The Latest Russian Loan.

A recent Paris despatch to the New York Herald says since the national subscription to cover the German indemnity of 1871, there never has been such spontaneous enthusiasm on the Paris bourse as there was on Monday, when 100,000,000 francs of the new Russian 4 per cent. loan was offered and 350,000,000 subscribed. Financially the loan is an undoubted success, but it is difficult to over-estimate its political importance. Russia would develop her military power and France responds. France gave money in 1871 from patriotism, she gives money again in 1888 for what? Is it revenge? Floquet announced the result of the subscription to the council of ministers yesterday with great satisfaction, and alluded to it in conversation as "the financial enfranchisement of Russia from Berlin banking monopoly." Last June representatives of the Comptoir D'Escompte, Lyonnais and other financial institutions of France, with several private bankers, suggested to the Russian minister in France the advisability of converting the Russian debt and floating a new Russian loan in Paris. The minister reported to the Czar, who viewed it with favor. At this time the rouble was much depreciated and not considered favorable. With the rise of the rouble the scheme became practicable, and it was put into execution. The advantages to Russia are many. It frees her from the financial tutelage of Berlin, where hitherto all Russian loans have been floated, and these are owned largely in Germany. This enabled Prince Bismarck to put a direct pressure on the affairs of the Russian empire, by lowering at his will the price of the rouble. Lately, German bankers have unloaded their Russian bonds on the market in a vain attempt to again depreciate the rouble. These bonds have at once been bought up in France, so that the great bulk of the loan is now owned in France.

News in Brief.

The authorities at Dublin have seized thousands of Zola's works shipped there from England.
During a recent target practice on board a French ironclad in the Gulf of Juan, a gun exploded and killed an officer and five men.
The French have broken up a band of Chinese pirates at Bacninh, Tonkin. Eleven of the captured pirates were shot and a portion of the town destroyed by fire.
Col. Fitzgibbon Frant, deputy lieutenant of County Tipperary at Thurles, has given notice of the proposed eviction of nineteen families and has warned the workhouse authorities to make provision for them.
A conversation will be given at the town hall, Birmingham, on January 8, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain. A diamond and sapphire bracelet will be presented to Mrs. Chamberlain, and an illuminated address to Mr. Chamberlain.

Warming Water for Farm Animals.

The question, Does it pay? has been propounded to several dairymen who have warmed the drink for their cows in cold weather, and the answer has answered, Yes. How could the answer be otherwise? If the water is not warmed for the animal, it must warm it itself. In the stomach the water is brought to a temperature of nearly one hundred degrees. When the animal warms the water, it uses its food for fuel. If corn, hay, etc., were burned by the stockman to warm the water, then there might be no gain; but he uses much cheaper fuel. It is hardly more trouble to put fuel under a tank than to give the animal the extra food required for the heating of the food in the stomach. Tank heaters are now manufactured, and by using them the water can be heated easily and economically. Heating the water pays for the further reason that cold water taken into the stomach arrests digestion and thus causes a loss of food, whereas warm water stimulates the digestive organs to vigorous action. The animal that drinks water at the freezing point is chilled and enervated.—American Agriculturist for December.

DROWNED.—A Digby, N. S., despatch says that Robert Adams and George Small, of Broad Cove, were drowned on Tuesday while out fishing. It is supposed that their boat capsized. Adams was a single man. Small leaves a wife and family.

PUMPED OUT.—The east slope of the mine, at Springhill, N. S., which has been flooded for over a month, is now pumped out, and work will be resumed there on a big scale next week. Sudden and unusually heavy rains in November caused the trouble.

LET HER GO, GALLAGHER.—Michael Gallagher, of Smithtown, King's County, N. B., got well soaked with liquor recently, and discharged a revolver at a man named Robert Fowler. The bullet struck just below the eye and glanced off. The eye has been injured. Gallagher has given himself up.

GOT TWO YEARS.—The trial of Isaac Jackson, indicted for the murder of John O'Brien, which has been in progress at Newcast, N. B., for several days past, has ended. The jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter, with a recommendation to mercy. A sentence of two years' imprisonment was imposed.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE.—A St. John despatch says that the inquest at Tobique river, on the body of the boy found dead in a house, last week, showed that the name was William Bell, and that he came from Fredericton. He had been hired to go lumbering, but finding that he was no good he had been discharged, and left to go back as best he could to the settlement, without a cent. He wandered around the lumber camps looking for work, but found none. From tracks discovered around the camp where the body was found, he had evidently wandered around its vicinity for at least two days.

Local and Other Items.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The manager of the St. John Telegraph has THE EXAMINER'S thanks for a very nicely printed calendar for 1889.

