MONTREAL'S MEANEST MAN.—There was great surprise and indignation in Montreal on Monday, when it was learned that one Thomas Faure, member of the real estate association, had entered an action against the members of the civic finance committee for $10,000, the sum voted and paid for the relief of St. John, Nfld., sufferers.

The returns of Chinese immigration to Vancouver for the month of September show that the amendment law passed last session is having the effect of checking the influx from the Flowery Kingdom. The receipts for the month were only $1,033, compared with $7,426 for September. A very big decrease.

Mr. Campbell, comptroller of the State of New York, makes the announcement that it is free of debt, having in its treasury a sum sufficient to meet all outstanding but unmatred bonds, and a balance over. During the past ten years New York has paid off its public obligations at the rate of a million a year. A people who have to provide for their public services by direct contributions develop a lively antipathy to a public debt and the burdens it implies.

Aberdeen is very proud of its latest statue—that of Robert Burns, unveiled the other day by Prof. Masson, of Edinburgh.

The Burns statue is the work of Mr. Bain Smith, who is making steady progress as a sculptor in London. Mr. Smith is who is usually called a self-made man. Not very long ago he was a stonemason in his native Aberdeen. Excellent judges have given great praise to his latest work, which represent the poet standing reverentially erect, bonnet in hand, asking others to see what he already sees in the "wee, modest crimson-tipped flower."
