ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Nathaniel DeCoursey is one of the happiest men in Charlottetown to-day. Last evening he was united in marriage to Mrs. Jane Bowen, of Halifax, at his residence, Trilby Avenue, and his happiness is thus explained.

The bride looked stunning. In her hands it said she wore a wreath of flowers, more or less brilliant in color and in her white-gaunleted hand she carried the conventional bouquet. On her breast wore a snow-white handkerchief. Her dress was a gown.

DeCoursey was dressed to kill, and looked even more prepossessing than usual. His hands were encased in snow-white gloves, and over his head he wore a chrysanthemum. The rest of his was in the most appropriate manner. He received the congratulations of his friends and acquaintances in a most becoming manner.

The groom was ably supported throughout the ceremony by Mr. Robert Shephard, and Miss Kate Shephard was bridesmaid. Both wore their best clothes, and it goes without saying that they looked well.

The popularity of the happy couple was attested by a large number of delightfully appropriate presents they received. Among the number may be mentioned a goose, cooked à la mode; a moustache cup and several other articles of utility in wooden and crockery ware.

A large number of friends and acquaintances of the contracting parties—including several of the city's defenders—were more or less in evidence at the ceremony, and words of congratulation were heard on all sides.

OPEN LETTER. To the Citizens of Charlottetown: I have to heartily thank you for your kind consideration that you bestowed to me to help me to prepare a new home in life on this earth. May God bless you and I give you all the thanks that I can imagine for your assistance. I hope the citizens will remember me and let me on my part strive that I may get my daily bread by the sweat of my brow. Thanking you again for your kindness.

NATHANIEL DE COURSEY. Cl'town, Dec. 6, 1895.

THEY BELIEVE IN IT.—The recognition of advertising as a great factor in business success is now a matter of course. The advt. of Geo. Carter & Co. on our first page to-day is evidence of the fact that this firm understands and practices the best means of drawing people to their fine establishment. Their advertisement will be found of use in settling the trouble once present of "what to get for a Christmas present." Out of the exceedingly large stock which Carter & Co. have on display it is possible to get presents for all sorts and conditions of people, and to suit large and small purses.

AN INVOLUNTARY BATH.—Yesterday, at Mr. George Bayte, of Wallace, N. S., was boarding a schooner at one of the wharves he slipped and fell between the vessel and the wharf. In falling he caught hold of the fence-rope, and thus kept himself from getting below the water in the water. After an ineffectual attempt to pull himself up hand over hand, Mr. Bayte was rescued by some of the schooner's crew, not much the worse for his involuntary bath.

DEY THYSELF.—To-morrow is the last day of self-denial week, so you are reminded to give good donations to Captain Newell when she calls on you. If any friends are missed that feel their duty is to give, please leave it at their "Home," S. A. Barracks, Great George Street.

REV. MR. GRUBB'S LECTURE.—We regret that a notice sent to and inserted in THE EXAMINER yesterday misled a number of persons last evening. The lecture will be delivered in St. Paul's Schoolroom this (Friday) evening.

There is something solid about a 20 per cent. discount off Furniture. There is no question about short wool, half cotton, poor dye, old patterns, of colors, etc. The goods are right before your eyes, and tell their own story. Removal sale prices now at Mark Wright & Co's.

Our Xmas Sachet Powder is moving off. Folks found it so good last year that they are coming for it again this season. That's a good recommendation. Come and get any quantity you want, from 5 cents to $5.00, if you buy that way.

The lady from the country who selected a $27.50 Bedroom Suite in our store yesterday when told that the removal sale price was $22.00, or 20 per cent. off for cash. She didn't know we were going to move—said she would be in again before Xmas with a pocket full of money. DON'T miss your chance.

GENTLEMEN!

It matters not what you are accustomed to paying, or what you have been used to paying for your

for it is a well known fact that every article purchased in our Gent's Furnishing Department is money saved.

Take, for instance, Collars, Cuffs and Shirts. We sell the best quality Linen Collars, one dozen different styles, at the exceptional low price of 15c. each or $1.75 per dozen, and the best quality 5-ply Cuffs at 22c. a pair or $2.20 per half dozen pair.

