NECENT LEGION

ed to Charles Sinclair to call the step. The large delegations were in trouble but with the broad Scotch tones of 'left, right' we went by in perfect step.

Resolutions

"All day, every day, the convention worked on resolutions and reports. Some received more publicity than others. The papers highlighted our deliberations on Kurt Meyer and changing the word conscription to compulsory service.

"As the result of the Korean War we are being supplied with trained battle experienced fighting men who can instruct recruits in a full war developed. But we are sadly lacking in accommodation and equipment to train men.

In all one year before we will have men fit for battle. "We were lucky in the past. We have a year next time? The Legion doubts it. We want the security provided by preparedness. We changed one word in our resolution for a very sound reason. The word conscription has been used as a political football. We removed that word and changed it to compulsory service. You can call a man an anti-conscriptionist, a fairly round phrase, but an anti-compulsory servicist loses its distasteful meaning in its length. Like Henry Ford, we've made a lady out of Lizzie. We are most serious in our call for total preparedness we think we're right and I hope you agree.

Legion Leaders

"I would like to speak for a few moments on our new officers. There were many distinguished Canadians among our delegates, General Turner, V.C., the Rev. Ross Flemmington, President of Mount Allison. Dr. Lumsden of Acadia, Clarrie Gillis, M.P., from Cape Breton, General Price, President of Elmhurst Dairies, the Very Rev. Dean Anderson of Winnipeg, Leslie Mutch, M.P., Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Veterans Affairs and many others. We elected Dr. Lumsden, Professor of Bible Studies at Acadia as our President, Dean Anderson as our First Vice. Both clergymen and Baptist, the other Anglican, two of the finest men I have ever had the honour to meet.

"In electing Dr. Lumsden as our President I think the Legion showed its true value and its real worth. A distinguished scholar and churchman, he wears the Military Medal for gallantry as a stretcher bearer in World War I, he also lost his arm. He is not the back slapping hall fellow well met who too often gains high office in many organizations. He is a man who has given years of steady, dogged, sincere and sincere good work to our task. He gave of his talents in drafting the Veterans Charter of World War II, he drafted our brief resulting in the recent pension increase of 33 1-3 per cent. He prepared and is fighting our claims for increase in War Veterans allowances. He would not stoop to seek your vote for himself. He was elected without opposition and in honouring him we honoured ourselves.

A Great Organization

"In speaking to you today I am proud to represent a great Canadian organization. As business men I know you appreciate the good sense of backing a good thing. The Canadian Legion is waging an unceasing battle to win justice for our ex-service men. If we succeed we have not only done our duty to our less fortunate comrades in arms but we are insuring that the Canadian fighting man of the future will receive the protection he deserves. When Canada calls for recruits in the future her just treatment of her war veterans of the past will insure a response to her call that will be answered in full measure.

"This month our local branch is starting a membership drive. I trust we will have the good will and good wishes of this Club and that war veteran Rotarians will do their bit in joining, supporting and taking an active part in our work."

The chairman at yesterday's luncheon was Rotarian Orin Simon with Rotarian Robert Cotton as co-chairman. Guests present were Rotarian H. B. MacLeod of High River, Alberta, and Messrs. Major T. E. MacNutt, Charles Sinclair, and James Walker. Announcement was made of leave of absence for Rotarian George P. Thompson who will shortly leave for England and to Rotarian Frank MacKinnon who will be in other parts of Canada for about a month. A letter was read from Mrs. J. T. Davies thanking the Rotary Club for their donation towards the work of the Canadian Citizenship Council branch in this city. It was announced by Rotarian Darrell MacGuire that Canada's noted orator John Fisher will be here on June 12 and would be glad to speak to Rural Youth Groups. A committee headed by Rotarian Ernest Reid was appointed to look after the details of a public meeting to be addressed by Mr. Fisher in Prince of Wales College auditorium. Reference was made to the coming Rotary District Convention in Digby on June 19 and 20 and Rotarians advised to hand in their reservations without delay to the Club Secretary Graham Rogers. Rotarians Arthur Mould and James Abbott were welcomed back after their recent illnesses, and regret was expressed over the illness of Rotarian James Larabee. Rotarians were also advised to make reservations on the early morning trips of the Wood Islands-Caribou service if they go to Digby via that route.

W. M. S. BIRTHDAY SOCIAL

"Mrs. Andrew Jardine, president of the P. E. I. Presbyterian, was guest speaker at the W.M.S. birthday social on Wednesday, May 28, in the Summerside Presbyterian Hall. She based her remarks on the value of little things reading from St. Mark 12:41, stressing that each should do her part in church work according to the talent given.

She also reported a most encouraging account of the Presbyterian finances and concluded her talk with a lovely poem, entitled "Living the Way We Pray". The president, Mrs. J. S. Perry, opened the meeting with a meditation, "Perfect Peace". Mrs. G. Franklin Cameron, Mrs. Fred Bingham, Mrs. Wm. E. Forbes and Mrs. Emmett
