Marlins, Leafs Cop Victories

MONTREAL (CP) — Miami Marlins breezed to an 11-2 victory over Montreal Wednesday, pounding out 16 hits to spoil the homer opener for the Royals before a crowd of 5,684 International League fans.

Young righthander Jack Fisher doled out seven hits to post his second win without a setback and stretch the Marlins' first - place lead to 1½ games. The last-place Royals were left four games off the pace.

Forest (Woody) Smith, Bill Lajoie and Leo Burke cracked home runs for Miami. Smith's came with one mate on base.

The Marlins shelled Montreal starter Werner (Babe) Birrer from the mound in the second inning with a five-run uprising and went on to tag four other Montreal pitchers heavily. The loss was Birrer's third in four decisions.

TORONTO (CP) — Archie Wilson, the second successful pinch-hitter of the sixth inning, tripled in two runs Wednesday to defeat Havana Sugar Kings 6-5 and start the International Baseball League home season for Toronto Maple Leafs.

An opening day crowd of 14,268, watched the Leafs battle back from behind a 5-2 deficit for the victory. A four-run upsurge in the sixth erased a four-run Havana rally in the fourth for the win.

Frank Funk, 23-year-old righthander, held the Cubans to one single in three innings of relief to protect the victory for Jack Crimian. Luis Arroyo was tagged with the loss, his third in as many decisions.

FIND BODY IN TAXI

PARIS (Reuters)—Police making a routine check in the Montmartre area Tuesday ordered three occupants out of a taxi and found the still-warm body of an Algerian on the floor. He had been strangled.

Brown, Rosi To Meet In Title Match

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lightweight champion Joe Brown was matched Wednesday for a title defence against Paolo Rosi in Washington June 3.

Brown, king of the 135-pounders since 1956, will be putting his crown on the line for the seventh time.

Rosi, an Italian who came to the United States in 1952, was listed as No. 3 contender in Ring magazine's rankings.

Calumet Farm Withdraws Entry From Derby Classic

By JOHN CHANDLER

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Owners of 17 possible starters in the 85th running of the Kentucky Derby must kick in with an entry box fee of $250 today, and there must be some signs of relief. The fabulous Calumet Farm is remaining in the barn. Someone else gets a clear crack at the big money.

No Derby in 50 years has perplexed the blue grass such as this $125,000-added glamour gallop which will be spread out before a Churchill Downs crowd of some 90,000 Saturday and a TV audience.

Calumet's red and blue silks were carried into the winners' circle in 1957 by Iron Liege, and last May by Tim Tam. Trainer Jimmy Jones reluctantly withdrew his colt On-And-On from this year's classic for three-year-olds.

"On-And-On hasn't developed into what I'd call a real Derby contender," said Jones. "He had a workout this morning and I didn't like it at all."

NO CLEAR FAVORITE

There is no clearly defined favorite. Texans and Californians talked about Tomy Lee, Silver Spoon, Finnegan and Royal Orbit. The east and Florida waypoints wondered whether First Landing, Sword Dancer, Our Dad, or Easy Spur might grab the roses.

Other observers were about ready to throw all the names in a hat and draw one.

First Landing, owned by Christopher T. Chenery, was the undisputed two-year-old champion in 1958 but hasn't been acting like the three - year - old king. Tomy Lee, a British-bred colt owned by Fred Turner of Midland, Tex., and raced mostly in California, won the Blue Grass Stakes last week at nearby Keeneland. In two meets last fall, First Landing barely edged Tomy Lee.

But First Landing was no great shakes in Florida, lost the Wood Memorial at Jamaica recently, and then won his division of the Derby Trial Stakes Tuesday.

Since Eddie Arcaro will pilot First Landing as he seeks his sixth Derby victory, his mount may be a lukewarm favorite at 2-to-1 by post time.

Yanks' Kubeck Collapses At Breakfast Table

CHICAGO (AP) — Tony Kubek of New York Yankees collapsed at the breakfast table at the team's hotel Wednesday. He fainted and was helped to his room.

It was believed that the flu, which had hit 13 Chicago White Sox players, also had gotten him but a doctor who examined Kubek said it wasn't flu. The 22-year-old infielder was taken to the doctor's office for further examination.

Manager Al Lopez and six of his players were unable to appear in uniform Wednesday, due to the flu or virus. Lopez, infielders Earl Torgeson and Billy Goodman, outfielders John Callison and Don Mueller and pitcher Dick Donovan were confined to their rooms. Earl Battey, reserve catcher, was in a Chicago hospital.
