Well Known Geo'town Man, W.T. Gotell, Passes Suddenly

GEORGETOWN — William Temple Gotell, well known resident of Georgetown, died suddenly in the Charlottetown Hospital early Monday evening, Feb. 19, in his 74th year.

The late Mr. Gotell, who had a heart condition for the past 12 years, had not been feeling well since Friday and had entered hospital just a few hours prior to his death.

The deceased was born and spent his lifetime in Georgetown. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gotell (Sarah Batchelder). For 50 years he was harbor pilot at Georgetown and during that time piloted countless ocean-going freighters and smaller coastal freighters in and out of this port and on the adjacent rivers. For many years he was in charge of the placing of the harbor and river buoys.

He was a highly successful lobster fisherman for the greater part of his life.

He served on a number of occasions as a member of the Georgetown Town Council.

He was an ardent hunter and gunner as well as a marksman of considerable note. He was known throughout the province, and as far away as the United States many hunters availed themselves of his excellent knowledge of the habits and haunts of native wild life, of which he was a lover and student, to guide them on numerous hunting expeditions.

He possessed a pleasing and friendly personality and was an interesting conversationalist on a variety of subjects.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Perry of Tignish; a son, Forde, now residing in Charlestown, Mass.; a sister, Maudie (Mrs. Milton Hemphill) of Pictou, N.S.; two brothers, John C. and Frank, both of Georgetown.

The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock to St. James' Roman Catholic Church, Georgetown, with interment in the church cemetery.

New Technique Reported Used In Brain Surgery

CHICAGO (AP)—A bloodless brain surgery technique substituting super cold for the usual scalpel has been used by a physician to relieve once hopeless cases of tremor and rigidity.

He is Dr. Irving S. Cooper, director of the department of neurologic surgery, St. Barnabas Hospital for Chronic Diseases in New York.

In a prepared abstract, he said his procedure carries such small risk that it is possible to apply the technique in early cases of brain disease as well as in far advanced cases.

The procedure consists of inserting a small tube until it reaches the site to be treated and then filling the tube with liquid nitrogen cooled to around 200 degrees below zero centigrade.

Freezing for three to five minutes produces a permanent lesion in the brain that completely abolishes all tremor and rigidity.

He said the procedure has been used successfully in selected cases of Parkinson's disease, multiple sclerosis, cerebellar tumor and other brain conditions.

Black Hand Seen Controlling Crime

TORONTO (CP)—The Telegram says the "notorious Mafia or black hand society" controls big crime syndicates in Toronto, Montreal and other large cities.

In a dispatch from Ottawa, the paper says Commissioner C. W. Harverson of the RCMP has confirmed that this secret, international organization has been making inroads into Canada's crime syndicates.

"But it would be wrong to say that Mafia now controls all the big crime operations in the country," the RCMP boss is quoted.

The newspaper says it is understood that Mafia has taken control of protection rackets, narcotics, gambling, counterfeiting and prostitution in Toronto, Montreal and other large Canadian cities.

EAGLE SHOT IN KINGS COUNTY

Wildlife rarely found these days in Prince Edward Island have been reported cropping up in the eastern end of the province. Earlier this winter a walrus is reported to have been shot near North Lake. Shown above is an eagle with an eight foot, three inch wing spread which was shot at Souris River by Joseph La-Pierre (left) and Remegius Grant. They discovered the eagle dive-bombing a few newly-born lambs and shot it before it could get them.

Forestry Study Course Readied

A study course on all aspects of forestry work is being drawn up by provincial forester Frank Gaudet for the use of 4-H Forestry Clubs.

Three texts, based on those used in New Brunswick, have been prepared for printing.

There is one forestry club in the province now—the Souris Line Road Club. Mr. Gaudet said there are indications that other clubs will be formed in the province.

Frank Hall Joins Rail-Union Talks

MONTREAL (CP)—Frank Hall, veteran chief negotiator for 110,000 non-operating railway employees, has returned to talks aimed at reaching a new labor contract with Canada's railways.

Mr. Hall, 68, entered a hospital in Galveston, Tex., a week ago for a checkup. He missed the resumption of talks between railway and union negotiators last Wednesday.

Exiles Plan Castro Ouster

By MORRIS W. ROSENBERG GUATEMALA CITY (AP)—A group of Cuban exiles in Guatemala are organizing an army to seek the overthrow of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

The organization, however, is in death of all international athletic competition or in its place a "false shadow" international athletic atmosphere devoid of true sportsmanship, and continually harassed by political implications, he said.

