P. E. ISLAND NOT REPRESENTED

At the Paris Exposition

NOTHING EXHIBITED FROM THE ISLAND.

Senator Ferguson Shows That Interests of Province Subordinated to Low Political Purposes.

We now know that Mr Pineau came to Ottawa. We know when he left the Brunswick Hotel, which I happen to know was coincident with his departure from Ottawa; another very distinguished gentleman left for Ottawa the same day—the same end of the day for, it appears, they both left on the morning of March 13. I quote from La Patrie of March 12, 1900, the following words:

The Hon Israel Tarte will leave Ottawa tomorrow for New York; from the latter place he shall embark for France on board the 'Aquitaine'.

On the following day, March 13, La Patrie published the following item of information:

The Hon. J. Israel Tarte, Minister of Public Works of Canada leaves to-night for Paris. He will be accompanied by Madame J. E. Robillard, Miss Anna Tarte, his two daughters; Madame Joseph Robillard, and his secretary, M. Hains. At New York Thursday Mr Tarte will board the 'Aquitaine', of the French line.

We have here the evidence that Mr. Pineau came to Ottawa, that he remained until the forenoon of March 13th, and that he departed from the Hotel Brunswick the same time as the Hon. Mr. Tarte departed from Ottawa to go to Paris. In connection with this subject I am also privileged to read a letter from Mr. Pineau himself, in his own handwriting, written from the Hotel Brunswick, dated March 8, 1900. It is addressed to Mr. James W. Shea, of Waterford Tignish P. E. I.: Ottawa, March 8, 1900.

Dear Sir,—I now take the pleasure of writing you a few lines to let you know that I am in Ottawa at present, and I must also tell you that it is a fine place, I have seen a good deal already. I must also tell you that I have been well received by the government here, and I am weighing for orders to go on which I think will be to-morrow or the next day I was all over and seen all the House of Parliament the House of Commons and the Senate Chamber and I must say it is a fine place to see. It is no wonder that they are so keen to get here, you keep my C. M. B. A. dewes paid up. I will send you money in a few days the 10 lb. twine I got for you men Boarded at Back. You can also get your men Boarded at our place if you want and see that they have what they want. You give them what is right for Boarding them I know you will do that that you got a letter from me I suppose some people are very mad at me for doing what I have done. I could not help myself it is what every man is doing looking out for himself, no more at present I remain yours truly.

I will write you in a few days and will give you more in detail.

HENRY J. PINO.

It is necessary that hon gentlemen should be aware of this fact in order to explain the expression in this letter, 'I could not help myself,' that Mr. Pineau had been unfortunate in business and was indebted to some very strong politicians in the province, and the first thing that was done was to pounce upon him and seize his effects and sell them under the hammer, and the next step was to approach him through the instrumentality of Dr. Wickham to offer him five dollars a day to go to Paris. This is what the evidence, which cannot be gainsaid in the slightest particular, goes to show.

Hon. Mr. McSWEENEY—Did he go to Paris?

Hon. Mr. FERGUSON—I daresay my hon. friend will see by this time that he fully thought he was going to Paris, and some people fully intended to send him to Paris. They must have been the greatest set of deceivers and, I will say, rascals that ever I became acquainted with if they did not really intend to carry out the promises and inducements that were held out to this man to come to Ottawa. My hon.

friend asks did he go to Paris? I believe that up to the present moment he has not gone to Paris, but he was induced to leave Prince Edward Island by a person who was purporting to act, or claiming to act, with the authority of the government at Ottawa and the government of Prince Edward Island. He was induced to leave his home. He had called three or four meetings for the party organization of his constituents before this man Wickham approached him. He had called these meetings for organization, but before the dates for holding the meetings had matured he was spirited away and induced to go to Charlottetown with the full belief and the confident assurance that he was to receive an appointment to go to Paris to represent Prince Edward Island at the Paris Exposition, and his own letter and the declaration I have read all show that this was the case. For some reason best known to those who were conducting this intrigue from beginning to end, Pineau was not sent to Paris. He was taken across the line, into the land where a good many other people with whom political machines have dealings go. He passed over to the United States and remained there until the month of May, when he was brought back to Prince Edward Island, when he entered the provincial legislature and voted in direct opposition to the principles on which he had been elected only a few months previously. The conclusion is inevitable, that he was seduced from his allegiance to his constituents, from his duty to the country, by this promise of being sent to Paris. He was brought to Ottawa and put in a damaging position before his former friends and before the country which was irreparable, as far as he was concerned. He found himself in that position, and having gone so far, he was induced to go still further. At first, all that was intended by those who were conducting this intrigue was that he should be got out of the country, so that his vote should not be recorded during the sitting of the legislature, but out of that evolved a still bolder and stronger proposition, which was the one that was carried out, that he should go back to Prince Edward Island and vote for the party that inveigled him away from the duty he owed to his constituents. I would submit one other declaration on this subject before I resume my seat. It is a declaration by Mr. James W. Shea, of Waterford. He is the gentleman to whom Pineau addressed the letter which I have already read, and Mr. Pineau's letter will show that he at least regarded Mr. Shea as a very honourable man, whom he trusted to look after little affairs of business for him in his absence. Pineau said to him: 'You get your men boarded at our place and get what you want, and I know you will do what is right.' We cannot have a much better recommendation of Mr. Shea, than Mr. Pineau's own letter that he would do what was right. I do not know Mr. Shea personally, but that is the reputation he bears. He is a man who does a very considerable amount of business, and he bears the reputation of a very honourable man.

Hon. Mr. PERLEY—Are there many like that in Prince Edward Island?

Hon. Mr. SCOTT—Many who give up private letters for political purposes?

Hon. Mr. FERGUSON—The letter was not marked private. My hon. friend from Wolseley should not ask that question. It is bad enough for the hon. leader of the government to ask questions of that kind, because he never was in the east and he does not know anything about the province, but I cannot excuse the hon. gentleman from Wolseley, because he knows a good deal about the Island. The declaration reads:

I, James W. Shea, of Waterford, Lot 1, Prince County, P. E. I., farmer and jobster, do hereby solemnly declare that on or about May 13 inst., I was in conversation with Henry J. Pino, M.P.P., and he stated to me that he expected to get from the Liberal party in Charlottetown, for his support, the sum of $2,000. He also said that he had asked of them that amount before leaving Charlottetown on the previous Friday, and they told him they were to meet Monday and they would let him know on his return back to Charlottetown. I have not heard since from Mr. Pino, and cannot now say how the matter has been arranged.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously, believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

JAMES W. SHEA.

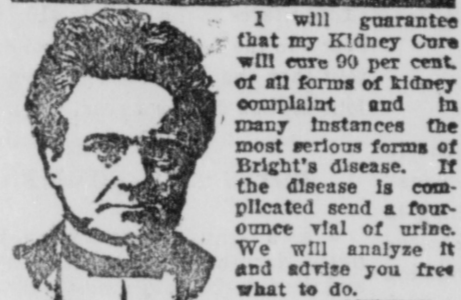

Declared before me at Waterford, in Prince County, province of Prince Edward Island on this 25th day of May, A. D. 1900.

CHARLES DALTON
J. P. for Prince County.

My hon. friend who asked me the question did he go to Paris, has, no doubt, in recollection a discussion that took place in this House some weeks ago. I made the statement solemnly believing that I had good evidence to sustain it. A day or two before that I
