monday. Mrs. Eldon Green and Mrs. Brighton MacDougall entertained at a kitchen shower at Mrs. Green's apartment in honour of Miss Hughes Friday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Lantz, a spring graduate of Macdonald College, is leaving today for Montreal to begin a course in dietetics at the Royal Victoria Hospital, after a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Lantz. Miss Margaret Clark of Barbadoes, also a Macdonald graduate who was visiting Miss Lantz, left for Montreal on Monday.

Miss Phyllis Hughes entertained at Villa Waters on Wednesday in honour of Miss Shirley Pollard, whose marriage takes place the latter part of June. The guest of honour was presented with a gift by the hostess.

Mr. Alvin A. Nunn, formerly of Cymbria, P.E.I., has recently taken over the ownership of the Chester Pharmacy, Chester, N. S. Mr. Nunn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paige Nunn of Cymbria and graduated from the Maritime College of Pharmacy and Dalhousie University, with a bachelor of science degree in 1952. He was formerly associated with pharmacists E. J. Dunsworth of Halifax and W. T. Ferguson and Company of Pictou. He is married to the former Georgie Tuplin, R.N., and they have one daughter.

Miss Carol Marie Coles has had as her guest this week Miss Mary Isherwood, medical student at Dalhousie University, who motored from Halifax on Monday with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Isherwood, who returned early in the week. Among those entertaining Miss Isherwood were Miss Coles, who was hostess at a luncheon at the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday in her honour, and Miss Mary Beth Harris.

Miss Gladys Hart and Mrs. Lorne Jolly are leaving on Monday on a two weeks' motor trip to visit relatives in New England.

Miss MacFarlane was presented with lovely pieces of crystal to add to her collection. Her marriage to Mr. Harrison Ferguson of Hampton, P. E. I., will take place on June 2nd.

Mrs. Allan Wedlock entertained at a bridal shower at her home in Summerside last Friday evening, in honour of Miss Katherine MacFarlane whose wedding will take place next week. The beautiful gifts were unwrapped by Miss Sylvia Rayner, while Miss Pauline MacArthur read the accompanying verses. The room and the chair for the guest of honour, decorated with pink and white streamers and bells, made a pretty setting when the young bride-to-be cut the cake which was artistically decorated in pink and white. Pink and white candles were also used to carry out the colour scheme. Mrs. Kaye Hansen provided appropriate music throughout the evening and with Miss Buddie Cannon, assisted the hostess with serving.

Miss Julie Meikle and Miss Diane Dewar were joint hostesses recently, when they entertained in Miss MacFarlane's honour, with an afternoon tea and shower at Miss Meikle's home on Granville Street in Summerside. Miss Elayne Inman assisted with serving.
