The United Baptist Church, Long Creek was the scene of an autumn wedding on Saturday, October 2, 1954, at 3:30 p.m., when Reverend Owen Cochrane united in marriage Arlene Rosalind, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne MacEachern, Long Creek, and Chesley Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell MacDougall, Fairview.

Bouquets of red and yellow roses and autumn flowers provided a beautiful setting for the ceremony.

Mrs. Hector Currie, New Dominion, played the wedding march and also accompanied Miss Eleanor Carson, Bonshaw, who sang "O Perfect Love," and "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white pleated nylon tulle over satin, with bouffant skirt of Chantilly lace. Her lace bolero was styled with long tapering sleeves and a Peter Pan Collar embroidered with pearls. Her finger-veil was of nylon illusion. She carried a bouquet of red carnations.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Velma, as maid of honor, and Kathleen as bridesmaid. They wore similar gowns of nylon net over taffeta in contrasting colors of blue and yellow, with matching boleros and mitts, and headresses of nylon tulle. Each carried a basket of autumn flowers.

Legion Of Mary "Acies" Ceremony

On Sunday, October 24, at 7 p.m. the active and auxiliary members of the Legion of Mary and their friends assembled in St. Joseph's Convent Chapel for the "Acies," which is the great central annual function of the Legion. Those taking part in the ceremony were the active members of Our Lady, Queen of Peace Praesidium of the Basilica Parish.

Legion Of Mary "Acies" Ceremony

The proceedings commenced with the hymn "Thee Have I Chosen," followed by the Rosary and opening prayers of the Legion, after which Right Rev. Monsignor McMahon delivered an impressive and inspiring sermon.

Monsignor McMahon spoke on the prerogatives of the Virgin Mary, all-given to her in prevision of the Divine Maternity. He spoke, in particular, of the prerogative of her Immaculate Conception and of the Assumption of her body into heaven after her death. He recalled her apparitions on earth during the last Century—and, particularly, those at Lourdes and Fatima, and the messages she brought of prayer and penance for mankind if the hand of her Son was not to fall heavily again upon the world.

He extolled the work of prayer and charity being done by the Legion of Mary, and exhorted the members to even greater efforts in consoling the afflicted and bringing souls back to Jesus through Mary.

Following the renewal of the Act of Consecration to the Mother of God, by the active members, solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given by Monsignor McMahon, assisted by Rev. F. Corcoran and Rev. R. Phalen.

The solemn ceremony was brought to a close by the singing of "O, Mother, Will It Always Be," by the Sisters Choir of St. Joseph's Convent.
