

THE CAMPAIGN.

King's County—The Candidates:

{ AUSTIN C. McDONALD, Esq. }
{ DR. MUTTART. }

Our friends in King's have acted in an eminently judicious manner. They have met together. They have taken counsel of one another in a meeting at which all sections of the County were represented. They have acted deliberately and promptly. They have come out boldly, firmly, and intently. They have nominated their candidates and taken preliminary measures to secure the election. Their men are now in the field and the ball is rolling. If they go on as they have begun; if they work together harmoniously and carry out, in a business-like way, the programme they prepared on Saturday—and we know they will do so—they may count for certain upon victory.

Certainly they have cause for extreme watchfulness. The unscrupulous character of their distracted opponents has been fully revealed to them. Means fair and means most foul they are now sure will be taken to thwart their efforts. These they will have to sedulously guard against. They must be ever united, watchful, constant and active in the support of the candidates of their choice.

The men they are called upon to rally round are most worthy of such a support. By education, position, talents and knowledge of the people, the wants and the interests of the County, "McDonald and Muttart" are both fitted for the high and honorable office of representing them in the Parliament of Canada.

Mr. McDonald is one of a family highly esteemed as ever true and just in all their dealings—a good, old Highland family, faithful to Religion, King and Country. He is a man upon whom the electors of King's are confident they may rely. They have tried him, and they know him; and they know that the sacred trust they intend to hand over to him on election day will, at the end of five years, be rendered up unimpaired. They are certain, at least, that Mr. McDonald will not act the bully on the stump and the trundler in the House of Commons.

Dr. Muttart, Mr. McDonald's chosen colleague, is also well known. He stands high in his profession. He has taken an active part in the good movements, whether political or moral, which have been made in the direction of progress and reform within King's County. He is a man of independent mind; and the last thing he would think of doing would be to carry his ends by the force of whiskey and tap-room loafers. He is less popular politically than Mr. McDonald, only because he has been a short time before the public.

When it is remembered that, with both Dr. McIntyre and Mr. Davies against him, Mr. McDonald was, in the last contest, only rejected by thirty-three votes, the election of Mr. McDonald and Dr. Muttart, in the coming contest, hardly admits of a doubt. Dr. McIntyre has not yet obtained a colleague, though, it is said, he has even asked Mr. Roderick Munroe to come out with him!!

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, this forenoon, Patrick Hughes was fined $4, or 20 days, for being drunk and "smuggling" liquor to a prisoner at the police station; Colin R. Livingston, drunk and incapable, was fined $1 and costs, or 4 days, for being drunk and incapable; J. Treanor, for the same offense, was fined $3 and costs, or 14 days; John Goodman, drunk and incapable, admitted the charge and was fined $3 and costs, or 14 days; Mary Malone, James Croak, Frank Trainor, Widow Cavanagh, John Gornley, John Percival and Robert Turnbull were each fined 5 cents and costs for allowing a nuisance to exist on their premises; Widow Thompson, John Cameron, Edmund Williams and John Haliday were each fined $2 and costs for the same offense, said fine to be collected if a certificate is not given on Wednesday next that the nuisance is abated.

The Supreme Court closed its session at Summerside on Saturday. The Progress says the docket was the heaviest that ever engaged the attention of the Court. A large number of cases stand over until October next. The prisoners received sentence on Friday evening. John Reeves, for assaulting and resisting the Sheriff's officers, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. David Reeves, for a similar offence, received fourteen days, and James Palmer, for stealing a quantity of oats, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labor. All the appeal cases stand over till next term.

CAPTURED.—The person who stole the clothes from the premises of John R. Hooper Esq., Rustico Road, was arrested on Saturday evening last, by Angus McKinnon, Royalty, and was taken before Theoph. DesBrisay, J. P., who had him committed to jail to await his trial in the Supreme Court. He hails from Newfoundland, admits the theft, and gives his name as Brine.

King's County—Liberal Conservative Meeting.

A PLOT TO DISTURB THE PROCEEDINGS CONDUCTED IN A TAVERN—BAD WHISKY, BAD MANNERS, DISREPUTABLE CONDUCT AND DOMINATION OFFICIALS—THE PLOT FRUSTRATED—A LARGE AND UNANIMOUS AUDIENCE—AUSTIN C. McDONALD AND DR. MUTTART ENTHUSIASTICALLY NOMINATED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL THE DISTRICTS OF THE COUNTY—PREPARATIONS MADE FOR THE CAMPAIGN—UNANIMITY AND "ACTIVITY" THE WATCHWORDS OF THE PARTY IN KING'S.

The meeting at Souris on Saturday was called upon the following notice:

A PUBLIC MEETING of the Liberal Conservatives of King's county will be held at the Agricultural Hall, in Souris, on Saturday, the 22d day of June, instant, at the hour of 12 o'clock, noon, to nominate a candidate to run in conjunction with Austin C. McDonald, Esq., for the representation of King's County at the approaching Dominion election.

