Post-Nuptial Shower At Travellers Rest

A post-nuptial shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis at Moosvi, Travellers Rest on Friday evening, September 22nd in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold MacDougall of Toronto. Mrs. MacDougall is the former Alma Moose, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Moose.

The bride and groom were escorted into the room to the strains of the Wedding March by Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Harold Moose, aunt of the bride. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Simmonds. The bride's bouquet was presented by winsome little Roberta Hogg.

The heavily laden baskets of gifts were carried in by the Misses Thelma Moose and Janet Crozier. Mrs. Eldred Simmonds and Mrs. John Burrows opened the parcels while Mrs. Gerald Mill and Mrs. George Taylor read the accompanying verses.

They were neatly arranged on the table by Mrs. Lois Moose, Mrs. Robert Hogg, Mrs. Waldon Moose and Mrs. Hillard Moose, after which the groom very fittingly replied thanking all on behalf of his bride and himself.

The rest of the evening was spent in instrumental music, singing, readings and step dancing. The dancing of the evening a sumptuous lunch was served. - S work in which we are engaged. Premier Campbell of Manitoba thanked Mr. Duplessis and the Province of Quebec for a stay which was "so pleasant and so educational."

He had had a "very high" personal regard for the Quebec Premier, who he was sure would go down in history "as one of the Fathers of Canada's re-configuration."

Everyone realized that it would be "unrealistic and untruthful" to say the delegates had done all they wanted to do. But they had taken "long strides" in the direction in which they wanted to travel.

It would be too much to expect that the people in Canada's assorted Provinces could have a full appreciation of each other's problems. But meeting together, as they now had done in Quebec, served to take the delegates a long way towards understanding.

There would be need for "compromise and adjustment", but those things would be achieved.

Premier Byron Johnson of British Columbia, speaking briefly, suggested the conference hold one of its future meetings in Victoria, capital of the west coast Province. It would provide the setting for a harmonious discussion.

Premier Jones of Prince Edward Island expressed hope a constitution would provide a "satisfactory basis" for all parts of the country.

He joined Premier Johnson in thanking Mr. Duplessis for Quebec's kindness and courtesy.

Premier Tommy Douglas of Saskatchewan said he wanted to indicate "how satisfied" his Province was with the progress that the conference had achieved.

"Progress was not easily attained. There were things which had to be thrown away and other things which had to be kept. Much of the progress in this conference was due to the "fine spirit of harmony" which prevailed.

It was natural that there should be different points of view since the various Provinces represented different and widely scattered areas. But they had tried to understand one another's problems.

Premier Manning of Alberta said he personally was "very optimistic" of eventual success.

It was recognized that the full importance of such a conference would not be appreciated in the present, but only in the light of history. It was important to take a long time and settle a problem right than to take a short time and settle it wrong.

Premier Smallwood of Newfoundland said he would return to his Province better versed in the implications and background of the constitution. The Newfoundland delegation had been impressed by the governments' friendliness and geniality throughout the conference.

Mr. Smallwood also praised the work of Prime Minister St. Laurent and said Newfoundland was proud to belong to a nation that could produce such men.

Mr. Duplessis said Mr. St. Laurent had presided in a remarkable way. The courteous way he had handled the conference was largely responsible for its success. Mr. Duplessis said the spirit of co-operation shown was remarkable. He believed that by meeting frequently the governments got to know and like one another better.

Quebec was glad to co-operate with other Provinces in a just and friendly way.

The speeches over, the delegates rose and sang "O Canada" before leaving the chamber.

MOSCOW, Sept. 28 - (Reuters) - Alan G. Kirk, American Ambassador to Russia, and Sir David Kelly, British Ambassador, conferred for one hour today. Subject of their talk was not disclosed.

every bit as enthusiastic when it came to watching the competitions. And the crowd loved to hear that fiddle play. When Lem Paquet and Jack Webster began warming up for the step dancers they attracted the biggest portion of the spectators and retained them until the step dancing competitions concluded.

The King's County Ayrshire exhibitors turned out in force for the Red and White show with about 50 animals being shown. The judge Mr. Fred MacRae of East Royal stated that it was a real good display.

Judge Was Busy
Plowing judge Mr. W. W. Baird estimated that he must have walked between twenty and twenty-five miles during the day, as in addition to judging the tractor two sod, he placed the plowers in the single furrow open, and the gang plow under 16.

Alex Campbell of Primrose topped the competitors in the single furrow open event. Truelove Taylor of Strathcona placed second, as he did last year in the same match. Another Strathcona man, John Hunter, finished third.

Peter MacKinnon of St. Peter's had the straightest furrow while Alex Campbell had the best crown. Truelove Taylor turned over the best finish.

The gang plow match for boys under 16 was a two man affair between Arnold Burke of Strathcona and Claude Matheson of Forest Hill. Burke also had the straightest furrow and the best crown with Matheson having the best finish.

Cattle Show
Gavin Reid of Montague and Robert White of Rollo Bay copped the largest portion of the Ayrshire winnings between them. Mr. Reid had five firsts and the junior female championship while Mr. White took three firsts and the grand female championship.

