

PERSONAL.

Mr. Geo. Hughes arrived home from Halifax last night.
Miss Sarah Butcher, of Malden, Mass., is visiting Mr and Mrs Mark Wright.
Dr. Macdonald, of Port Hawkesbury, is among the latest arrivals at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. Geo. D Longworth was a passenger by the Princess last evening returning from Halifax.

Mrs. L. E. Prowse will leave for Sydney, C. B. next Thursday. She is for the present staying with Mrs. Ramsay.

Mr W A Brennan, of the Summerside Journal, returned from Halifax last night and went west this morning.

Miss Harriet McDonald, of Dundas, was a passenger on the S. S. Halifax en route to Boston and New York.

Mrs. Frank Beer left this morning on return to Nelson, B. C. En route she will visit Sackville, St. John and Boston.

Mrs. Dockendorff and her daughter, Miss Lulu, left home Friday to visit Mrs. Dockendorff's eldest daughter, Mrs. Ross, in Boston.

Mrs. Hurst, of Worcester Mass., arrived in Charlottetown by the Halifax, this morning on a visit to her daughter Mrs. (Dr.) McLaughlin.

The Sun says that Miss Dalton, of Stanley Bros. establishment, was among those who attended the big millinery opening in that city.

Mr. W. J. Chappell, who has been spending a short holiday in Charlottetown, left on return to Boston this afternoon, going by the Halifax.

Miss May G. Barron, who has been visiting her parents during the last three months, left on return to Boston today by the steamer Halifax.

Mr. Robert Hogg, jr., left this morning as advance agent for the Boston Stock Co. now in Charlottetown. He will tour the towns of the Maritime Provinces.

Mr. Patrick Bourke, the well-known painter, was a passenger by the Princess last evening, returning from a holiday trip to Boston and other points in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Fred Kettle, formerly Miss Cor Howatt, of Charlottetown, who has been on the Island visiting relatives and friends, returned to-day to her home in St. Augustine, Florida.

Miss Laura Cox, daughter of Mr B C Cox, who has been visiting friends at Halifax returned to Charlottetown last evening and went east this afternoon. Mr Cox met her at Stellarton.

The North Sydney Herald says: T. J. Morris, one of Charlottetown's foremost wholesale and retail grocers, paid North Sydney a flying visit yesterday. After visiting the great steel works he left on a business trip to Halifax.

Henry Laphorne, representing the Charlottetown Soap Works, was in town this week. He is making his annual tour through Cape Breton taking orders for his famous soap.—North Sydney Herald.

Mrs. McIntyre, wife of Governor McIntyre, and her son, Mr. Temple McIntyre, left this morning for a trip to New York. The latter will take a course in Cornell University during the winter. The Governor and Miss McIntyre accompanied them as far as Summerside and will return to-night.

A Milltown correspondent of the St. John sun says: Willie Kirby left on Tuesday for Mount Allison College, where he will take a special course preparatory to studying medicine at McGill. Rev. W. J. Kirby, his father, accompanied him to Sackville, and will be absent over Sunday next.

The twentieth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. Cecil and Mrs. Wiggins, of Sackville, N. B., was celebrated last week, when the happy couple received a number of valuable presents and innumerable good wishes. An address of congratulation was also presented. Every church in Sackville was represented at the celebration.

SOLOMON SLOW'S ADVICE.

What I Would Do, or Have Done, if I Were Boss.

I would condemn mean small party politics.

I would insist on politicians telling the truth.

I would disqualify every elector who sells his vote.

I would make the bribed and briber equally guilty.

I would allow no anonymous letters in the press.

I would—well what is the use—the grubs have the reins of power and what care they if they are driving the country to ruin.

SOLOMON SLOW.

ST. JOHN EXHIBITION.—The attendance at the St. John exhibition this year totalled 62,166, against 59,514 last year.

CHEESE.—Messrs. Dillon & Spillet shipped 1100 boxes of cheese today to Great Britain.

OPERA HOUSE.—To-night, the Boston Stock Co. will present "Soldiers of the Queen," at the Opera House. The play is the handiwork of Mr Harry Bewley, who promises a good performance.

SHEEP KILLED.—Three sheep were killed on the St. Peter's Road last night out of a flock of five hundred owned by Mr. Wheatley butcher.

L. O. A. B. A.—Lady Wallace Lodge No. 27 meets tonight.

Local Notices.

Sentner McLeod & Co. opened their Paris and London millinery today.

Local and Other Items.

SOLDIERS OF THE QUEEN—Opera House tonight.

NO BAND CONCERT tonight in the Queen Square gardens.

THE PROBS.—Fresh south to south west winds; unsettled and showery.

MARKET HALL.—Don't forget St Joseph's Bazaar in the market Hall next week. The indications are that it will be a great success; and the ladies managing it are trying their best to make it so. The proceeds go towards St. Joseph's Convent.

OUT OF JAIL.—Richard Collins, a prisoner confined in Queen's County jail awaiting trial on two charges of assault and battery, made his escape this forenoon by scaling the fence. Collins had been let out in the yard to empty some slops, and took advantage of the opportunity to make his escape. At latest accounts he was still at large.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION.—Manager Yale has secured as a special feature for the "Devil's Auction" Co. a rare novelty entitled "The Dance of the Elements" an electrical dance performed by two clever Parisian dancers. This act is certainly a novelty and will be seen for the first time with the "Devil's Auction" Company.

"Y's."—Last evening the "Y's" and their friends gathered in their parlors on Grafton St. to welcome Miss Ellie Smith, Superintendent of the Y's organization in Nova Scotia. An address of welcome was read by Miss McRae, to which Miss Smith replied. She sketched the work carried on by the societies in Nova Scotia. Refreshments were served. Choice music added to the evening's pleasure.

Y. M. C. A.—At the meeting in the Y M C A parlor last night it was decided to offer the building for sale, the executive committee being empowered to make all necessary arrangements for completing the transaction. The sale is necessitated by the fact that it is the mortgagee's intention to foreclose unless the building is put in proper repair and a reasonable evidence given of the ability of the executive to maintain it successfully.

HORSES FOR RACES.—The following horses have already entered for the races which take place on the Charlottetown Driving Park on Wednesday and Thursday next:—Lina Belle, Jack, Tansy, Parkland, Buller, Dash, Ben Hal, Guy J, Bilmont, The Poetess, Minnie, Bessie Rampart, Warren Guy, Rock Farm Grace, Brilliant, Brazilian, Arcright, Parkwood. More entries will be received tonight, of some of which the secretary has already been notified, but as they have not arrived will not be made known till tomorrow. The best two days' races ever held here are assured.

AT "MY STORE."

FURS

Dress - Goods

JACKETS

No such a range of Dress Goods was ever seen in our Dress Goods Department. A leaning to roughness is conspicuous. Camel Hair effects mostly in plains and pretty plaids, fuzzy, fleecy and almost lumpy, just the thing for our climate at just the price to suit your purses.

FURS

No such a showing of Furs has ever been seen on Prince Edward Island.

We are the leading Fur store of P. E. Island and we have eclipsed our former reputation.

Any lady that buys a Fur Jacket without seeing our stock is not doing herself justice, over 250 Fur Jackets to select from at P. E. Island's Greatest Fur Store.

MILLINERY

We expect our London and Paris Trimmed Millinery in next week.

SILKS

See the new things in silks at My Store.

Never before was our stock more beautiful—but it's the beauty of quiet richness rather than of glaring prominence. To be brief it's a happy collection of real art wonders whose variety and elegance will surprise, and the low price delight you at