It was rumored on Saturday morning that a "whole and corner" meeting of Government officials had been held the previous evening at a tavern kept by a somewhat notorious petty official in the pay of the Dominion Government and under the control of Dr. McIntyre; and that, as a result, an attempt to pack the Liberal Conservative meeting with Grits, and prevent the proposed nominations, might be expected. Little or no attention was paid to the rumor, because it was thought that Dr. McIntyre was too much of a politician—if not too much of a gentleman—to countenance a proceeding which savored so much of the bully and the pot house, and which would certainly recoil with damaging effect upon its promoters. Therefore, no attempt was made to counteract it. And when, shortly after the hour fixed for the meeting, a few Liberal-Conservatives entered the hall they had hired, and found it occupied by about sixty of the political friends of Dr. McIntyre, some four or five Civil (?) servants to officer them, and Dr. McIntyre, himself, in supreme command at the head of the gang, their surprise may be more easily imagined than described. Still the meeting was a public one for Liberal Conservatives. No one was to be excluded. And who knew but the report that Dr. McIntyre—seeing all hope of getting a colleague gone, and every prospect of winning in a contest dissipated—was present there with his men to propose a compromise, under which he should be permitted to retain his seat, if he changed his coat just a little? Who knew?

Before half of the Liberal-Conservatives on the ground had entered the Hall, Jas. McDonald, Esq., rose and moved that Mr. James McQuaid be Chairman of the meeting. "The words had scarcely escaped his lips—the motion could not be seconded—before a hard-looking ticket named "Michael" or "Mick" jumped up, and moved that "Donald H." be Chairman. Without waiting for a seconder, he put the question; and, while he was taking the "ayes" and "nays," the sub-Collector of Customs for Souris cried out "I second the motion." "Donald H." was immediately declared Chairman, and asked to come forward. James McDonald, Esq., in moderate but firm language, protested against this action as insulting to the people of Souris, and to Mr. McQuaid in particular. Besides, it was outrageously dishonest and unfair, because the Hall had been hired to Liberal Conservatives. It was, for the time being, their Hall; and the opposite party had no more right to take charge of it than a body of tramps would have to go in and take charge of a man's house. Dr. McIntyre then began to speak; and his retainers began to shout; and on this all present became excited; and many swore; and some tried to reason the question; and "Donald H." seized a stick which looked like the leg of a defunct table; and while the sub-Collector raved and Dr. McIntyre stormed and faced his adversaries like an angry prize fighter; and while "Michael" shook his fists and "Stephen" swore, and some tried to explain the situation, "Donald H." pounded the table in front of him and shouted "order," "order," and—he swore, too. Finding that it was quite impossible to keep the rowdies quiet, and that, though by this time largely in a majority, they would be unable to proceed with the business of the meeting, the Liberal-Conservatives left the Hall; and to the chagrin of the tap-room plotters who hoped to prevent the nominations, adjourned to the Schoolhouse. Dr. McIntyre, it is said, tried to address his followers after the grand manner in which Satan is reported to have addressed the fallen angels. But he could not succeed. His mind was agitated and his thoughts, whatever they were, were unutterable in language which could be understood. We have no doubt his thoughts were bitter. For many even of his friends were disgusted with the scene, and were heard to say that he should never more be a representative of theirs. He must have seen that he acted a foolish and highly impolitic part. We have heard of misguided partisans making such a disturbance as that which took place at Souris on Saturday; but never before have we heard that such a disgraceful, disreputable plot was countenanced or carried out under the leadership of a Candidate for the suffrages of a respectable people. If this is to be the mode of political warfare—in the very beginning of a contest—politics will become so degraded as to be unbearable. We sincerely pity the men who invented and carried out the "Tap Room Plot." It is, particularly, sadly surprising that a man who has sat for five years at the feet of McKenzie, should have so far fallen from the elevated standard of Party and Reform, as to take the lead in a proceeding so disgraceful.

The schoolhouse to which the Liberal Conservatives adjourned was too small. The room was over crowded, and many could not obtain admission. About a hundred and twenty persons were present. Among these we noticed:

- Alexander Bruce, Esq., West River.
- Joseph D. McAulay, Esq., Black Bush.
- Clement McDonald, Esq., "
- John Kichham, Esq., Bull Creek.
- Hon. Simon Bolger, M.L.C., "
- John Kichham, Esq., Souris West.
- Lawrence Kichham, Esq., "
- John Cantwell, Esq., "
- Andrew Leslie, Esq., "
- John Leslie, Esq., "
- J. R. McLean, Esq., M.P.P., Souris East.
- Dr. Muttart, "
- John McLean, Esq., "
- James McQuaid, Esq., "
- Ronald McDonald, Esq., "
- James McDonald, Esq., "
- V. P. Knight, Esq., "
- George F. Campion, Esq., "
- John Morrow, Esq., "
- Angus McDonald, Esq., "
- Messrs. McCormack, Grand River.
- Austin C. McDonald, Esq., Montague Bridge.
- Richard Sprague, Esq., Montague Bridge, and many other leading residents of the County.

On motion of Charles McEachern, Esq., seconded by Mr. Ronald McDonald, Austin C. McDonald, Esq., was unanimously nominated.

On motion of Joseph D. McAulay, Esq., seconded by John Sullivan, Esq., and James R. McLean, Esq., Dr. Muttart was nominated by a unanimous vote, the colleague of Austin C. McDonald, Esq., in the coming Dominion election.

Both nominations were heartily applauded.

Committees were then appointed to organize for and carry on the campaign. Representatives of the various sections of the County expressed their opinions upon the situation, and gave practical hints to be acted upon, in order to secure the victory for "McDonald and Muttart."

Very hopeful reports were made from all parts. Confidence and the determination of the people to put down the "Organized Hypocrisy," by whom they have for five years been deceived and misgoverned, were fully expressed. After making all the arrangements thought to be necessary at the present time for the successful issue of the canvass, the meeting adjourned—the watchwords being "unanimity" and "activity."

Enjoy Life.
What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up! Disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct cause of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

EVERY man who pays his debts now helps to make times better. Let this be remembered when the Collector for the DAILY EXAMINER calls round.
