Caledonia Mourns Passing Of Mr. Donald MacIntosh

The community of Caledonia mourns the passing of Mr. Donald MacIntosh, who was 75 years old. The late Mr. MacIntosh had resided with Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacPherson, Caledonia, for the past number of years. Largely attended funeral services were held at Valleyfield Church on Monday at 10 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Hale officiating.

The floral tributes were beautiful, offering expressions of sympathy in their silent manner. Pallbearers were, John K. MacDonald, Beaton Stewart, John A. MacPherson, Norman Nicholson, Daniel MacPherson, Elmer MacPherson. Interment was in Valleyfield cemetery.

Left to mourn the passing of a devoted father are two daughters, Esther, R.N. of Charlottetown, and Mrs. Gladys Wilkins, Montreal, and one son, Alexander of Toronto.

Remembering

For you, we place the Hero's wreath Beside this stone today, For you, our chanted praises ring For you, the bugles play.

For you, who went across the sea To stand at England's side, For you, who fought for Canada, And fighting bravely--died.

For you, the crimson popples bloom Their petals wet with tears, For you, our tender love that shall Outlast the passing years.
