

THE REVENUE OF P. E. ISLAND FOR 1867.

Below will be found a statement of the Revenue for the financial year ending 31st January, 1868, and a comparison of the sources from which it has been derived for the last and previous years:—

Table with columns: SOURCES OF REV., 1867, 1866. Rows include Charlottetown, Beque, Georgetown, Murray Harbor, Grand River, Souris, St. Peter's, Rustico, Crapaud, New London, Malpeque, Casumpeque, Orwell Bay, Pinctte, Light & A. Duties, Land Assessment, Public Lands, Crown Lands, Rent Warren Farm, Post Office, Col. Secretary's fees, Registrar's, Customs, Warehouse, Land Assess, P. Wales College, License Duty, Seizures, Fines and Penalties, Casum Int. on Bonds, Wharfage, Mil. Barrack Ground, Rent Oyster Beds, Miscellaneous.

From the foregoing figures it will be seen that there is this year an increase in the amount of revenue received from Georgetown, Grand River, Rustico, Crapaud, Malpeque and Orwell Bay, while there is a considerable falling off at all the other ports. The receipts from Public Lands are £2,941 12s. 11d. less than they were in 1866, but considering that the first (and largest) instalment of the Cunnard Purchase were paid that year, the reduction is not so heavy as we anticipated. The Military Barracks Ground also yields a smaller revenue than it did in 1866, which will be the case every year until the purchase money is all paid into the Government. In a "miscellaneous" item is included the sum of £264 15s. received from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick as contributions towards the erection of the North Cape and East Point Light Houses. The heavy importations of 1866 have, as was foreseen, materially affected the trade of 1867, but all things considered, we think the revenue of the present, though over £17,000 short of that of last year, is a good one. It exceeds the expenditure by nearly £400.—Patriot, Thursday.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT THE CAR FACTORY.—On Monday afternoon last, about five o'clock, an accident occurred at the car factory, which resulted in the death of Alexander McNeill, a workman employed by Murray, Douglas & Co., aged about 24, and a native of Prince Edward Island, one of the British North American Provinces. The particulars of the accident are substantially as follows: McNeill was at work on a car which was on the side track and from one end of which the trucks had been taken out and blocks substituted to support it. A train backing up struck the opposite end of the car and threw it over on Mr. McNeill, crushing him beneath its ponderous weight. He was taken out as soon as possible, and everything done for him that could be done, but after lingering along in great suffering until Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, he died. He was an unmarried man, and had several comrades here from his native country who attended his funeral, which took place on Wednesday. Since the above was in type, we have received a note from Murray, Douglas & Co., in regard to the accident, from which we extract the following, showing that the blame attaches to a conductor on the P. & E. R. R. Alexander S. McNeill, with three other men, had a car jammed up and the trucks taken from under it. The four men were under or about the car making some repairs, when the conductor unlocked our switch, and without any authority, or giving any notice to any one connected with the works, backed his train in our siding, and knocked this car down, injuring McNeill so badly that he died the following evening.

[The above extract (so says the Summerside Progress) was sent to us for publication. The parties who sent it cut it from some newspaper, printed somewhere; but where, and what its date was, we do not know. Judging from the advertisements on the back of the slip, the paper was published in Milton, perhaps Milton, Massachusetts. Parties in the habit of cutting out extracts to send to papers, should be careful to give the name, date, and place of publication of the paper it was taken from. We understand the young man referred to as having lost his life, was a son of Mr. John McNeill, formerly of Lot 19.]

PRINCE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—According to announcement a meeting was held in the Court House, St. Eleanor's, on Saturday last, for the purpose of organizing an Agricultural Society for the County. James Wiggins, Esq., President of the St. Eleanor's Agricultural Society, took the chair, when the following resolutions were carried unanimously:— Moved by James J. Fraser, Esq., seconded by George Compton, Esq.:— Resolved, that this Society shall be called the Prince County Agricultural Society. Moved by Benjamin S. Mills, seconded by Mr. Robert Glover:— Resolved, that Messrs. James J. Fraser, George Jones, and Alex. Laird, be a Committee to revise and amend the Constitution of the Society. Moved by Mr. Alex. Laird, seconded by George Price:— Resolved, That a Public Meeting of this Society be held in Summerside, on Saturday, the 22nd inst., at 2 o'clock, p. m., when the amended Constitution will be submitted, and Officers be chosen for the ensuing year. The above meeting will be held in Strong's Hall. J. J. FRASER, Secy.

