Ladies Who

Particularly like a certain kind of comb, would do well to look over our stock. We take pleasure in showing you just that particular comb you like. Ever hear of the "Reform,"—here are some of its good points—teeth constructed in pyramid form, makes them strong at base, teeth groved at base, does away with sharp edges—prevents breaking of hair, easily cleaned and other good points.
Sold at 25c each.
Other combs from 5c up, our 10c comb is a corker for the money.

The Oddfellows, of which society he was a member, attended in a body, accompanied by the Band of the 4th Regiment.

On Thursday, Sept. 6th, an opportunity will be given our citizens of hearing two of our most talented artists before they leave us for some time. We refer to Miss Gertrude Davies and Mr. Fred Morris, who will take part in an entertainment on the above date in St. Peter's Hall. A most excellent programme has been prepared which will be rendered by some of our most talented performers and those who have not lately appeared in public entertainments. Particulars later.

"SOLDIERS OF THE QUEEN."—The Boston Stock Company now organizing in Charlottetown for the regular season will include the following members of the late Richards Stock Co., Harry Bewley, John M. Byrnes, John R. Higgins, Miss Violet Barney and the Lawrence sisters. A prominent New York leading man and a well known character woman and several well known players are now on their way to strengthen the new organization. The company opens for two nights engagement in Charlottetown on or about Sept. 14th, in a British-Boer military drama from the prolific pen of the clever actor and playwright, Mr. Harry Bewley, entitled "Soldiers of the Queen," a detailed synopsis of which will appear in a later issue. At this time, when the eyes of the world are centered on the historic struggle in South Africa, and when thousands of Canada's brave sons are fighting side by side with their English brothers to uphold the honor of the Old Flag, any reference to the great event has a heart interest to all who love the prestige and glory of the Old Land beyond the sea. In "Soldiers of the Queen" the elements of comedy and tragedy are so cleverly blended and the transition from one emotion to the other so rapid that the interest is kept up from rise to fall of curtain. The scenic effects will give actual representations of the battles and scenes with which the world is now familiar, and the costuming will be in every particular perfect in detail. A number of clever specialties will be introduced between the acts by the Lawrence sisters, Miss Violet Barney and Harry Bewley, all of whom are prominent favorites.
—One of Sir Wilfrid's troubles is, what to do with Mr. Tarte. Remarking upon the proposal to make him Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba the Montreal Witness says that "He is not the timber out of which successful governors can be made."
—The notorious Mr. Pacaud is likely to be Sir Wilfrid Laurier's candidate in Montemorency, Quebec!