We have a White Shirt at $1.10—can't be bought elsewhere less than $1.45—and good enough for a king.

When you don't care what you pay, but we have no interest in it. It is to your own interest to look us up for low prices on Underwear. We have all grades, but we have a stunner in a fine Swedish all-wool Suit at $1.30, worth $2, and then we call your attention to our winter lined Gloves. Selling the best Kid lined Gloves at these ridiculous prices, 75c for gloves worth $1, and 58c. for extra quality, worth $1.25, or Buck lined and other best makes at prices like $1.09, that we ought to get $1.45 for.

WEEKS' REASON FOR SELLING SO CHEAP is we want to keep all hands busy and sell stacks of goods. Nearly everything that comes into the People's Store is direct from the manufacturers, bought for cash.

We have an IMMENSE LADIES' TRIMME, and although the ladies do lots of buying for the gentlemen, we are also the gentlemen that buy their own furnishings. Now compare these low prices with what you have paid before, or drop in and we will be pleased to show you the goods.

UNION EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

THURSDAY EVENING.

The congregation was not quite as large as at some meetings, but a goodly number were present in the very enthusiastic service of last night. The Rev. Siles James led in prayer, after which the Crossley sang "The Sweetly Solenn Thought" with much beauty and expression.

Mr. Hunter commented on Luke xv.—"He divided unto them his living." A most foolish thing for a father to do. If you would spoil you boy for both worlds give him lots of money. Give your boy lots of money and in a fast horse, and in a few days his money will be gone. Throw your boy out on the world with $25,000 round his neck, and he will soon sink to destruction. When you settle down you had to blame your road through the woods, and a hard time you had to get what you had; but you have got it honestly, and God bless you in its enjoyment. Is your boy such a ninny he cannot do it? He will as his father does. I like that. He had to come, and so you must come to the Father. And tonight in your heart is some ray of hope.

He was a great way off, but his Father said, "Yes, the Father is looking for a man that looks like the walk of John, but it is not like his dress. He saw him a great way off, eyes of mercy, and ran to meet him, feet of mercy, and threw his arms around him, arms of mercy, and kissed him, kiss of mercy. Jesus will meet you more than half way. Had compassion, how like Jesus. Father I have sinned. Never mind my boy, I have forgiven you. I wonder, dear Jesus, if it is too much trouble to ask Thee to have compassion on that poor sinner in yonder pew. May God help you to come, and He will meet you to-night."

Mr. Crossley spoke on Cr. viii. 20—"Not Saved"—and said this was the text God used to lead Him to decision for Christ.

1. So many are converted and you still sin, your friends saved and you unsaved. Your father and mother saved and you out of Chr. st. What is the unsaved state? To be in sin, guilt and condemnation, rebels against God. Unless reconciled to God you must be rebels. No other place for you. Only two things required for salvation—embrace Jesus and a few minutes reflection. Just think what it means. Unto live, unto die, unto it even life or death.

2. So many loved ones unsaved and we unconcerned. Do we believe? We may, but we do not feel the awful responsibility resting on us. We do not get anxious about our loved ones until they reach the age of eighteen. Then when well on the way to sin we become alarmed. But we do not get anxious about those who are twelve to fourteen years of age. More will get saved if we get more anxious.

In some of us Christians there is no more feeling of anxiety than in a post. Luther was struck by the sudden death by lightning of a fire coal at his side, but don't wait for some catastrophic sudden trouble before you get alarmed. You say when we ask if you are a Christian, "well I'm not a heathen." It's a pity, perhaps, not the worst people in the world. Many of the "heathen Chinese" and those of Central Africa will rise up in judgment against you who are blessed with such great privileges as you are in these services.

3. You believe in the reality and necessity of religion and yet not saved. Perhaps you have not seen the distinction between doubt and a temptation to doubt. You are too intelligent to be Atheists. You ought to have as much sense as other mortals.

4. So much done to bring about your salvation, and yet unsaved. I have not time to deal with this thought, but you know the old old story "think of it and remember what it cost to save you."

5. So many mercies and privileges and yet not saved. Luke xiii.—the barren fig tree teaches us there is a time when a good tree sees a soil incorrigible another year then cut it down. God counts all the mercies you receive. Before he cuts you
