DAILY MARKET QUOTATIONS

SUMMARY

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Toronto—Market lower; trading moderate.

New York — Market lower; slow decline.

Montreal — Market mainly lower; trading active.

CURRENCY

MONTREAL (CP)—The U.S. dollar closed at a premium of 7 21-32 per cent in terms of Canadian funds, unchanged from Tuesday's close. Pound sterling closed at $3.01 9-16, up 1-16.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—A brief early improvement lacked conviction and the stock market went into another sharp skid Wednesday with losses steep among some of the leaders.

Before the session began, Wall Streeters expressed dissatisfaction with the lack of bounce in Tuesday's rally which followed three straight sessions of steep decline.

For a while in the morning the list maintained a narrowly higher trend but trading was slack, inspirational news was absent, and bids began to dry up.

The market was down by mid-session, but there was no particular rush to sell. That came later in the day when the ticker tape ran as much as four minutes late as traders unloaded.

It was a sweeping decline, of about the same magnitude as Friday's but not as bad as Monday's. The gains made in Tuesday's modest advance were more than wiped out.

The Dow Jones industrial average sank 9.74 to 578.48, violating a theoretical support at 580 and entering the 570-580 zone where support for falling prices also had been anticipated.

IBM DROPS

IBM was a big loser, dropping 13 3-4 to 355½. Steels, motors, oils, aerospace issues, electronics, rails, utilities, coppers, airlines, chemicals and electrical equipments joined in a general decline.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 2.7 to 214.7. an estimated $39,00,000,000 was clipped from the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Volume was 3,550,000 shares compared with 3,620,000 Tuesday.

Shell oil rose 3-4 to 31⅝. Shell plans to spin off to its shareholders its 50 per cent interest Shell Oil Co. of Canada; Also the International Shell group has made an apparently successful move to take over Canadian Oil Companies Ltd.

The wife and family of the late Howard Laurence Fouchere, express their sincere thanks to Msg. MacKenzie Father Andrew MacDonald, Father L.
