Pastor Perry F. Rockwood Speaks

Climaxing a ten-day campaign at the Charlottetown Bible Chapel last night was the first appearance of The Peoples Gospel Hour Radio Team from Hubbards, N.S.

A good congregation was present to enjoy the musical ministry of Stella Jarema and Beryl Grant, both widely known throughout the nation for their broadcast ministry. Pastor Perry F. Rockwood brought his first message on the theme: "What is a Christian?" "This is one of the most important questions for our answer determines our whole eternity," said Mr. Rockwood.

Tonight another meeting will be held at 8 o'clock.

Nixon Receives Good Reception

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) - U.S. Vice-President Nixon received a cordial and orderly reception here Friday on the sixth stop of his South American goodwill tour. Ecuador's vice-president, Francisco Illingworth, Quito's mayor Carlos Andrade Marin and commanders of Ecuador's armed forces officiated at military honors for Nixon on his arrival by plane from Peru.

Prior to his arrival, a scheduled conference with Ecuadorean students and labor leaders was cancelled. The cancellation followed demonstrations in Lima Thursday when stones and spit greeted Nixon at San Marcos, Peru's oldest university.

The Peruvian students had kept up a running series of demonstrations ever since Nixon's arrival Wednesday.

Sources close to Nixon said he might abandon his custom of visiting leading universities to talk with students in countries he visits.
