New York Stocks

NEW YORK, (AP)—The stock market staged its best advance of the year Monday against a back-ground of continued good earnings reports. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced $1.20, best since Nov. 18, and stood at $110.20 at the close. That is $3 higher than the low of the year reached a week ago Thursday. Since that low point the market had advanced six out of seven sessions. Included in the background was the hitch in Korean truce negotia-tions and intensification of the war in Indo-China.

The industrial component of the AP average gained $1.80, the rail-roads gained $1.30, and the utilities gained 20 cents. Volume totalled 1,520,000 shares. Higher were Northern Pacific, Southern Railway, Standard Oil, American Telephone, Du Pont, International Paper, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Goodrich, and National Distillers.