CHARLOTTETOWN DEBATING CLUB.—On last Friday evening the postponed question, "Is the present policy of England toward Ireland the best calculated to promote the happiness and contentment of the Irish people, and secure their attachment and loyalty to the British Crown?" was opened by F. S. Longworth, Esq., which, after an animated discussion, was submitted to the meeting and decided unanimously in the negative. The question for next Friday evening will be, "Is an advocate justified in defending a prisoner whom he believes to be guilty?" to be opened by Mr. John Crawford. The Secretary also takes this opportunity of informing the public that the yearly subscription to this Club is only three shillings. Any person wishing to become a member will please leave his name with him, to be submitted to the Committee; and that the rule of this Club, viz: That with the exception of ladies, none but members be admitted to the private debates, will hereafter be strictly enforced. R. R. FITZGERALD, Secy.

St. DUNSTON'S DEBATING CLUB.—Mr. P. Reilly lectured before this Club on Monday week last. After the close of the lecture a lively debate ensued on the various merits of the different poets. The audience appeared well pleased with the evening's proceedings, the subject being a lively and interesting one. On last Monday evening, Mr. Alex. McDonald commenced his lecture on the principal events in British History, from the dawn of Christianity down to the present time, but the subject being so comprehensive he was unable to finish it. On next Monday evening the 24th, he will take up the subject again. As the Historical events of Old England are of interest to nearly all, we hope to see a crowded house. JOHN WYNE, Secy.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

Letters from the South say that tongue cannot speak nor pen write the terrible destitution which prevails in the South. On the Mississippi, from Memphis to Bayou Sara, the wharves are lined with ragged and tattered blacks, who lounge away the hungry hours, proud of a rusty gun over their shoulder. The white population are in gloom. They cannot cultivate the land by the aid of these idle, profligate freedmen, neither have they the power to keep what necessities of life they may raise with their own hands from the grasp of the thieving blacks. Their vegetables are stolen before they are ripe, and their animals and poultry carried off in spite of every precaution.

The Mr. Gledwin Smith is about to take up his residence in the States, for the purpose of compiling an American history. In respect to this he says:—"I am not going to seek naturalization in America, or to cast off my allegiance to my own sovereign and my native land. I shall be no candidate for citizenship in America, but that of the Republic of Letters. In the present state of English affairs I can imagine, though I do not anticipate, the occurrence of a crisis which will render it incumbent on the honor of every Englishman to share, though he might be unable to influence, the destinies of his country."

The Cleveland Herald says: "The Geo. Francis Train affair resolves itself into this: one passenger on the Scotia had too long a tongue, another too long ears, and the authorities who made the arrest too long noses. The one thing needed by all parties concerned was common sense."

The most destructive conflagration ever known in Chicago broke out on the 29th ult., in the most thickly settled part of the business blocks of the city. Loss, $2,000,000.

PHOTOGRAPHIC.

NOW to his calling, WILL MUGFORD on hand, A Photographer blithe and bland; The sun he makes his PORTRAITS draw As true to life as e'er you saw. For PHOTOGRAPHS of every style, Visit MUGFORD'S SALOON, 'tis worth your while; His Pictures good, and PRICES LOW, For which he's famed where'er you go. The Lewy-man a doggerel sent, The country o'er, that he is bent To bet, from a shilling to a crown, His pictures are of most renown. Now here's Mugford's CHALLENGE on record, And he'll try Lewis, upon my word, To see whose Photographs will take the applause, And are the truest to Nature's laws. He'll bet a guinea to a shand, That he can whip this Lewy bad; He'll whip him up, and whip him down, Such is the opinion of all this Town. I have sat to them both, Mugford's far the best man; He made me look like a lord, or the chief of some clan; But Lewy distorted my face, and pinched up my nose, And made my eyes look like the snails of my toes.
