NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — A jumbled and confused stock market floundered ahead Tuesday through the third straight day of a rally. Volume topped 4,000,000 shares.

A strong recovery by the battered and neglected oils, sharp profit-taking in the high-flying space-age stocks and huge gains by American Motors and Studebaker-Packard were features.

Most of the major steels, motors and rails declined. Coppers and many chemicals advanced. Aircrafts fell. The market was as mixed-up as the forecasts for the economy.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 90 cents to $223.60.

On the Canadian list, Granby Mining gained ½, Hudson Bay Mining 2½, McIntyre Porcupine 1½, and Aluminium Ltd., Canadian Pacific and Walker Gooderham ⅛ each. International Nickel lost ⅛.

American Stock Exchange prices rose on volume of 1,330,000 shares. Among the Canadians Shawinigan lost ⅛. Fargo Oil gained ⅜ and Jupiter Oils ⅛.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Stock Exchange prices swung higher in heavier trading Tuesday

Western oils and mines started upward early in the session with some smart gains sprinkled through their lists. At the close the oil index was up two points, and base metals more than 1¾. Golds failed to follow the trend, however, and closed with a small index loss.

In the mining list, Hudson Bay jumped 1⅛ at 50 and McIntyre added 1¾ at 82¾ in senior golds. Other seniors moved up fractionally. Coppers showed some strength, led by Campbell Chibougamau, up 40 cents to $7.10

Western oils were led higher by Pacific Pete's one-point rise to 12⅜ in active trading. Other issues climbed fractionally in the higher-priced list and in a 15-cent range among juniors.

Index changes: golds off .31 to 87.30; base metals up 1.87 to 168.83; western oils up 2.03 to 102.76.
