

To the Electors of the Southern Division of Queen's County.

"Be brave then; for your Captain is brave, and vows reformation; there shall be in England, seven half-penny loaves sold for a penny: the three-hooped pot shall have ten hoops; and I will make it felony to drink small beer: all the realm shall be in common."—HENRY VI.

GENTLEMEN,
The circumstance alone of my being an Elector for your District, and of having used my franchise at your last election, I would by no means offer as giving me a claim to address you thus publicly, did I not consider myself called on to refute a statement made, most unexpectedly to me, by Charles Young, Esq., in a speech communicated to and reported in the Colonial Herald, of Saturday last, as having been delivered by him to "a large number" of the Electors of your District, at Pinette, on Wednesday preceding, by which it appears he has told the Meeting that "the Proprietors had a legal advocate in the House of Assembly, who was ever ready to protect their interests, and who always spoke and voted against the Tenantry."

Being the only member of the legal profession in the House of Assembly, the statement can apply to none other than myself; and having sufficient reason to believe that Mr. Young, upon the different opportunities he has embraced of appearing before the public during his short residence on the Island, has in most instances been the reporter of his own "sayings and doings" for the newspapers, I may be safe in taking the statement as faithfully reported:—It charges me, gentlemen, with advocating in my legislative capacity, the personal interests of a particular set of individuals to whom I am said to be allied, and leaves you and the public to suppose that I have devoted the honourable trust confided to me, to an unauthorized and unworthy purpose.

If it be a crime, a disgrace, or at the least a disparagement, to be the advocate of such a class of persons as the landed Proprietors of this Island, I stand acquitted of it; I am not, I have never been, nor have I any reason to expect to be, the land agent, nor even (save a solitary instance) the regular law agent or advocate of any Proprietor: and need I say that I am not the representative of a proprietary constituency, or of one swayed or affected in any degree by proprietary influence.

I am charged with always speaking and voting against the Tenantry; ingeniously asserted against the tenantry as individuals having a right or immunity at stake, I deny the charge applied to me: Gentlemen, I trust I may be believed to possess a sufficient "knowledge of the first principles of law, and of the noble and glorious constitution of Great Britain," to respect the prerogative of the Crown, the liberty of the subject, and the rights of property, sacred ever as they have been held by all who recognize and respect that constitution; and whenever my situation or duty calls for an expression of opinion on any measure or project which I consider calculated with a hardened and profligate disregard to every impulse of reason and tie of common honesty, for a purpose destructive of the enjoyment of man's right, whether it consists in the lands of his estate, the personal property he may possess, or the character he may maintain in society, and whether that expression of opinion may become necessary in the House of Assembly or out of it, I shall give it as freely as my very limited abilities will enable me, wholly indifferent, although by no means insensible to the advantages it may afford to artful persons, several although there may be, who find it their interest to represent the part I take as the advocacy of the Proprietors, or as opposition to the Tenantry.

Gentlemen, it is not the Tenantry I oppose; it is the conduct of those persons who offer such vain and chimerical propositions, who make such absurd and outrageous demands in their behalf; conduct which has destroyed that cause, or those claims which, under the management of moderate men, would by this time, in all probability, have been productive of some melioration to those whose cases really entitle them to consideration; it is this that I oppose, conduct which has aroused the Proprietors to a keen sense of their interests; which has now procured for them the determined support of a Government, otherwise well inclined to have entertained any reasonable measure on behalf of the Tenantry; conduct which has indeed been fatal to their cause, and has rendered their condition infinitely worse, and their chances less than ever.

Mr. Young's professions and pledges, gentlemen, I do not deem it necessary to comment on, although he has left it quite open to me, if he has not indeed called on me to do so; but I cannot well avoid reminding you of his connection with the agency of the famous Land Company, which his brother, George R. Young, Esq., of Halifax, a short time ago, in junction with Mr. Cunard, was making so many efforts, both in England and here, to establish among the Proprietors of this Colony. Mr. Charles Young I always considered fully coincided with his brother's views of the merits of the case between the Proprietors and the Tenantry, and he settled in this Colony as the sub-agent of the company for the purpose of carrying into operation their plans, and giving effect to the terms of indulgence offered the Tenantry through the medium of his brother, as published in his pamphlet distributed in this Island. These terms the House of Assembly a few weeks ago pronounced as "not calculated to afford relief to the Tenantry, but to empower the lessor, with more ease and facility, to deprive and dispossess the cultivator of his improvements."

Although Mr. C. Young was engaged professionally in the Supreme Court for some of the tenantry, still I supposed his political principles continued the same, until I witnessed the sudden and wonderful metamorphosis they had undergone since Mr. Arbuttle's seat was declared vacant. And, Gentlemen, although he has told you "his principles are too firmly fixed to waver," if he becomes a member of the Assembly, and succeeds in imparting to the majority of the House (who strange to say, he tells you have invited him there) "a knowledge of the first principles of law, and of the noble and glorious constitution of Great Britain when ever (Query) they should require it," and always act consistently with that knowledge, I doubt much whether you will find him such a faithful advocate of the cause he has so "fervently espoused" on your behalf; and I would have you not to be surprised at observing him, after a short time, numbered on the same side of the House as I, whom he has charged with always speaking and voting against the Tenantry.

I am, Gentlemen, your humble servt.
EDWARD PALMER.

CAUTION.

To the Editor of the Colonial Herald.

SIR—Having seen in the Colonial Herald of the 20th inst. the Advertisement of the Assignees of the late Henry Winchester, Esq., offering for Sale 18,000 Acres of Land, on Lot or Township No. 54, allow me, through the medium of your paper, to say, that the late Henry Winchester, Esq. had no property on Township No. 54, nor had he ever the actual possession. Actions of Trespass and Ejectment were brought against me, it is true, but what was done in those actions I have not been able to ascertain.—Suffice it to say that after many years' prosecution, I was not able to get one witness brought forward—this is a case of real grievance, and ought to be looked into.

I find on referring to the provision of the Statute of 32 Henry 8, cap 9, that no one shall sell or purchase any pretended right or title to land, unless the vendor hath received the profits for one whole year before such grant; or hath been in the actual possession of the land, or of the reversion or remainder, upon pain that both the purchaser and vendor shall each forfeit the value of such land to the King and the prosecutor.
