EXTRA CASH FOR EXTRA EFFORTS

Special Cash Prizes For Candidates Says Life Better In United Kingdom

Doing Best Work This Week And Next Week.

The tremendous success of the campaign to date, and the enthusiastic and widespread interest it has created in Charlottetown and all over Prince Edward Island has prompted the Guardian to provide still additional rewards for the willing contestants who are daily nearing the end of the vote battle for the two big automobiles.

Twenty five dollars in cash has been added to the big prize list and will be awarded to the contestants doing the best work this week and next week ending Saturday night August 1st. The $25.00 will be divided as follows: The contestant turning in the greatest amount of subscription business during this and next week will receive $10.00 the second highest will be awarded $7.00 and to the next highest, $2.00 will be given each. These cash prizes are in addition to all other prizes and commissions and no subscriptions reported before Tuesday this week will count on this offer. Only subscriptions reported including Saturday August 1st will count to win the extra cash awards.

Contestants now have an opportunity to win two prizes with the self same votes and subscriptions. Subscriptions turned in now will help toward winning one of the extra cash awards, and will mean a great deal toward winning the Chevrolet or the Ford V-8 Tudor Sedan at the close of the race on August 8th.

Effort this week and next week will no doubt have much to do with deciding the winners of the two cars when the judges count the votes at the close of the campaign. Contestants are advised to accomplish everything possible this week and next week. Get the big 50,000 votes allowed on every $20, get the big "second payment" votes, win one of the cash prizes and be on your way to auto-ownership at the close of the race in a few short weeks. Get going now, do not lag behind!

WILLIAM H. CREED

On Monday, June 15, 1936, Mr. William H. Creed passed away at his home in Albion in his 76th year. The late Mr. Creed had been in failing health for the past five years, and was confined to his bed for the last six months.

Mr. Creed was a kind husband, a loving father, and a man who had made a host of friends in Albion and the surrounding country, and the floral tributes that covered his casket in death speak of the high esteem and love of his many friends.

He leaves to mourn his widow and seven children: E. Victor Creed of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. William H. Spencer of Elyria, Ohio; James Henry Creed of Albion; Mrs. Charles C. Irvin of Johnson City, Tennessee; Mrs. William B. Conrad of Detroit, Mich.; Miss Lily T. Creed of Albion, and Mrs. Rowan C. Sencaubough of Pembroke. There was also one daughter, Amelia Pearl Creed, who died in Detroit, Michigan, Aug. 15, 1925.

He also leaves one brother, James J. Creed of Albion, and three sisters, Mrs. Benny Clarey and Mrs. Horatio Graham of Gasperaux, and Mrs. Ernest Griffin of Albion.

Mr. Creed was born on Sept. 14, 1860, on the farm on which stands his home, and was married August 30, 1887 to Mary Jane Turner of Dundas, P. E. I.

The funeral which was largely attended, took place on Wednesday, June 17th, at 2 p.m. A short service was held at the house, followed by the service in the St. George's Baptist Church. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Flannigan, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Sterling. The pall bearers were: Messrs. William Moore, John Martin Kearney, Russell Moore, Cliff Kemp, Leigh Wight and Harvey Moore, assisted by Richard Creed.

Mr. Creed's body has been committed to the grave, but we know his spirit has gone to that Eternal Home where there is no more suffering and pain, and to accept the promise "That where I live you, too shall live."

Joe Dionne Has Horoscope Read

CALLANDER, Ont., July 19—(CP)—Young Joe Dionne, not much interested in such things, has had his horoscope read and is being groomed for christening.

The church's formal naming of the quintuplets' kid brother has not been definitely set. It was scheduled for this afternoon at the Orbell Parish Church, where the elder Dionnes have worshipped since childhood, but was postponed when he is christened. Joe will enter the church informally as Joseph Robert Telephone Dionne and come out Joseph Olivia Telephone Dionne. He'll probably sign his first letter "Olivia Dionne Jr."

Joe, says mother Elzire, looks like "son Pere." So the party will be dropped and Olivia inserted. Joseph is honor of the Patron Saint of boys, Telephone a tribute to Telephone Demers, uncle of Mrs. Dionne. Mr. and Mrs. Demers will be the child's God-parents.

A "life of adventures" lies ahead of Joe. If the stars can be believed. The Dionnes haven't given any serious thought yet to his future—after all, he is only nine days old. But the horoscope marks him as a lover of pranks. "His friends will be legion and will be his greatest asset," the stars add.