Mr. White won the grand championship yesterday with Lady Helen W., who also won the grand championship of Kings at the Souris Exhibition this year. Whistling Hope, owned by Mr. Gavin Reid, won the junior female championships at both Dundas and Souris.

Mr. Gavin Reid took top honors in the get of sire class with the animals being sired by Bonnydale Cherry Reliance. Second place honors went to Mr. White with animals sired by Sunny Slope Non Pareil.

The progeny of dam class was headed by Robert White with Gavin Reid in second place. Mr. Reid had the best in junior calves, yearlings and three year olds.

Other first place winners were Messrs. N. W. MacLeod and Son, Bridgetown who took top honors in three year olds in milk; J. W. Way and Son, St. Peter's Bay whose Fairvue Fashion Nell 2nd topped the dry two year olds; Robert Acorn of Dundas who had the best two year old in milk and Hubert MacLeod of Mount Hope who showed the best grade.

Judge Fred MacRae was particularly impressed with Robert White's Lady Helen W., and Gavin Reid's calf, Whistling Hope. He thought that the calves were particularly good.

Numbered among the Ayrshires were nine animals from the Farmington-Mount Hope from the Farmington Club members showing cattle included Elmer Curran, Isobel MacLeod, Vernon Wood, Alban Wood and Hilda Acorn.

Malcolm Campbell of Cardigan showed the best draft or general purpose animal in the Horse Show. He also showed the best gelding under 1400 pounds that was born before Jan. 1, 1947.

The heaviest and best plowing team the grounds belonged to Farquhar Campbell of Dundas Centre. Intermediate plowing team honors went to Wallace Taylor of Strathcona with Wylie Taylor of Upton having the best plow team under 2200 pounds.

Roland Sanderson of Midgell showed the best draft stallion and judge Bill Reid of Kinkora was in his praise of animal.

The best draft foal of 1950 was owned by Arnold Nicole of White Sands.

Judge Reid stated that the quality of horses shown was good but the quantity was light. He would like to see more entries, he stated, and added that there was an apparent lack of draft foals.

Mr. Reid judged horses at the Match during the first five years that the annual meet was in operation. Back again this year, followers of the match were stating it was like old times to have Reid on the horses and Baird on the plowing events. Mr. Baird has judged all plowing events since the meet commenced.

Joe Longaphie of Gowan Brae was the best step dancer among the men. Mrs. G. Fouchere of Georgetown and Francis Chaisson of Rollo Bay won top honors in the women's and boys classes respectively.

In closing the two day event President Leslie Hunter of Bridgetown thanked all the officials, spectators, competitors, and press for their efforts in making the Match a success.

The machinery displays again attracted their share of the spectators with displays being given by Imperial Oil, S. R. Johnston, Ltd., Hall Manufacturing Co., Bruce Stewart and Co., and International Harvester.

The British proposal, which it expected to emerge tomorrow or Saturday with number of co-sponsors, generally voices the American points but it goes further in regard to the 38th parallel.

282,872,000 pounds valued at $16,760,000 in the same period last year.

August landings on the Atlantic coast totalled 116,661,000 pounds compared with 87,721,000 pounds a year ago. The value was $3,621,000 against $3,085,000.

All major species except mackerel were landed in greater quantity, the largest increases being in the herring and sardine fisheries. The landed values of the halibut and lobster catch showed marked increases.

Pacific coast fishermen produced 701,000 pounds of fish with a total value of $23,016,000 in the eight-month period, compared with 485,000 pounds valued at $20,061,000 in the first eight months of 1949.

Increased landings of salmon—particularly chum, pink and sockeye—more than offset declines in almost all other Pacific catches.

In the eight-month period 313,507,000 pounds of fish have been landed on the Pacific coast with a value of $20,778,000 compared with 220 Yd. Dash—1, Joe Gillis, St. Peter's Bay; 2, G. Shepherd, Cardigan; 3, J. Cheverie, Souris.

on ending the fighting—if and when the North Koreans decide to quit. The American program, which dovetails closely with proposals being made by Britain and Canada, follows in brief:
1. Korea should be free and united. This would do away with the 38th parallel boundary between Communist North Korea and UN-backed South Korea and would in fact carry out decisions of previous General Assemblies.

2. The method of unification can best be determined by a new, strong United Nations Commission in Korea with between seven and 14 members. Emphasis should be laid on a broad Asiatic membership in the Commission.

3. Korean people to be consulted by the Commission should be chosen in free elections by secret ballot on the basis of universal suffrage.

4. Strong emphasis on a program of rehabilitation and reconstruction.

5. Settlement of the Korean problem must not be dominated by any one country but must be accomplished by the United Nations in co-operation with the Korean people. The United States in this connection does not want bases in Korea.

6. It must be made certain that the free and independent Korea will pose no threat to its neighbors. Korea should be admitted into the United Nations promptly so it can assume the obligations under the U. N. charter. The Soviet Union has vetoed the admission of the U. N.-sponsored republic of Korea, now recognized by the U. N. as the only legal government of all Korea.

7. The British proposal, which it expected to emerge tomorrow or Saturday with number of co-sponsors, generally voices the American points but it goes further in regard to the 38th parallel.
