Pedestrian Has The Last Laugh

TORONTO (CP)—A driver who "enjoyed a hearty laugh" when he nearly knocked over a pedestrian, then punched the pedestrian in the face when he started to write down the car licence number, was fined $100 for assault Tuesday.

Alexander Broda told police that Carlo Bigelli, 20, nearly struck him with his car Jan. 30. He said Bigelli laughed about it until Broda started to take down the number. Bigelli got out of the car and punched him in the nose, Broda said.

NOT COMPULSORY

LONDON (CP) — A suggestion that reflector studs be made compulsory on dogs' collars, as a traffic safety measure, has been turned down by the government.

Lack Of Funds Closes Schools In Maine Town

ST. AGATHA, Me. (AP)—This little Aroostook county potato town ordered its public schools closed Monday because there isn't enough money in the town treasury to pay teachers.

"Our teachers haven't been paid for 15 weeks and we decided we just couldn't go on without funds," said school superintendent Galen I. Veayo.

Veayo said a poor potato season—a large part of last season's crop was damaged—has drastically reduced the amount of tax collections. He said town officials "are making every effort to collect more taxes but as of now, the chances for our reopening classes soon are quite remote."

The superintendent said the 17 teachers "have been wonderful about the situation but they're just like everyone else—they can't afford to go on working for nothing."

The town has a population of 1,300. The schools, which have 430 pupils, consume 62 per cent of the annual budget.

Out Of Work Now Himself

LONDON (AP)—Jehoida Augustus McPherson — who dined with the Queen 15 months ago — showed up at an employment office today looking for a job.

McPherson is a 55-year-old Jamaican and until a month ago he was that country's labor minister with an annual salary of £2,000.

When the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh visited Jamaica in November 1953, McPherson shook hands, posed for pictures and dined with them.

Then in January the Bustamante government, of which he was a members, met defeat at the elections and McPherson was no longer a minister. Three weeks ago, with 67 other Jamaicans, he bought a migrant's air line ticket and flew to Britain.

In the boarding house where he is living, the former minister of labor philosophically discussed his personal situation.

"I suppose being chucked out of your job is one of the perils of politics."

Can Double Paper Output

NEW YORK (AP) — On the basis of forestry programs now being initiated in the United States and Canada, output of paper and pulp can be doubled during the next decade, R. W. Tinker, executive secretary of the American Paper and Pulp Association, said Tuesday.

Tinker told the association's annual convention here that world demand for U.S. paper and pulp "will become insatiable."

"Limitations on our expansion will be the availability of a perpetual supply of pulpwood which, fortunately, is a renewable product," Tinker added.

E. G. Amos, chairman of the association's industrial relations committee, said that about 20.7 per cent of the industry's yearly labor costs go into fringe benefits. Amos said over-all cost per employee averaged $4,616 last year.

ATTEND CHURCH MEET

TORONTO (CP)—Nearly 200 religious education workers in the United Church of Canada will attend the 23rd international Sunday school convention in Cleveland July 27 to 31, the United Chusch said Thursday. Purpose of the convention is to improve the work of Sunday school workers and other leaders of religious education groups.
