SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

A Terrible Accident.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 26. A frightful accident happened at Carnegie's Edgar Thomas Steel Works, at Braddock, to-night. Captain W. R. Jones, general manager, and a number of workmen were working near the base of one of the largest blast furnaces when it gave way at the bottom. Tons of melted metal ran out. Captain Jones was horribly burned and Michael Quinn was so badly burned that the flesh peeled off with his clothes. He can only live a few hours. Two men were badly burned, not fatally, and three workmen seriously. Michael King, a Hungarian present when the setting mass poured out, cannot be found, and it is feared he is covered up.

Ministers to Speak in Nova Scotia.

OTTAWA, Sept. 26. Sir John Thompson and Hon. Mr. Tupper will leave on Monday for Nova Scotia, having accepted an invitation to attend the opening of the exhibition at New Glasgow on Wednesday next. It is probable they will visit the western towns of Nova Scotia before they return, having received urgent invitations to do so, to which they have hitherto, from pressure of business, been unable to accede.

KINGSTON, Ont., Sept. 26. Prof. S. W. Dyke, M.A., late of New Brunswick, has been appointed Professor of Mental Philosophy in Queen's University, and the Rev. Jno. McNaughton, M.A., of Scotland, takes the chair of Greek. Both are distinguished young men. The building of the John Caruthers Science Hall, has been deferred because of the highness of the tenders submitted.

Personal.

A wealthy gentleman named Goldschmidt, who died in Vienna not long ago, in his will left the whole of his property to a person whom he had seen every day for years. This was a young lady who lived directly opposite his own lodgings. Of this young lady the old gentleman knew nothing whatever except her name and the grateful fact that for several years, as he had passed to and fro, she had greeted his coming and going with a pleasant friendly smile. He was very lonely in his elderly bachelorhood, and the daily smile cheered and made him grateful. No tie, indeed, seems to have bound him to any human being except to this fair damsel who thus silently brightened his solitude.

LARGE MEETING IN ZION CHURCH—EXCELLENT SPEECHES.

The delegates attending the annual meeting of the W. F. M. S. must have been gratified at the interest manifested by our citizens in their work, as evinced by the attendance in the Zion Church last evening. The large audience was thoroughly representative of the different Protestant churches in our city.

After devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. Mr. Sutherland, of Richmond, Halifax, and Rev. D. B. McLeod, of Orwell, Rev. W. P. Archibald, of Cavendish, addressed the meeting upon the need of the hour. He referred to the glorious history of the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with foreign mission work in the past, showed the awful state of the heathen world, and, bringing face to face the immense work and the inadequate means at the disposal of the Church, emphasized the indispensable need of the presence and power of the Holy Ghost, and the consecration of Christian wealth to the service of Christ.

Rev. E. Smith, of Stewiacke, Nova Scotia, the delegate of the Foreign Mission Board, thanked the ladies for their untiring efforts in behalf of missions, and the valuable assistance they had given to the Board financially. He dwelt upon the mighty power of woman for either good or evil and referred to the fact that while men had formed societies for the promotion of infidelity and for many unworthy and debasing purposes, not a single society had been formed by women which had not a high and worthy object in view.

Rev. Mr. Morton (who is now here on furlough from the mission field of Trinidad, where he has been working for twenty-two years) spoke of the work there as emphatically foreign mission work. Sixty thousand East Indian laborers are employed in Trinidad alone, and nearly two hundred thousand in the British West Indies. These bring with them their language and heathenism; and his work and that of his fellow-laborers was to bring them to Christ. They have mastered their language, and their work is identical with that of our missionaries in Central India. Mr. Morton spoke of their success in gathering the old, and especially of their work among the young. Two thousand children are receiving instruction in their schools; and so thoroughly is the work appreciated that the Government of Trinidad has subsidized them generously. This year they expect about $6,000 from that source. The planters contribute liberally for the same object, while the converted coolies contribute at the rate of about $5 per communicant, putting to shame many of our home churches. Mr. Morton believes that the time has come to thoroughly overtake the work, and is urging the Church to send out two more missionaries, so that he and one of his colleagues (Mr. Grant) may be enabled to give more attention to training a native ministry. There are already two ordained Hindoos there, a third almost ready for ordination, and a very hopeful class of young men in training. He pointed out that their work was a means of evangelizing India, that these coolies returned home in considerable numbers after their indentures had expired, and that they thus carried the Gospel to their countrymen. In many cases they were able to trace their career, and discover valuable results in India from work in Trinidad.

Perhaps the address of the evening was that given by Mrs. Morton. It is impossible in the limits of a newspaper report to give an idea of the information she conveyed, as to work both among men and women in Trinidad, the difficulties in the work, and side by side with them, the encouragement and the manifest blessing of God upon their labors. Running through the address there was a vein of humor, and, at the same time deep pathos, and, at the close of the address, every one present felt thoroughly convinced that even though, as one speaker expressed it, the wives of missionaries did not appear upon the roll of the Church's staff, they should certainly be counted as one missionary each, and in the case of such women as Mrs. Morton, some of us would say, as two at the very least.

The report of the W. F. M. S. shows steady and marked progress, the membership being now about 4,000, and the receipts for the current year will exceed $6,000.

Go to the Lyceum to-night.

ABOUT MACKEREL.—Mackerel command a heavy price. Some were sold a day or two ago for $18 a barrel, taken out of the puncheon where they were salted. One hundred barrels of mackerel to-day would bring $500. It was not an usual thing thirty years ago to see almost that quantity heaped up on some of the city slips where they were landed by the fishermen, all fresh and sparkling, sold at 4d. a dozen. The difference to-day is that the smallest of the 19 alluded to would not be sold for less than 7s., or 12s. for the one fish.—Halifax Recorder.

THE CIRCUIT RACES.—As there will likely be a very great gathering of strangers in Charlottetown to witness the races to be held on the Charlottetown Driving Park, on the 2nd and 3rd of October next, it is improbable that the hotels can furnish sufficient accommodation to visitors. Owners of private boarding houses and private houses, who wish to take lodgers during that time, will oblige by sending in their names and addresses to the Secretary—A. B. Warburton—on or before Monday evening, the 30th inst., so that visitors seeking lodgings may be directed to them.

THE VOTERS' LISTS.—The supplementary voters' lists for the Island have been forwarded from Ottawa to Reviving Officer Alley, and they will be distributed and posted up at once. We understand that the lists were revised by Mr. W. C. DesBrisay, after the proof-readers had gone over them, and that he did his work carefully and well.

WELL WORTH SEEING.—One of the prettiest pieces of penmanship we have seen for some time is on exhibition in the show window of Newson's furniture store. It is in the shape of a family record. The design is original, and the work well done. Mr. William Hogan, son of M. P. Hogan, Esq., is the artist. The framing, which was done in Mr. Newson's establishment, is also very pretty. The outer frame is of antique oak, nicely ornamented, and the lining is of steel. The whole makes an attractive picture—one well worth calling to see.

DEMING, New Mexico, Sept. 25.—The miners, mine owners and business men of the city, irrespective of party, have adopted resolutions urging the free importation of lead ores from Mexico, declaring the tariff will cripple the smelting enterprises and drive Mexico to retaliation.
