

THE DAILY EXAMINER

APRIL 20, 1895.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

In the last hours of the late session there was an interesting discussion concerning Government House. Mr. Rogers of Alberta, submitted a resolution in which it was proposed (1) that during the incumbency of the present Lieutenant Governor, the expenditures upon Government House shall be confined to "such temporary repairs as shall be absolutely necessary," and (2) that "at the expiration of the present term no further expenditure shall be incurred, and if practicable, the property sold for the benefit of the Province."

Mr. Rogers pointed out that the expenditures upon Government House have been heavy, and that the financial resources of the Government are small and becoming smaller. In this connection, Mr. Rogers said that the gentlemen of the Public Accounts committee "were scarcely putting the case fairly" when they figured out a surplus on the ordinary transactions of last year, and pointed out that $65,000 of income were "not revenue but loans."

Mr. Sifton and Mr. Greenway, both members of the Manitoba Government, are quoted as saying that that Government will refuse to heed the Privy Council decision in the Catholic school matter and Ottawa order based thereon, and that on the 9th May the Dominion Government will be so informed.

There is force, too, in the fact that if Government House be given up for the sake of a few dollars, there will be no house in which Provincial hospitality can be extended. In the larger and wealthier Provinces there are rich men who are able to entertain distinguished strangers, and the lieutenant-governors themselves are often persons of large means.

It speaks for itself. The following is a copy of a letter received by Mr. E. R. Brow from the office of "Madison Farms Dairying Co.," Philadelphia:

DEAR SIR:—Accept my congratulations on the neat little booklet which is just received. I do not see how it could have contained more information in the same space, or be gotten up in a more attractive form. Hope it will prove a profitable advertisement.

The above booklet is full of interest to all farmers and dairymen in this Province, and comes from the press of Messrs. Hazard & Moore, whose reputation for artistic printing is wide spread.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A thoughtful paper on "Prohibition and Political Economy," worthy of careful perusal, is published in THE EXAMINER of to-day. It is by the Rev. George M. Campbell, of the First Methodist Church.

Two Liberals and two Conservatives were elected on Wednesday; the majority of the Conservatives was about three times those of the two Liberals combined,—yet the Patriots shout "Victory, victory." The Patriot is easily pleased.

The St. John Sun remarks that "those who fancied that the main element in the election would be the Manitoba school case will find some surprise in the fact that, notwithstanding the remedial order, the place where the Government has gained the most is in Protestant Hamilton, and the place where it has lost are among the French and Scotch Roman Catholics. The election has gone on other issues."

Halifax Herald: It is reported that the price of United States coal oil has increased the past ten days by about 70 per cent, which will no doubt have an effect on the price of it in Canada, but then our grit friends can have the satisfaction of feeling that the Canadian duty on oil, reduced to an ad valorem basis, has been thereby diminished by about 40 per cent. Oil will be higher, but what has been reduced is the ad valorem rate of duty has been reduced!

Mr. Sifton and Mr. Greenway, both members of the Manitoba Government, are quoted as saying that that Government will refuse to heed the Privy Council decision in the Catholic school matter and Ottawa order based thereon, and that on the 9th May the Dominion Government will be so informed.

There is a story told of an innovating English minister who entered on his duties with a resolve to reform everything, but who when he retired, had only succeeded in having the key of his closet laid on his desk instead of hung upon a nail. If he is alive, Mr. Haycock, the leader of the new party in the Ontario Legislature, might strike a source of sympathy. Mr. Haycock came to reform everything and economize everywhere, and secured a committee to consider the expenditure on the Lieutenant-Governor's residence. He and his associates have not dug many potatoes from the big planning they made at election time.

Commenting upon the fact that George E. Foster is now Leader of the House of Commons, the Ottawa correspondent of the Montreal Gazette says that "Mr. Foster has, especially since the death of Sir John Macdonald, developed qualities as a parliamentarian which eminently fit him for the onerous and responsible position of Leader of the Commons, and the fact of reforming and good temper displayed by him while he temporarily filled the position during the latter part of the session of 1893, after Sir John Thompson had left for Paris, gave ample evidence that he has in him all the elements necessary to make a safe, careful and competent leader. Sir Mackenzie Bowell has made an excellent choice and one which tends to the benefit of the House and the country."

St. John Sun: The sudden and rapid advance of the price of oil is held to be due to the Standard Oil Company's determination to crush out all other companies engaged in distribution. The great corporation is therefore buying crude oil at prices supposed to be beyond the reach of competing concerns engaged in the purchase, refining or distribution of the product. So soon as competition can be closed the price of crude oil will go down again to the old level, which enables the Standard company to gather in all the profits by grinding the producers on the one side and the consumers on the other. These operations of the great American monopoly are calculated to strengthen the belief that it is not a bad idea for Canada to encourage a company of their own, which, so far as this country is concerned, can ensure competition.

IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF. The following is a copy of a letter received by Mr. E. R. Brow from the office of "Madison Farms Dairying Co.," Philadelphia:

DEAR SIR:—Accept my congratulations on the neat little booklet which is just received. I do not see how it could have contained more information in the same space, or be gotten up in a more attractive form. Hope it will prove a profitable advertisement.

St. John Sun: For the six months ending March 31, 1895, the value of settlers' effects from the United States entered at the port of St. John was $22,992, and the value exported from St. John to the United States was $15,275. For the previous half year the value of such goods entered was $12,862, and the value exported $8,755. The returns for the year ending last March are: Settlers' effects imported from the United States $35,954 Settlers' effects exported to United States 25,960

Excess of settlers' effects entered, $10,994. These returns are made up from the declaration of immigrants from the United States and of Emigrants to that country. They show that so far as the transfer of settlers' effects is a test of the movement between the two countries, Canada has been a large gainer by the drift of population.

THE EVOLUTION. The police are ignorant as to what route the man will take, and are watching all the French ports.
