ESTEY'S Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is pleasant to take as milk. The peculiar manner in which it is made renders it acceptable to the most sensitive stomach. For Coughs, Colds, Consumption, delicate Children, Whooping Cough and all wasting diseases there is no remedy to equal it.

A Beau of 1829.

When grandpa went a wooing,
He wore a satin vest,
A trail of running roses
Embroidered on the breast.
The pattern of his trousers,
His linen white and fine,
Were all the latest fashion
In eighteen twenty-nine.

Grandpa was a fine-looking young fellow then, so the old ladies say, and he is a fine-looking old gentleman now. For the past score of years he has been a firm believer in the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. "It renewed my youth," he frequently says. It is the only blood-purifier and liver invigorator guaranteed to benefit or cure, or money promptly refunded. It cures liver disease, dyspepsia, scrofulous sores, skin eruptions, and all diseases of the blood. For lingering coughs and consumption (which is lung-scrofula in its early stages) it is an unparalleled remedy.

Very Bad Form.—Jack Dresser—"There was an unusual bus le on Washington Street this afternoon." Mrs Dresser—"Unusual! Well, I should hope so. Didn't the poor thing know that they aren't worn any more?" —Boston Post.

If you are troubled with hawking and spitting, dull headache, loosing sense of taste or smell, you are afflicted with catarrh, and to prevent it from developing into consumption, Nasal Balm should be used promptly. There is no case of catarrh which it will not cure, and for cold in the head it gives immediate relief. Try it. All dealers.

Mr. Watts—"If that isn't just like a woman. Buttoning her shoe with a hair pin.' Mrs. Watts—"I don't care. Didn't I hear you telling Mr. Potts about having to put on your hat with a shoe horn?"—Indianapolis Journal

It may be old, but Johnson's Anodyne Liniment retains the vigor of youth. Long may it live

If you will do your duty and tell the truth you will not need any excuses as long as you live.

Ulserated sore throat and tonsilitis yield to Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, when all else fail

Uncle Eben wrote to the college professor —"Have not heard from my boy for some time. Hope he is not sick If he has been, I hope to hear he is improving." The professor wrote to Uncle Eben—"Boy not sick, and not improving."

In this climate use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for colds, coughs, bronchitis and catarrh

Young Nevergo—"I beg pawdon, Miss Polly, for leaving so early, for, weally, I feel so much at home heah, always." Miss Polly —"No apologies are necessary; I'm sure I always wish you to be at home when you are here."—Pittsburg Bulletin.

ESTEY'S Iron Tonic works like magic, reaching every part of the human body through the blood, giving to all renewed life and vigor.

Grief or expectation, or mental application to any favorite persuit, destroys appetite.

PHILODERMA is a positive cure for Burns and Scalds. It acts like magic.

Forty-five per cent of the water consumed or drawn for domestic purposes in London is wasted.

FOR softening, improving, and beautifying the Skin, no preparation that his ever been introduced equals Estey's Fragrant Philoderma. Druggists sell it.

At a social gathering, the conversation beeing on Baalam's ass, Gus de Smith remarked—"I beleive that animals can talk. I am sure that, even nowadays, asses talk just like Baalam's ass did." "So I hear said old Judge Peterby.

ALL through the Provinces, the rapid increase of La Grippe is causing great alarm. A report was received here to-day, of a new developement of the disease, which perhaps than any other.

In Cape Breton the disease has spread very rapidly and with fatal results. D. J. McKillop, of L'Archeveque, writes, Feb. 11th, that the medicine referred to has been tried in that district, and with such success that all those residing in the neighborhood are obtaining a supply, believing it to be the only remedy affording relief and effecting a certain cure. He finished his letter by asking for a large quantity of the medicine, viz: Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, to supply the demands of the community for the relief of la grippe.

How to Drink a Farm.

Bob Burdette gives this simple recipe: "My homeless friend with a chromatic nose, while you are stirring up the sugar in a ten-cent glass of gin, let me give you a fact to wash down with it. You may say you have longed for years for the free, independent life of the farmer, but have never been able to get money enough together to buy a farm. But that is just where you are mistaken. For some years you have been drinking a good, improved farm at the rate of a hundred square feet a gulp. If you doubt this statement figure it out yourself. An acre of land contains 43,560 square feet. Estimating for convenience the land at $43.56 an acre you will see that it brings the land to just one mill per square foot, one cent for 10 square feet. Now pour down the fiery dose and imagine you are swollowing a strawberry patch. Call in five of your friends and have them help you gulp down that 500-foot garden. Get on a prolonged spree some day and see how long it requires to swallow a pasture land to feed a cow. Put down that glass of gin; there is dirt in it—one hundred feet of good, rich dirt, worth $43.56 per acre."

THE German government, with its immense army, which acts like a machine, and which would, probably, at the word of command, act as promptly, though not as heartily, against German citizens as against foreign bodies, will make a great mistake if it suppresses open associations, meetings and proceedings on the part of the Socialists and Anarchists, whom it can crush easily so long as they can be got at collectively. It is assassinations and other crimes by desperate individuals that a great and irresistible government has to fear, and to disperse associations and ban and silence them is the method best calculated to promote secret societies and assassinations. If the Socialists are allowed to blow off steam in public they may do some good, and will probably do but little harm.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 25, 1890.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first, only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. P. ATWELL.
