LONGER LIFE SEEN FOR Cyprus Force
UNITED NATIONS (AP) - United Nations Secretary-General U Thant is reported planning to ask the Security Council to double the life of the UN peace-keepers in Cyprus. The Council set up the force for a 18-month period that ends June 27.
Diplomatic sources said Saturday that the force would be extended by June 8 that the Council keep it going for another three months to allow more time for carrying out UN objectives for Cyprus.
They said and so informed countries in the operation Friday, and added if they would continue to participate.
That had a private meeting with delegates from the nine countries - Canada, Britain, Denmark, Finland, Ireland, Sweden, Austria and New Zealand.
He was said to have told them he had an optimistic report on Cyprus from his special representative there, Galo Plaza Lasso of Ecuador.
That said Plaza told him some negotiations had been dismantled in Cyprus and all the roads were clear, except one through the Kyrenia Pass.
The Security Council is expected to meet in mid-June to consider keeping the project alive beyond the current period.
POOL TRAFFIC
