

THE CALLAGHAN MURDER. Alexander Gillis in the Dock. ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE.

A Crowded Court Room.

THE EVIDENCE FOR THE CROWN.

H. J. Cudall's examination resumed.

(Watches shown.) I identify the three watches shown in court as those handed to me, as foreman of the Grand Jury, last July Term, I received them from some of the officers of the law.

Cross-examined by Mr. Peters—As foreman of the Grand Jury I took down notes of the evidence produced before me. I exercised great care in so doing, as I thought it might be useful.

BALDWIN PROWE (sworn)—Examined by Mr. Hodgson, Q. C.—I am twenty years of age. I live on Great West Street. Previous to my coming to live here I lived in the County, about three miles from Charlottetown.

Cross-examined by Mr. Peters—Gillis was at our place about the time of the murder.

MARY ELLEN MACDONALD (sworn)—Examined by Mr. Hodgson, Q. C.—I live at Harmony. I knew Alex. Gillis. That is a little acquainted with me.

Cross-examined by Mr. Peters—Gillis was at our place about the time of the murder.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

Irish Affairs.

LONDON, Jan. 22.

If the National League is proclaimed in Ireland, the central executive of the organization will be located in England.

The St. James' Gazette says it is known that there is a resolute body of men behind more peaceable members of the Irish National who are determined to resort to violence unless the demands of the Parnellite party are conceded by Parliament.

It is also known, says the Gazette, that even among Irish members of the House of Commons there are several employers of O'Donovan Rossa.

The government is aware that these miscreants have elaborated plans to perform deeds of violence, and that they have selected a particular part of England in which to ply the knife and pistol, discarding dynamite, which, it is alleged, the plotters regard as a blundering medium.

Cold and Stormy Weather.

SIoux CITY, Jan. 22.

The mercury here was 24 degrees below zero this morning. Trains on nearly all the roads are several hours late, and the Illinois Central is still blocked.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 22.

A blizzard, which has been raging since last night, is the worst known among the railroads for years, making it impossible to keep the cuts clear long enough to run on the Southern Minnesota division, and the Milwaukee road has been abandoned.

At nine this morning the thermometer at Minneapolis stood at 26 degrees below zero.

Cruelty to a Burman

LONDON, Jan. 22.

The London Times' Monday correspondent says: A Burman, who was suspected of being connected with a conspiracy, was placed among the corpses of five Deoites who had just been executed.

The Provost Marshall then threatened the man with instant death by shooting if he did not confess all he knew of the supposed conspiracy, in which certain Burmese ministers were alleged to be implicated.

A squad of soldiers were drawn up in line and presented their rifles, when this frightened him into making a confession, in which he implicated several of the Burmese ministers.

CANADIAN NOTES.

OTTAWA, Jan. 22.

It was decided to-day that Parliament should be summoned for despatch of business on the 25th of February.

Hon. Mr. Cayley, at Nongonarian, has been here to obtain the release of his son, the Calgary journalist, imprisoned by order of Judge Travis because he refused to pay a fine of $300 imposed by Travis for criticizing his judgment.

The government will likely grant a remission of sentence to the half-breeds and Indians under sentence of imprisonment for participation in the Northwest rebellion.

Mrs. Mauray Dead

LONDON, Jan. 22.

Madame Louise Mauray, who with Stead and others were convicted in November last in connection with the Armstrong case and sentenced to six months imprisonment, died yesterday in Millbank prison of bright's disease.

A Blue Book.

LONDON, Jan. 22.

A Blue Book on the Burmese question has been presented to the members of the House of Commons. It shows that England's action in Burmah was largely due to French intrigues.

Mill Burnt

BRUSSELS, Jan. 22.

This morning the large furniture factory and planing mill owned by James Bennett, was destroyed by fire. Loss estimated at $12,000; insurance, $2,000.

Address Agreed To.

LONDON, Jan. 22.

The address in reply to the Queen's speech, was agreed to in the House of Lords.

To the Electors of Ward 4

GENTLEMEN.—At the request of a large number of the electors of Ward 4 I have decided to contest the Ward, and now solicit your support.

Believing that a large majority of our citizens are strongly in favor of the introduction of water for fire purposes by a company, I shall, if elected, do all I can to have water brought in, under the best possible arrangement for the citizens.

I remain, gentlemen, yours truly,

JOHN LEWIS.

A Genuine Mark-Down Sale!—Appalling Reductions!—Unheard-Of Prices!—Overcoats, Suits, Tweeds and Gents' Furnishings—

SLAUGHTERED! SLAUGHTERED! SLAUGHTERED!

TIME for Stock-taking is near. Dull trade is alarming. Our stock of Tweeds must go. Our mammoth stock of Clothing must go. Our big stock of Gents' Furnishings must go. Our large and superb stock of Ladies' Furnishings must go. The price is not so much of an object. The goods must turn into new dollars.

This price list is only an index—

Men's Heavy Overcoats with Fur Collars, only $10, worth $14.

Men's Black Worsted Suits, only $6.50, worth $10.

Men's Winter Pants, $1.25, $1.50, $2 and up. $15 will buy a first-class Suit, made to measure, worth $25.

$4 will purchase a first-class pair of Scotch Tweed Pants, worth $5.50.

$3 will buy a Heavy Winter Ulster, worth just $8.75.

Tryon Tweed Suits, made to measure by first-class workmen, $11, $12, and up.

Child's Winter Suits, with good trimmings and braided, $1.75, and up; $8 will purchase a noble Scotch Tweed Suit, worth $12.

Our Black Worsted Overcoats, worth $12, now $8; $1 will buy a Suit of Underclothing in pure Cape Wool.

We hold the championship for honest, low-priced tweeds, and challenge all-comers to dispute our $5-cent Merino Wool Tweed, worth $1.40.
