

Canadian Family Is Reported In Stanleyville

OTTAWA (CP)—A Canadian family of seven is in Stanleyville, the Congo city reported to have fallen to rebel forces. External Affairs Minister Martin told the Commons Wednesday.

However, Professor Melvin J. Loewen, his wife and five children had not been harmed, according to latest information available from the Canadian embassy in Leopoldville.

Mr. Martin said the Loewens are the only Canadians known to have remained in Stanleyville. They had turned down an opportunity for air evacuation Sunday and Monday.

Prof. Loewen is dean of the Stanleyville University. Opponent Leader Dietschaker asked whether the UN was considering another Congo peace force.

Mr. Martin said no such consideration is being made.

Yugoslavia Wheat Sale Outlook Good

OTTAWA (CP)—Another potential Canadian wheat market in Eastern Europe this year opened up Wednesday with reports of a Yugoslav crop failure.

Trade department representatives in Vienna were reported to be consulting officials in Belgrade over sales prospects, which appeared here to be good.

Yugoslavia has never been a regular market for Canadian wheat.

However, last year it purchased about 3,500,000 bushels from Canada. Previous purchases were made in 1953 and 1954.

Normally Yugoslavia buys from Canada on roughly the same terms as members of the Communist bloc—10 per cent down with the balance in either 1% or three years.

Canada already has longterm wheat agreements covering a five-year supply to Czechoslovakia and three years' of sales to Russia, Bulgaria, Poland, East Germany and Hungary as well as Red China.

Reports here indicated that the Yugoslav wheat harvest this year may be sharply lower
