Final Meeting Last Night Of Lobster Carnival Committee

The final meeting of the Summerside lobster carnival committee prior to the big show was held last night in the Civic Stadium when reports were received from the various committee chairmen all indicating that practically every one of the thousand and one details in connection with the show have been attended to.

The carnival opens on Monday and at 3:00 p.m. the huge parade featuring bands and floats will form up in front of the Canadian Legion in readiness to move off at 4:00 o'clock. The official opening will take place at 8:00 p.m. at the Summerside Raceway by His Honor T.W.L. Prowse, Lt.-Governor of the Province. Featured for the first night will be a hard to beat card of horse racing the St. Ann's Gaelic Band, dancing in the Stadium and fire works.

For the entire week the committees of the service clubs have provided a variety of entertainments that will appeal to everyone young and old. For the kiddies and for the grown ups as well the Bill Lynch shows with their midway will be playing all week.

The Summerside welcome mat will be out each and every day to the thousands of visitors expected to throng the old town for the biggest event in its history, the second annual lobster carnival.

The year the R.C.A.F. Station Summerside will be host to the general public on Saturday when a huge air show will be staged in the afternoon.

All through the week in Summerside there will be the sound of revelry day and night. Charles Hogan and his committee chairmen have laboured long and tirelessly to make the visitors from other Provinces plan to make Summerside's Lobster Carnival a must in future years.

Miss Donna Mill is being employed at Cavendish for the summer months.

Ebbfleet Has A Convention

The Women's Institute Convention for Ebbfleet and surrounding district was held in the schoolhouse on June 14th with Ebbfleet as the entertaining institute.

The Convention was represented by six Institutes, comprising Duvar, Bloomfield, Corner, Plusville, Campbellton, Burton and Ebbfleet.

Mrs. Russell Callaghan capably presided with Mrs. Fred Thibodeau as secretary. Fifty-five institute members and several visitors attended. Several guest speakers occupied seats on the platform.

The meeting opened by all singing the Institute Ode and reciting the Creed in unison. A short opening address by the president was followed by the address of welcome by Mrs. Harris Callaghan. Mrs. Melvin McGregg of Burton fittingly replied.

The minutes of the last convention were read, approved and signed. Next came roll call, followed by each secretary's report. Reports showed that meetings were profitable and pleasant and that a most commendable contribution had been made for the good of Home and Country.

Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie vice-president then spoke, bringing greetings from the executive. She reminded the members of their responsibility to the family community and country. She spoke about music and drama festivals and urged the institutes to prepare and produce one act plays.

Next Mrs. Urban Pineau, Bloomfield Corner, read a very interesting paper on Education. This was followed by a talk by Mrs. Vernon Bolger. R.N. She stressed the great need for nurses and urged girls who had completed grade twelve to enter the nursing profession, provided they felt that it was their calling.

Mrs. Bolger's talk was followed by an enthusiastic sing-song. A humorous reading by Mrs. Harold Doyle of Campbellton was very much enjoyed.

Miss Woolner, an instructor in the handicraft van, gave a most interesting demonstration which included hints on dress-making, weaving, leather tooling, stenciling and the making of cushions.

Two young ladies from the Plusville Institute entertained the members with a duet accompanied by guitar music. Next came a talk by Miss Bingham, assistant supervisor, who spoke on Citizenship without good citizens, who are ready and willing to accept personal responsibility.

She greatly admired the large number of exhibits and handicraft and urged that the members send some to the Provincial Exhibition.

A question box of which Mrs. Earl Murphy had charge was a most interesting and helpful feature of the convention. Several suggestions were also read. Resolutions had to do with education, insurance, scholarships and the raising of the W.I. membership fee.

Votes of thanks were extended to Ebbfleet Women's Institute, Mrs. Wilkie, Mrs. Bolger, Miss Woolner and Miss Bingham and all who had contributed to the success of the Convention.

During the supper hour a delicious lunch was served after which all had an opportunity to admire the beautiful handicraft on display.

50th Wedding At Campbellton

The old MacKendrick home in Campbellton, Lot 4 where the family have lived for five generations was the scene of a happy gathering on June 12th, when the immediate family of Mr. and Mrs. William MacKendrick (the former May Webb, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, O'Leary) united with them in celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacKendrick were host and hostess to a family dinner assisted by Mrs. Harold Horne and Mrs. Errol Stetson. Cards, letters, telegrams and a cable from Mr. and Mrs. Howard MacKendrick, Scotland, the only absent member, added greatly to the day's happiness.

In the evening a delicious supper was served at the home of the bride and groom of former years. Two beautifully decorated wedding cakes graced the table and later were cut in the tradition of all manners.

The following evening the members of the United Church of Campbellton met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. MacKendrick. Mr. Robert Shaw as Chairman called on Mr. Vance MacKay who read the following address and Mrs. Elbridge Cousins on behalf of the members presented two very beautiful gifts. In reply Mr. MacKendrick in his usual genial manner thanked them all for their kindness and passed on the secret of how to stay happily married through fifty years. Mrs. MacKendrick also expressed her appreciation after which all joined in singing "For they are jolly good fellows".

A pleasant social evening was enjoyed by all and later a delicious lunch was served by the ladies. In departing each guest again extended good wishes for many more happy anniversaries.

The following is the address: To Mr. and Mrs. William MacKendrick, Campbellton, Prince Edward Island, Dear Mr. and Mrs. MacKendrick:

We, the members of the congregation of Campbellton United Church, wish to take this opportunity to congratulate you on the occasion of this your Golden Wedding Anniversary. You have enjoyed a long and happy wedded life spent entirely in this community.

In this past half century, you have witnessed many changes in which you have adjusted yourselves and advanced with the times. To-night we have every evidence of this in your lovely home equipped with all modern conveniences, open at all times throughout the years to your friends and neighbors for many a social gathering for church and community.

Your son and daughter have followed in your footsteps by building up happy homes of their own. You have both been willing to give of your time and talent to all work in connection with our