Roxburgh was in Moose Jaw with the Galt Terriers, Canada's representative in the world hockey tournament who are making an exhibition tour of western Canada.

The new organization is called the Army of Liberation of Cuba. Its chief is a former commander in the Cuban army, 58-year-old Gen. Jose Pedraza y which Canada could aid the development of the British colony. Mr. Regier declared that five out of six people in the colony accepted Premier Jagan's austerity budget. Protest demonstrations against it led to a general strike, now in its sixth day, and four days of rioting and looting which is just being put down by British troops.

He also said Premier Jagan had been lenient toward the opposition actions, which he said could be considered in Canada as "disloyal."

In the letter, Mr. Ramphal, urged Mr. Regier "not to abuse Guianese hospitality and generosity and not tempt them."

Mr. Regier said he regretted that his presence in British Guiana had met with Mr. Ramphal's disfavor but he had come in response to an appeal by British Guiana for foreigners to come and see how best they could help the country.

Mr. Regier had said opposition forces in the Guianese government "acted very childishly" in inciting the people of Georgetown to conduct mass demonstrations against Premier Cheddi Jagan's left-wing government.

Mr. Regier, the New Democratic Party's financial critic and Commons member for Burnaby-Coquitlam, is visiting British Guiana at the invitation of Mr. Jagan to study ways in Canada Has No Agreement To Fix Exchange On Dollar

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada has made no new undertaking or commitment to fix the exchange rate on its dollar at an early date, Finance Minister Fleming told the Commons here.

He said that while the International Monetary Fund would be fixed, this is its ultimate goal and its members fully understand Canada's desire to leave the Canadian dollar free to find its own level.

Mr. Fleming was questioned by Opposition Leader Pearson and Paul Martin (L—Essex East) about last week's fund council meeting in Washington, where Canada was represented by Louis Rasminsky, governor of the Bank of Canada.

Mr. Pearson asked whether it was true the international body was unsatisfied with Canada's policy and planned further periodic consultations. Mr. Martin asked about "disquietude" which he said existed in the country because of the government's policy.

Mr. Fleming said Canada's policy has been fully explained and is understood by all members of the fund, and that Mr. Martin's question was "unworthy and un-Canadian."

The conference last week in Washington was "a routine consultation," and has been exaggerated, Mr. Fleming added.

There had been no change in the nature of the consultations from those held when the previous Liberal government was in office. The Liberals had tried twice to maintain a fixed exchange rate on the dollar and had to abandon both attempts.

Regional Thinking Dangerous In Canadian Trade, Business

MONTREAL (CP)—Canadians, while recognizing the varied situations and problems of different areas, must not allow provincialism and sectionalism to develop in trade and business, W. S. Kirkpatrick, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, said.

Speaking to the Canadian Construction Association, Mr. Kirkpatrick said: "Canadians should realize that the various parts of Canada and the different segments of our economy are interdependent. We must avoid too much regional thinking and focus our developments that will be best for Canadians as a whole."

Tendencies to establish industries economically unsound from a national point of view must be resisted.

"This is a matter that needs prompt and positive action because there are signs of an unhappy trend towards economic sectionalism," he added.

Mr. Kirkpatrick's text was released to the press in advance of delivery.

He said United States and other proposals for liberalized trade should be considered on their merits, "without slavish adherence to existing arrangements, recognizing that, without an aggressive and flexible approach, Canada may suffer

CAHA Prexy Seeks Gov't Intervention

MOOSE JAW (CP)—Jack Roxburgh, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, said Tuesday that his association had made a third appeal to the Canadian government to prevent one of the world's few remaining avenues of friendly international association from being wiped out.

"I refer," Roxburgh said, "to international sport and especially hockey and to what has happened recently in the political field to various international and world competitions."

Roxburgh said the CAHA is greatly concerned that political considerations will likely bar the East German Hockey Federation from competing next month in the world championships in Colorado Springs, Colo.

He said the association was equally concerned that similar recent situations in other sports could mean the beginning of the end for international sports competitions on a non-political basis.

"We believe," he said, "that definite action should be taken

Churchill Town May Be Moved

OTTAWA (CP)—The public works department is handling study of the possible relocation of the town of Churchill, on Manitoba's Hudson Bay coast, the Commons was told here.

Transport Minister Balcer was replying to a question from J. W. Pickersgill (L—Bonaville) that Mr. Balcer had originally announced that a new site was being considered for Churchill.
