

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. F. Gallagher left this morning for St. John.
 "Tupper, Foster, Hugh John and victory" as the Halifax Herald puts it.
 Father Narois, of Quebec, who has been visiting Charlottetown, left for home this morning.
 Mr. W. Robertson was a passenger on the mail special this morning en route to St. John.

Miss Harrington, of Amherst, left this morning on return home, after a visit to friends on the Island.

The Rev. Cecil W. ... preached a very forcible and eloquent sermon in St. Peter's Church last evening.

Hon. Benj. Rogers and Mr. R. ... leave next month on an extended trip to Europe. They go by way of Boston.

Mr. George Jamieson, brother of Mr. J. G. Jamieson, of this city, and Mr. J. Connolly, returned to Halifax today.

Masters Geoffrey Fitzgerald and R. Stewart left this morning for Windsor, where they will resume their studies in the Collegiate school.

Mr. A. W. Owen, chief accountant of the Marine Department, Ottawa, arrived in Charlottetown on Saturday night and registered at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. Ira J. Yeo has resigned his position on the teaching staff of the west Kent St. School. It is understood that he will enter McGill.

Mr. William Moran, of R. K. Jost's establishment, who has been on a holiday trip to the western section of the Province returned to Charlottetown this forenoon.

Miss Louise Mellish left this morning for Mount Allison Ladies College, Sackville, N. B. Miss Winnie Brecken will leave tomorrow morning for the same institution.

Mr. C. D. Thompson, cashier of the I. C. R., arrived in Charlottetown from Moncton on Saturday night and went to Souris this morning. On Wednesday morning he returns to Moncton accompanied by Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. George A. Sharp crossed to Moncton today to meet the Minister of Railways and Mr. Pottinger, who are coming over to Summerside this evening. To-morrow Mr. Pottinger and Mr. Sharp will inspect the new bridge at Harper's.

Councillor Brown returned from St. John on Saturday night. He was in St. John during the trial of a suit he brought against Mr. M. A. Finn in connection with an exchange of horses, and was given judgment for the full amount claimed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan left this week on a driving tour. They are now on P. E. Island where they intend spending a week or two driving. Their trip should be an enjoyable one as the Island is looking very fine just now.—Sackville Post.

Mr. Geo. Godfrey, the colored pugilist, arrived in Charlottetown from Boston on Saturday night, and went to Sydney this morning. Mr. Godfrey returns to Charlottetown about the end of the week, and will probably give an exhibition here before returning to Boston.

Mr. Charles Earle, of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax of this city, left on a vacation trip to the country this morning, where with rod and gun he will spend a week or two. His prowess as a sportsman warrants the prediction of his friends that his luck will completely eclipse the record now held by "Robert the Hunter."

Mr. Philip Lawrence, business manager of the Boston Stock Co., will arrive in Charlottetown on Thursday next with the addition to the company, and the new scenic effects to be used at the forthcoming production of the "Soldiers of the Queen." The company will number about 14 persons. New costumes and accessories have been added with the view of making the company the best equipped on the road. The company is booked in St. John, Halifax, Montreal and Toronto for the coming season.

Mr. John M. Byrnes, of the "Soldiers of the Queen" Co. is visiting relatives in Mill View, P. E. I. and shooting (?) duck, snipes and yellow legs. We hope he will return safe, and will have no "I didn't know it was loaded" experiences.

The Lawrence Sisters and Miss Barney of the "Soldiers of the Queen" Co., are busy studying new parts and getting wardrobes ready for the coming season. They have made many friends while here.

Mr. Harry Bewley, comedian of the "Soldiers of the Queen" Co. is hard at work studying the new part of Sam Slick. Canadian correspondent in the play. Mr. Bewley considers it as good if not better than the part of Sammy Blyth in "When London Sleeps," which he created at the 14th Street Theatre, New York, under Mr. James H. Wallis, management, and his new catch line, "I'm so glad I'm here" will be as popular as his "Sorry I didn't suit."

Mr. C. D. Thompson, cashier of the I. C. R., arrived in Charlottetown from Moncton on Saturday night and went to Souris this morning. On Wednesday morning he returns to Moncton accompanied by Mrs. Thompson.
