

MR. AND MRS. J. A. ARSENAULT

Double Ring Ceremony Unites A Happy Couple

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's Church, Summerside, on Monday, April 27, at 9 a.m. when Donna Lee Arsenault, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alban Arsenault, Summerside, became the bride of Joseph Adrian Arsenault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arsenault, Summerside. Rev. Emmanuel Richard performed the double ring ceremony, and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The organist was Mrs. Irene Peters, who accompanied Mrs. Gertrude Cahill as she sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother, at Thy Feet I'm Kneeling." The bride, given in marriage by her father was lovely in her floor length wedding gown of white peau de soie, princess style with hoop, and featuring a deep V neckline back and front, and long sleeves forming points at the wrists and tiny pearl button trim. A tiara with sequin and seed pearl trim held in place a circular scalloped veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations with ivy leaves entwined.

Miss Elizabeth MacDonald, R.N., as bridesmaid, was gowned in sapphire blue nylon chiffon over taffeta, ballerina length and her headress was a small white hat with sequin trim and streamers. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Flight Cadet Arthur Arsenault, brother of the groom, was best man. LAC Joseph Barrett and Mr. George Arsenault ushered the guests to the pews which were marked with nosegays and ribbon. Robert Perry, cousin of the bride, was altar boy.

Mrs. Arsenault chose for her daughter's wedding a green and white flowered sheath style dress of satin with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother was attired in a light blue crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations. Mrs. John Perry, the groom's grandmother wore navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception for fifty guests was held at Mulberry Lodge, where the bride's table, with its attractive arrangement of spring flowers, was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with love birds and wedding bells and encircled with rosebuds and tulle. The Misses Audrey Millar, R.N. and Doris Andrew were in charge of the guest book.

For the honeymoon trip to points of interest and to Greenwood, N.S. where LAC and Mrs. Arsenault will reside, the bride wore a two-piece beige dress with matching coat and brown and tan accessories. Her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. E. J. Gallant, Charlottetown; Mrs. Joseph Arsenault, Tignish; Mr. Arthur Arsenault, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan; Mr. Joseph Barrett, Greenwood, N.S. (Photo by Heckbert Studio).

The couple left on a honeymoon trip to Prince Edward Island and on return will reside in Dartmouth, N.S., where the groom is stationed in the Royal Canadian Navy, Halifax, N.S. and the bride is on the staff of the N.P.F. Shearwater.

TALISMAN TEA HATS ARE CHIC

BY ALICD ALDEN
THERE'S no need this year either to hide beautiful hair under a bonnet or to show off an especially beautiful coiffure by going hatless. Those occasions by the board this season because haters and hairdressers are working together, each showing off the other's handwork. For instance Robin makes a crisscross Milan caplet so that it sits lightly at the back of the head to give the hair full display. Trimmed with grapes and green leaves, it sings of summer.

Y's Menettes Planning A Summer Fashion Show

"People have declaimed against luxury for 2,000 years, in verse and in prose, yet people have always delighted in it." So spoke 18th century French philosopher Voltaire.

The young women in the Centennial Y's Menettes are much too sensible to desire European luxury yet the fashion show they present is of such a standard that it gives the illusion of luxury combined with practical Canadian merchandise.

There were delighted reactions to their show last year and this year the clothes and manner of presenting them promise to be of the same exacting standard. May 21 and 26 are the dates chosen and there will be two shows each evening at the "Y". The theme for the shows this year is most intriguing but until more of the details are worked out it is being kept as a delightful secret. Mrs. Brian Cudmore (the name Cudmore is synonymous with "Y" work) and Mrs. H.L. Sears, junior, are co-conveners for this coming event.

ELLEN'S DIARY

The Pony-Tailed Elves Aren't They Adorable?

Last evening Granddaughter, not without pleasant anticipations, joined the other members of her sewing class (The Sunshine Garment Club—a 4-H project) and its good teacher, whose St. Patrick's Day birth-date gives her to be "Patty" to them, all to be off to town to present in competition their chorus at the annual Music Festival there.

While this was in the nature of a new departure for them, as a school they have been competitors down years. Sometimes with justifiable pride in their attainments and always we may say with pride to the district which enjoys having its children take their part with the other youngsters there.

The sewing class is only few in number, but each one down to the smallest pony-tailed elf is gifted to sing. As it happened they did well for themselves, their instructor and all, gaining to third place in the number of such choruses presented.

As a perfect finale to their evening, Patty gathered them to a restaurant where, with us suspect many a pleased young smile they spent a happy and long-to-be-remembered hour together.

In this year's handicraft, some have pretty gowns and blouses to their credit. Granddaughter has mastered the intricacies of crocheting, and is well on with the sewing both hand and machine, required of her year.

Today saw the choruses from our one-room school presented in competition at the Festival, as it turned out to bring a wide smile to Mack when the juniors received the best mark, and, if none could be numbered among the top three, the district is nonetheless proud of its own. It may be said that in this singing in a company, there is not the worry which attends an individual presentation, and all in all they sang a delightful, if a bit tiring day, in the city.
