

MASTER-AT-ARMS

The final class of The Master-at-Arms Course will be held in Trinity Troop Hall at 8:00 p. m. Thursday, June 1st.

This will be a test period.

THE FIRST CHTOWN PACK

Twenty-five lively wolf cubs from the 1st Charlottetown Pack spent a fun-filled twenty-fourth of May with Akela and Tall Timber near Scout Master Zakem's cottage at Rosebank. After an hour's tramp through the woods, we all enjoyed an appetizing dinner of vegetable soup, weaners, rolls, cocoa and cookies, cooked over an outdoor fire place. (There were far too many cookies, but fortunately the broth wasn't spoiled!)

Some of the highlights of the day were: A sand building castle contest which showed a lot of imagination in some of the boys; A scavenger hunt, in this the boys showed surprising results; All the Cubs teamed up for a ball game, after which we informed Tall Timber, that he should take a few lessons on how to umpire!

The one disappointment of the day was that Akela thought it was too early in the season for the boys to go swimming, but they succeeded in getting a genuine sun burn which helped to make up for the dip.

Akela of the 1st.

1ST GEORGETOWN

Last Thursday evening Georgetown Scouts concentrated on First-Aid, a bit of Physical Training and work on the Master-at-Arms badge. Following this, The Troop planned a hike for Saturday.

Saturday morning dawned fair and fine and at 9:00 a. m. the Owl and Wolf Patrols received final instructions from S.M. D.A. MacCormack and went their way. The boys covered considerable territory and cooked their own noon meal. They then returned to Georgetown and passed in hike reports to their Scoutmaster.
