Stevens - MacLeod Wedding

Baskets of multi-colored tulips and white blossoms decorated Trinity United Church for the marriage of Margaret E. Stevens, daughter of Mrs. John M. MacLeod and the late Mr. MacLeod to Mr. Paul E. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Stevens, Saint John, New Brunswick, which took place at ten o'clock, Rev. H. E. D. Ashford officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Donald E. MacLeod of Summerside, was gowned in white lace over tulle, which was fashioned on simple lines, the fitted bodice being buttoned in front with tiny covered buttons, with small Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. An overskirt of silk net completed the gown. Her finger tip veil of embroidered tulle was held in place by a headpiece of white lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of Rapture roses.

Mrs. Donald E. MacLeod, who was her sister's only attendant, was gowned in mushroom tulle, which was fashioned with Peter Pan collar and cape, the full skirt falling in deep folds. She wore matching mits and headpiece and carried a nosegay of Sweetheart and Talisman roses.

Mr. H. Nelson Day, Saint John, N.B., was best man, and the groom was ushered by Mr. Donald F. Taylor, Fredericton, N.B., and Mr. Frank J. Walker, Saint John, N.B.

Miss Louise Cox presided at the organ and during the signing of the register played "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride's mother was gowned in navy blue crepe with lace inserts, with which she wore a large cream colored straw hat, navy accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Paul E. Stevens chose for her gown a Queen's blue crepe with lace inserts with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the reception at Villa Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens left on a motor trip to the Southern States. For travelling the bride wore a honey beige suit with cream colored straw hat and brown accessories.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside in Fredericton, N. B., where Mr. Stevens is a member of the Faculty of Civil Engineering at the University of New Brunswick.

MacDonald-Ryan Nuptials

Friends and relatives on Prince Edward Island will be interested in the marriage of Sheila Agnes, daughter of Mrs. Ryan and the late Peter Ryan, of Halifax, and Dr. Ian Allan Cameron MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.J. MacDonald, Mermaid, which took place at St. Mary's Basilica, Halifax, on May 16th at nine o'clock. The ceremony was performed and nuptial Mass celebrated by Rev. Father Hayes.

Spring flowers and potted plants artistically arranged, made beautiful St. Mary's more lovely for the occasion. Nuptial music was played by the church organist.

The bride who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Sgt. Major W. Pushe, was radiant in white satin, made with full skirt and fitted bodice, long sleeves coming to a point on the wrists. Her full-length veil of tulle illusion was arranged in cap effect and was held in place with rosebuds. Her bouquet was of crimson roses.

Miss Marguerite Ryan and Miss Marian Ryan, twin sisters of the bride were charming bridesmaids in their floor-length gowns of brocade made in bouffant style, short sleeves and neckline in scalloped effect. Miss Marguerite's gown being of mauve brocade, while Miss Marian's was of pine frost green. Lace mits to match their gowns, nosegays of multi-colored flowers, and flower band-aids completed their lovely costumes.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Athol MacDonald, Mermaid. The ushers were Mr. Gerald MacDonald, brother of the groom, Mr. Don Fabie and Mr. Bob DeWolfe, brothers-in-law of the bride.

The bride's mother wore navy sheer with white accessories and corsage of pink garnations. The groom's mother wore grey with grey and white accessories and corsage of pink garnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home at 48 Morris Street, where a buffet luncheon was served to 75 guests. An eloquent toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Father Hayes and fittingly responded to by the groom.

Following the reception, the bride and groom left by motor for a two weeks trip through the New England States, returning by way of Montreal. For travelling the bride donned a white print frock, Peter Pan collar, navy and white straw hat.

They will be at home to their many friends after June 1st at Hantsport, N.S., where Dr. MacDonald has been practising his dental profession for the past year.

Out of town guests included the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.J. MacDonald, Mermaid; Miss Anne MacDonald and Mr. Eric MacDonald, Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. Athol MacDonald, Mr. Gerald MacDonald and Mr. Dunstan MacDonald, Mermaid; Mayor and Mrs. Weatherby of Hantsport, N.S.; Dr. Ed. Spraklin of Campbellton, N.B., and Dr. Walter Cook of Pictou, N.S.

MacIsaac - O'Malley Nuptials

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday, May 2nd in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Brae when Agnes Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.H. O'Malley, Alberton, became the bride of Alexander Allan, son of Mrs. Margaret MacIsaac and the late Augustine MacIsaac, Brae. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Aylward, P.P., Brae.

The bride was attended by her sister Kathrine, and was attired in white tulle, with blue accessories and carried a white prayer book, a gift of the groom.

The groom was supported by his cousin, Leonard MacDonald, Brae.

After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. MacIsaac will reside in Brae, where Mr. MacIsaac is a prosperous farmer.

Mrs. MacIsaac is a popular school teacher and is at present teaching in Bloomfield Station School District.

Their hosts of friends wish them every happiness for the future.

The Lake District of England—the home of Wordsworth—is a very beautiful section with numerous lakes set in the mountains. It is at Lake Grasmere where Wordsworth's house still stands as a museum.

In Scotland our first "must" was Gretna Green, which apparently was well known by everyone but ourselves. We found that this spot was the home of runaway marriages and from the marriage license book it was quite apparent that it was a very popular place until it was ruled illegal some ten years ago. The blacksmith shop where the anvil over which each marriage was performed and the last marriage license framed above it. (To be continued)

Hunt - Ryan Wedding

At St. Aidan's Church, Brookline, Mass., on Saturday, March 31, the marriage took place of Helen Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Ryan of Cardigan, P. E. Island, to Mr. John Joseph Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt of Brookline, Mass.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Castles, who also sang the Nuptial Mass, during which the choir sang Ave Maria, On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother, and other hymns.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Clarence Ryan. Her floor length gown entrained was of white satin, and she wore a finger tip veil of tulle illusion, with a small crown covered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli, gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Connie Ryan of Montreal, was maid of honor for her cousin, and Mrs. Clarence Ryan and Miss Monica Fleming, both of Brookline, Mass., were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of turquoise satin and net, and they wore matching picture hats and carried colonial bouquets of gardenias and pink gladioli.

Mr. James Hartnett was groomsmen and Mr. Kenneth Hunt and Mr. Paul Maloney ushered.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Hotel Beaconsfield, Brookline, Mass., attended by a number of relatives and friends. The wedding cake was a dark fruit cake, made and decorated by the bride's mother.

Later, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip to New York. They now reside in Brookline, Mass., where Mr. Hunt is employed.
