

NOTICE!

IN ORDER, under the new Railway timetable, to give our readers in Souris, Georgetown, Summerside, etc., the latest news up to the time of the departure of the trains, we shall make a slight change in the arrangement of matter. In future the local news up to one o'clock of each day, the telegraphic dispatches, weather probabilities, police pencillings etc., will be found on the first or last page. Local news, etc., subsequent to one o'clock, will be found on the "inside" as usual. By this arrangement town, train and city readers will get the latest news it is possible to give them.

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

DECEMBER 5, 1879.

VANDALS.

THIS city has nurtured a lot of vandals who now nightly prey upon the goods of its citizens, and commit all sorts of petty criminal acts. The police have no terrors for them; they laugh at the idea of being sent to jail. They seem to be getting bolder and more numerous every day. What's to be done? If two or three were hanged and a few dozen well whipped, they might, perhaps, be deterred. And we think that it would be well to give the Stipendiary Magistrate power to inflict corporal punishment in certain cases. A good sound whipping—either in public or private—would, we think, do the most of the vandals good, and exert a deterrent influence over the others. Then we do want A Reformatory.

The Clergy and Sir John A. McDonald.

SIR JOHN has many warm friends among the Roman Catholic clergy, one of whom responded as follows to the invitation to be present at the Ottawa Banquet on Thursday last:—

GENTLEMEN OF THE COMMITTEE.—Allow me to thank you very sincerely for your invitation to the above banquet, and to express my exceeding regret at my inability to attend. Circumstances over which I have no control prevent it. Let me say, however, as a priest of the Diocese of Kingston—the mother See of Ontario, and also the fruitful mother of Conservative bishops and Conservative priests—that I should esteem it an honor to be present on the interesting occasion. The country owes a vast debt of gratitude to the Right Hon. Sir John A. McDonald—all clarum et venerabile nomen—and it should be our patriotic wish as Canadians that no Marius may ever sit amid the ruins of a country which the consummate ability of Sir John has tended so much to build up and consolidate. A statesman that any nation under the sun might well feel proud of, he has shed a halo of glory around this "Canada of ours," and its institutions. With the intuition of genius, he beheld, as it were, in rapt vision, the future greatness of our youthful nation among the nations of the earth, and with the god-like energy of genius he entered, and has continued to this day, upon the task allotted to him. Well and nobly has he succeeded, triumphing by his powers of mind, "which to him, indeed, a kingdom is," over almost insuperable obstacles. His distinguished, dazzling career, as "Canada's first and greatest statesman," is his best eulogy. Submitting that career to the most approved canons of criticism, can we forbear to proudly proclaim that the right honorable gentleman has, indeed, succeeded in erecting a monument perennius aere. Standing around the monument, and gazing upon its pyramidal dimensions, let us hush the voices pregnant with the solemn utterance: Word are the daughters of earth; things are the sons of heaven. Standing around that monument vowed to genius, let us with one accord cry out: Sir John McDonald found Canada "a skeleton, and clothed it with life, color and complexion; he embraced the cold statue, and by his touch it grew into youth, health and beauty." Standing around that monument, and gratefully recalling the recent legislation which rescued Canada from a language of decay, let peans of praise burst forth, for "He smote the rock of the national resources and abundant streams of revenue gushed forth. He touched the dead form of public credit and it sprang upon its feet." Standing around that monument in view of the benefits innumerable conferred by Sir John upon our common country, let us record "right solemnly" Canada's vow for Canada's most illustrious son vivat in aeternum. In spirit I will pledge at your banquet on Thursday: The Right Hon. Sir John McDonald, veteran juriconsult and statesman par excellence—may his tenure of office be commensurate with life, and may a life so precious be prolonged ad multos annos.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Yours very sincerely,

WM. J. KELLEY, P.E.

(Formerly Chaplain under Bishop Horan, of Kingston Penitentiary, and now Priest of Ennismore, in the County of Peterborough.)

SWISS WANTING TO COME TO CANADA.—A Geneva cablegram of the 3rd says:—A short time ago the Canadian Government placed at the disposal of the Swiss Federal Council $1,500 to defray the expenses of any exports whom they might recommend to report on the suitability of Canada for Swiss emigrants. Grutli Veroin, an important trades union, offers to send a deputation of workmen to Canada. The proposal will probably be referred by the Federal Council to the Canadian Government.

THE workmen's social in Ottawa is reported a great success. The attendance was much larger than was anticipated, while the enthusiasm that prevailed indicated the unmistakable confidence of the working classes in the present Government.

