LITTLE SPORT

PAGE SIX

THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN

AUGUST 15, 1950

Although this will be one of the busiest weeks in sporting and other top entertainment features, there will be little in the way of baseball and other team sports to make way for the Old Home Week program of horse racing and more horse racing, stock and poultry shows, midway entertainment and first rate vaudeville displays, all to take place in the one big centre of activity, the Provincial Exhibition Grounds.

It will be a week of thrills and excitement to meet the demands and wishes of young and old alike when visitors from near and far will intermingle with the people of the Island Province in one big happy throng of pleasure seekers to celebrate the one really big week of fun and entertainment of the season—Old Home Week.

Ever since it was officially made known that the Charlottetown entry in the Maritime Senior Hockey League was to play under the name of the Islanders, there has been considerable discussion in hockey circles here, both pro and con, on the subject. Some don't like the name at all, while others think it is a very suitable one.

Those who are against the use of the name "Islanders" claim that it lacks color for a hockey team that everybody hopes will be going places in senior competition this winter, many suggesting such names as Abegweit and Royals, two names that have built up fine reputations in hockey circles in past years, while many others suggest a name entirely different from anything used for teams here in the past.

But there is a strong feeling for the name choice already, otherwise it would have never been picked by local officials. Many claim that when the team plays its way from home games that Maritimers will just naturally take to the phrase "going to see so and so play the Islanders tonight", while at the same time they feel that the name will give many fans all over the Province, who will be supporting the team by their attendance at the games, the feeling that it is their team, and not one just for Charlottetownians. This seems to be the broader view of the two, because after all it is the support of fandom that counts, and if the team gets that, the players themselves will no doubt contribute the desired "color".

It is nevertheless a question that deserves talking over, and it is good to see that the fans are showing their concern for the team before they even know who is going to be playing on it. But it is something that you interested fans should take up with officials themselves, who will no doubt be pleased to give any suggestion you have regarding the name, their full consideration. Any suggestions that might be made to the sports department of this paper on the subject, will be directed to the proper officials.

The battle for the leadership in the Island Physical Fitness Baseball League took a drastic change over the week-end. The second-place Men's Falcons came up with two of their best performances of the season on Sunday to clip the leading Summerside Curran and Briggs nine for both ends of a doubleheader and come within one and a half games of drawing abreast of the construction crew who have led the loop all season. It was the first time this season that the C and B boys suffered a double defeat.

With only a few games left to be played in the schedule, the situation has changed from what looked like an easy first place and the top playoff spot for the Summerside representatives, to a possible breakneck race to the finish with the Falcons. Now it can see one or the other on top before the schedule winds up, although the westerners still have the best opportunity of being the top team, with a game and a half lead and one more game to play.

But it is not only the senior league that has developed into a tight race. The City Junior loop has come up with an even tighter one and although they have already wound up their scheduled number of games in regular play, the top position has still to be decided with an extra game between Vics and Knights of Columbus to determine who will get the bye into the final round of the playoff series.

Coming up with a blaze of power in their last five starts for as many

N. S. Man Wins Tyro Match As Shoot Opens

CONNAUGHT RIFLE RANGES, South March, Ont., Aug. 14—(CP)—A blazing sun and a light east breeze today beat down on this range, 14 miles west of Ottawa, as shooting began in the 82nd annual shoot of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association.

Lieut. Paul Duncanson, West Nova Scotia Regiment of Wolfville, N.S., posted a possible 50 to win the tyro match, first event of the six-day meet.

The 17-year-old cadet, who has been shooting competitively for two years, was the only one of the 141 marksmen entered in the match to obtain the maximum.

The tyro is from 200 yards and is open to shooters not ranking in the first 150 in the grand aggregate standing for the last 10 years.

Top 15 marksmen in the grand aggregate scoring—total target scores during the week—are chosen for Canada's 1950 team at the British Empire shoot at Bilsby.

Eight other sharpshooters today posted 49s in the tyro and 25 posted 48s.

Among those posting 49s were: Pte. J. Pinkos, Winnipeg; Capt. G. F. Hirst, Calgary, and W. Shorten, Dartmouth, N.S.

The Governor-General's match is the featured event of the week. Held the last day of the meet, it is usually during this event that the winner of the grand aggregate is decided.

Sgt. George Kay of Hamilton, Ont., posted a possible 50 in the Tilton event from 300 yards—a grand aggregate affair.

Marksmen posting 49s included: Pte. E. E. Gutnick, Winnipeg; WO 2. A. C. Green, Vancouver; C. G. Douglas, Moncton, N. B.; C. A. McKay, Vancouver.

In the Bren light machine-gun event from 500 and 200 yards, the R.C.M.P. Prairie Command headquarters posted a score of 115 to capture the Dundonald Cup.

The Royal Canadian Electrical Engineers 202 base workshop posted a 99 score to place second and the Winnipeg Light Infantry was third with a score of 97.

The event is a team match open to teams of three of any rank in the armed forces.

Floyd H. Schraeder, 45-year-old Buffalo, N. Y., marksman, posted a possible 50 in the Connaught Match. Schraeder's total in the grand aggregate standing at 500 yards bested two other marksmen, Gunner C. C. Strong of Newport, N. S., and Maj. Desmond T. Burke of Toronto, who also posted 50s.

Those posting scores of 49 included: Lieut. E. J. Olmstead, Grand Falls, N. B.; WO. I. A. L. G. Clements, Alliance, Alta.; Pte. E. Jennings, Winnipeg; Capt. J. Cole, Winsloe, P. E. I.; Cpl. G. H. Farquharson, Rocky Mountain, B. C.; Lieut. D. C. Lawford, Shilo, Man.; Lieut. F. C. Sullivan, New Westminster, B. C.; R. O. Chandler, Vancouver.

