

Candlelight Service
At Mount Stewart

St. John's United Church, Mount Stewart, was filled to capacity last Sunday evening when the Young People conducted the annual candlelight service. The president, Robbie Leard, assisted by Buddie Coffin and Dorothy Coffin, led the worship service. Rev. W. N. Byers gave the address on the symbolic meaning of candles. The Young Peoples choir gave special numbers: "The Birthday of a King" and "All My Heart This Night Rejoices". The old favorite "Silent Night" was sung during the candle lighting. The church was dimly lighted with electric candles and decorated with evergreens. After the service Mrs. J. A. Anderson who conducted the choir was presented with a gift in appreciation for her work.

Farm Forum Meets At Whim Road

...On December 8th the Whim Road Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. Robert Campbell. There were 12 members present. The subject "The Hub of the Farm Community" was discussed enthusiastically. Although Whim Road has a community hall which is used freely for community activities it was felt that even better use could be made of it, so a committee was appointed to work in conjunction with an equal number of committee members which the Forum would ask the Women's Institute to appoint to explore ways and means to improve the present centre.

After discussing the suggested questions, the members reached the following conclusions:

To question 1 (A) "If there is a community centre in your area, what contribution is it making to the life of the people in your forum and neighborhood?" The answer was: We use our centre for most community projects. (B) "How could your community centre be improved?" As mentioned above an improvement committee was appointed.

Question 2 dealt with districts that had no community centres and was not applicable to Whim Road.

Question 3 states "Many people think that the school could best serve the community if it were designed or remodelled to serve as a combined community centre and school. What do you think?" The members of this forum thought that the school could serve as a community centre, but in most cases it would have to be remodelled.

A suggested topic for discussion at a later date was "ways and means of marketing". Mr. Leslie Stuart invited the members of the forum to his home for the next meeting.

Christmas Everywhere

Christmas, Christmas, everywhere! On land and sea and in the air The very cloudlets drifting by Seem sending Christmas from the sky.

The little snowflakes falling down Bring Christmas joys to every town; Where in each window in the night A cheery candle sheds its light.

In country lane and city street The little Christmas elfins meet To chase the bad thoughts of the year And fill each heart with Christmas cheer.

From South to North; from West to East We hear it sung—the Christmas feast And Angel songs—are on the air Christmas, Christmas, everywhere!