A fact that all men with gray and many shaded whiskers should know: that Ruckingham's Dye always colors an even brown or black at will.

FOR PICTOU.—The steamer St. Lawrence, with a full freight, left here for Pictou about half past ten this morning. Captain Cameron expects to be able to return during the night.

ST. JOSEPH'S BAZAAR.—There was a large attendance at St. Joseph's Bazaar last evening, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. As on the previous night the different tables were well patronized, and everyone was happy.

COMMITTED.—A Fredericton despatch says that the two colored women charged with assaulting Charles Wheary with intent to do grievous bodily harm, have been committed for trial at the sitting of the County Court in January next.

Nearly all colds are slight, at first, but their tendency is to so lower the system that the sufferer becomes a ready victim to any prevalent disease. The use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the beginning of a cold, would guard against the danger.

SOURCE OF EVIL LEGISLATION.—Thomas Jefferson said: "To the use of ardent spirits is to be attributed much evil legislation. If I were again placed in a position to do so, my first question to a candidate would be, 'Do you drink ardent spirits?'"

No remedy for blood disorders can equal Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Though concentrated and powerful, this medicine is perfectly safe and may be taken by children as well as adults. Physicians recommend it in preference to any other. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—A resident of North Shore, parish of Bonaventure, N. B., has neglected his family, and become so infatuated with an 18-year-old damsel that he gave her his money for safe keeping. She has repaid his confidence by running off with his watch and about $400 of his money.

A CENTENARIAN.—Moses Stewart, colored, died at St. Andrew's, N. B., on Friday last, aged 100 years. For a considerable time past he has been totally blind, but had a wonderful memory to the last and could accurately relate incidents within his own recollection which occurred prior to the birth of the now oldest inhabitant.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—The Portland, Me., Press, says: "Daniel Sutherland, a native of Turo, N. S., while at the Union Station a few days ago, and walking on the platform, displayed a pocketbook containing $75. A fellow got acquainted with him, and when a train was starting, snatched the pocketbook and left Sutherland minus the money."

CHRISTMAS DINNER.—A number of the more charitable ladies and gentlemen of Toronto are going to give 500 poor children, from the poorest districts of that city, a Christmas dinner. The dinner will be given on Christmas eve, will be enlivened by music, etc., and will be accompanied by presentations of boots, caps, stockings, mittens, and other articles.

A WARNING.—One morning last week Jos. Cormier, a boy of about twelve years of age, went on the ice of the railway wharf at Newcastle, N. B., to skate. The ice was weak and he broke through. Efforts to rescue him were made by pushing poles across the ice, but he became exhausted and sank before aid could be got to him. His body was recovered shortly after.

AN INTERESTING CASE.—The Halifax Mail, of Saturday, to hand last evening, says: "An interesting case will come up in the Probate Court next week respecting certain property that Mrs. H. Paw is said to have had at the time of her death. Patrick Connolly, Mrs. Paw's father, arrived from P. E. Island yesterday and has engaged counsel to look after his interest in the case."

WON'T BELIEVE IT.—A New York paper says that representative Catholics of that city discredit the cable despatch stating that the Pope in refusing to bless certain medals intended for distribution in Ireland, said "that the people of Ireland seemed to prefer the gospel of Dillon and O'Brien to the gospel of Jesus Christ." Archbishop Corrigan is said to have expressed his conviction that it was untrue.

THE STANLEY.—The winter steamer Stanley left here for Pictou at 7 o'clock this morning with a full cargo. She will leave Pictou at about 12 o'clock to-morrow morning, arriving here at about 2.30 in the afternoon. If possible she will make daily trips between here and Pictou, so as to accommodate both mails and freight. We understand that she will make Pictou her headquarters.

ELOPEMENT.—Fredericton, N. B., is to the front in the shape of an elopement which occurred last week. The persons concerned are Robert Davison, a married man who kept a large grocery store at Gibson, and Mrs. Arbo, whose husband has left her. Mrs. Arbo is a young woman of about 25 years of age, and has a family of three small children. She became intimate with Mr. Davison while doing housework at his residence.

SEEKING ADMISSION.—Communications have been received at Bismarck, Dak., from Wyoming, Montana and Washington Territories calling upon the leaders in Dakota to take steps toward the holding of an inter-territorial convention which will act in the interest of admission for all territories that are properly equipped for statehood. It is quite likely that such a convention will be held. Dakota is one grand mass meeting at present, and will so remain until she becomes a state. The legislature will convene January 8, and it is expected that one of the first acts will be to call a constitutional convention and take other preliminary steps toward statehood.