Official Recognition of Services.

CAPT. JOHN HUGHES, of the schooner Rising Dawn, received from Ottawa on Thursday morning, a pair of binnacle glasses, accompanied by the following letter, which speaks for itself:—

OTTAWA,
23 November, 1879.

SIR,—The circumstances connected with the wreck of the schooner "Lassie," of Charlottetown, and the services rendered by you as master of the "Rising Dawn," having been brought under the notice of the Department, it affords me much satisfaction to convey to you the thanks of the Government of Canada for your services, and to request your acceptance of the accompanying binocular glass, which has been awarded in recognition of your services.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

JAMES C. POPE,
Minister of Marine.

CAPT JOHN HUGHES,
Master of the schr. "Rising Dawn,"
Charlottetown, P. E. I.

PENNY READINGS.—The first (for this season) of these pleasing sociable entertainments, in connection with St. Peter's School, took place on Thursday evening. Some of those who in years past helped to make the Readings interesting and refreshing are "far away." But their place has, in part at least, been supplied, while some of those who remain have improved; and altogether the entertainment of Thursday evening was well up to the mark. The music, both vocal and instrumental was very good. Miss Palmer's song was in fuller tone and clearer enunciation than any we have heard her sing. It was quite delightful to hear Mrs. Strickland again; and the fine voice of Mrs. McNab was heard to advantage in her rendition of "The Chorister." An instrumental trio, by Messrs. Vinnicombe, Wilson and Watson, and an instrumental duet by Messrs. Vinnicombe and Watson were both fine. The readings were sufficiently comic and shocking. Miss Smith's was very fine. The following is the programme rendered:—

1. Chorus, "Defence not Defiance"—Boys of St. Peter's School.

2. Reading, "An Exposition of 'Old Mother Hubbard'"—Mr. E. J. Hodgson.

3. Song, "Hark! the Lark"—Miss Palmer.

4. Reading, "How Peter Gained his Suit"—Mr. Morson.

5. Song, "Milkmaid's Song"—Mrs. Strickland.

6. Reading, "The Black Cat"—Rev. G. W. Hodgson.

INTERVAL.

7. Instrumental Trio, "Meditation" by Bach—Messrs. Vinnicombe, Wilson, and Watson.

8. Recitation, "King Robert of Sicily"—Miss Smith.

9. Song, "The Chorister"—Mrs. McNab.

10. Reading, "The Siamese Twins"—Mr. J. E. Haszard.

11. Recitation, "The Vagabonds"—Rev. R. D. Bambrick.

12. Instrumental Duet, Fantasia on "Le Pirate"—Messrs Vinnicombe and Watson.

CONSIDERABLE apprehension exists among managers of coal mines in Nova Scotia about the threatened demand for an advance of wages by men. Lately, Mr. Henry Poole, manager of the Acadia Colliery, requested an interview with a number of his men representing the workers on various sections of the mines. Mr. Poole stated that he had called them together as it had been reported that it was the intention of the miners to ask an increase of wages in the spring, whether the price of coal went up or not. In reply the men stated it was no part of the programme of the association with which they were connected to take any undue advantage of their employers. Mr. Poole stated that it might be possible for him to make contracts, but he was uncertain what he should do until coming to an understanding with the men. The men replied that their demands would never be unreasonable and an advance in wages would only be asked for after a rise in the price of coal. After a further interchange of views, Mr. Poole said he was satisfied and informed the men that should coal go up to 25 or 30 cents per ton he would be the first to advocate an advance of wages.

MR. PARNELL, M. P., AND HIS TENANTS.—Says the Glasgow News, of Nov. 20.—A Belfast correspondent, telegraphing on Tuesday night, says:—"A letter has to-day been published, stating that a deputation from the tenantry of Mr. Parnell, M. P., waited upon him and were told by that gentleman that he would meet them at the agent's office in Dublin, and that the promised reduction of 15 per cent. would be allowed. When the deputation called at the appointed time at the office, neither Mr. Parnell nor his agent was to be seen; but the clerk gave the deputation to understand that it would be all right, and, accordingly, a telegram to that effect was sent to Armagh. The tenants next day remitted the rents, deducting 15 per cent. The bailiff has since gone round to all the tenants, giving back the cheques, and notifying the tenants that if the rent is not paid, deducting 7½ per cent., by Monday, writs will be served on each non-paying tenant. The tenants have, therefore been compelled to comply with the agent's wishes."

Astonishing Success.

IT is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample Bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all Druggists.
