The Great Mr. Tittle

NEW YORK Giants had little doubts as to their superiority Sunday when they won the Eastern Conference championship by whipping Pittsburgh Steelers 37-17.

It was a bit of justice, we think, that Giants won the battle. Had they lost and ended the schedule with a 104 mark Steelers would have come through as champions with only eight wins. We could never see how any justice would be maintained with such goings-on.

Chicago Bears didn't pail in their big one. They needed a win Sunday to assist Packers as western champions and the Chicago crowd got what it wanted. They had more trouble than they could handle in the defense conference champs. However, Gifted more than most for Shofner's absence as he never displayed outstanding ability on the receiving end.

Minor Hockey Booms
WERE you at the Forum Saturday last watching those paperweights in action? If you were, you probably saw a man with a tattooed coat running up and down the promenade. There were youngsters running after him all evening. However, don't feel sorry for him. He loves his job and he's doing it in an excellent manner.

Parents Are Coming
ONE encouraging thing about this year's minor hockey is the fact that a great many more parents are showing up to see their boys. One father claims that he has seen his kid continually parent wants to come to the rink and watch his kid continually parent wants to see him out there in competition with the best. He wants to see him out there in competition with the best. He wants to see him out there in competition with the best.

Great Boosters
OF course, there are always some folks who go out of their way to help a cause. There is a group of boosters working down at Canada Packers who have done a tremendous amount for minor hockey. They have contributed 80 helmets to the association. Saturday morning they were buying coffee and doughnuts to the parents and friends of the boys participating in the minor hockey program.

Giants Happy With Victory

After weeks of starting they relaxed and counted their money before being sent to a three-day vacation.
They even heard some kind words from a Pittsburgh Steeler.

NOT A CHANCE ON THIS TRY
Bob Nevin (11) of the Toronto Maple Leafs, didn't have a chance to score in this first period action at the Boston Garden Sunday, when Doug Mohns (19), Leo Bovin (20) and Tom Johnson (10) of the Bruins moved in to assist their goalie Ed Johnson.

OTHER FINES RAISED
MONTREAL (CP)—Fines of $1,000 each were imposed Monday on coaches Billy Reay of Chicago Black Hawks and Punch Imlach of Toronto Maple Leafs over a fracas in a Chicago-Toronto game Dec. 7.

CLARENCE CAMPBELL
Normally, a player who leaves the bench to join a fracas gets an automatic $25 fine, but Campbell said he considers the amount "inadequate" in this case.

Several of our clubs were reluctant to deal with American League clubs during the recent winter meetings in San Diego at Los Angeles... a National League official said Monday.

More Skiing Said Needed
By DENNIS ORCHARD
VANCOUVER (CP)—Canada stands high in world alpine skiing but the perch is precarious. The number of competitive skiers in the country is too small to maintain the place, and the Canadian Amateur Ski Association is recommending much more training of many more in-club skiers.