Giants' Protest Ruled Out

NEW YORK, Aug. 14—(AP)—Ford Frick today ruled out the protest of New York Giants over Saturday's wild game with Philadelphia Phils, and told Leo Durocher to curb the antics of Eddie Stanky.

Manager Durocher played the game under protest after Stanky was thrown out for jumping up and down and waving his arms to distract Andy Seminick, who was at bat. The Phils won 5-4 in 11 innings.

The "Stanky manoeuvre" may result in a new rule being written for baseball, said Charlie Segar of the National League Service Bureau in explaining the action of Frick, the league president. No rule now covers it, but it won't be allowed anymore anyway.

The manoeuvre is only possible when the infield defence shifts for a right-hand hitter, placing the second-baseman almost directly back of the bag and thus in the axis of the plate and mound.

Jake LaMotta Signs To Defend Title
NEW YORK, Aug. 14—(AP)—Middleweight champion Jake LaMotta signed today to defend his title against Laurent Dauthuille of France in Detroit Sept. 13.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

The double win which the Charlottetown Falcons took over the Curran & Briggs league leaders on Sunday should prove a real shot in the arm for the league, and it will not do the Curranites any harm either. The Falcons are only one game behind the construction crew now, and the next time these two ball clubs meet there should be some old-time, inter-town rivalry such as we have seen so often between Summerside and Charlottetown.

As Curran & Briggs continued to defeat the other teams in the league with monotonous regularity, the start of the playoffs, the Falcons began to find it hard to stifle their yawns as they watched the contests. Now they should sit up and really take notice.

Unfortunately, however, the Falcons and Curran & Briggs do not meet in regular league competition any more this season. The C. & B. club, due to the rather unusual method of drawing up the schedule, meet the R.C.A.F. twice and the Abbies once more before the start of the playoffs. The Falcons meet the Abbies twice and the R.C.A.F. once. However, there are some postponed and tied games to be settled and those may have some bearing on the final standing. Taking everything into consideration, it looks as if the Falcons still have a fairly hard row to hoe to come out on top.

The real battle will probably be between the R.C.A.F. Royals and the Abbies to get into the playoffs. The R.C.A.F. have a half-game edge, we believe, and there should be some spirited battles before it is decided which of these teams is going to place in the third spot in the semi-final series in the playoffs.

Lefty McAleer, king of the porters before Bob St. Pierre arrived on the Island scene, picked up two victories Sunday and his record should compare favorably with any other pitcher in the league at present. It would be fine if we could get some statistics on that from the secretary of the league, if such a personage really exists.

As "Old Home Week" goes to bat this week, baseball will suffer an eclipse, and all the emphasis will be on duels on the back stretch, and on long shots to win, place and show, and "lad-ees and gen'lmen, inside that tent you will see the only living human being who barks like a dog, eats peanuls like an elephant and drinks like a fish." No games are scheduled for this week, and the next games are slated to take place on August 23rd.

The scheduled game in Summerside will probably be postponed, however, for a super attraction, never seen here before, is on the books for the C. & B. ball park on that date. Donkey baseball between teams made up of Summerside business men and Curran & Briggs ball players will hold the spotlight on August 23rd. Mule train will be from home plate to first to second to third to home plate again, and the records set by John Gilpin and his famous ride will probably all be broken.

Keen Competition As Old Home Week Races Open Under Lights

The Old Home Week racing program got away to a flying start at the Exhibition Raceway last evening when some 3,500 ardent racing fans crammed the stands and grounds where they witnessed an action-packed nine-dash program of harness horse racing entertainment to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of the Provincial Exhibition Association.

Highlighting the card was the Junior Free-For-All Pace, that saw Lock Hanover of the Bart Yexxa stable of Sussex, N. B., clip off all three dashes in that division over a hard-pressing field of A. G. Scott Argot Pointer, Gay Law, Josedale Clipper, Filbert and Cyclonic in some powerful battles over the mile distance. The Lock Hanover horse, driven by Claude O'Brien of Southport, led all the way in the first dash to pace the fastest mile over an Island track this season when he clipped it off in 2:09. The second dash of the division saw the Hanover entry trail A. G. Scott for the first half before making a drive to take over the lead and come in a winner again, followed by A. G. and Argot Pointer. It was a drive from behind Argot, Cyclonic and Clipper at the three-quarter pole in the final dash that saw O'Brien bring him in for the third win of the night.

The other straight victory winner on the night's program was Bob Canuck, who Len O'Meara came up with some really classy driving to pilot him home in all three dashes of the Classified Pace. They were flashing finishes that saw Bob on top at the wire in all three dashes, O'Meara bringing him out from third or fourth place at anywhere between the half or three-quarter mark on each occasion to bring the Gregory and MacLean owned pacer home in front. Shy Ann 2nd placed a close second in the first, while Toby Patch clipped off close second place honors in the other two.

In the Classified Trot, it was a changing battle that was waged all the way between a six-horse field that saw Len O'Meara make his fourth winning drive of the night to bring in Wait N' See in the first dash over P. J. Cadegan's Cobblestone, the latter coming through with top-notch performances in the second and third dashes to be the big winner of the division under the guiding hand of Warren Lewis. Wait N' See was second in the middle session but had to give way to Feather Duster in a driving finish to the wire in the final dash for the place position. Willard Kelly handled the reins of Feather Duster, coming home a winner ahead of Wait N' See in the first dash only to be set back three positions for performing at a mixed gait. At the start of all three dashes, the driver, Brookings Christie Budlong looked like the winning horse for the first half mile or more only to go on the run somewhere along the route from there in to end up with a last place summary.
